ESTACADA, OREGON,

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1927

Number 7

Cupid Takes Local Boy

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. Pete Naysmith of Camas, Washington, November 12, 1927, at 7:30 p. m. when his daughter Miss Jeanette Naysmith was united in marriage to Mr. Arlie Coop, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Coop of Estacada, Oregon. Elder R. E. Chapman, of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Eddie Weberly was best man and Miss Nina May Smith acted as bride's maid. The bride was gowned in a beautiful lavender crepe and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom wore a blue serge suit. The maid's dress was designed to match that of the bride. She carried pink carnations.

Many friends and relatives were present and the newlyweds received many useful gifts which will aid them in starting housekeeping.

They will live at Camas, Wash., where Mr. Coop has been employed for some time at the Crown Willamette paper mills.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Coop, Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m., and about 40 friends and relatives were present. Much happiness is extended to the happy couple.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien, who have apartments at the John Irvin home, had as guests last Sunday, Ernest Costanzo, Louis P. Grosso, Jack Lentsch, all of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Graves and family and John Doyle from Portland. Mrs. John Irvin very delightfully served a delicious dinner, which was in honor of Miss Arvillia Graves, the occasion being her birthday. A most pleasant social time followed and Mrs. Irvin was given a rising vote of thanks by the party for her wonderful dinner and to Mr. Irvin also who assisted in the generous hospitality.

Ted Saling a Hero

Ted Saling, who is working on the dam on the Bull Run river, had quite an experience a few days ago. A man was struck by a timber or tree while working on the dam, and was rendered unconscious, falling into the swift current of the river. A number of workmen hurried to his assistance, but Ted being the best sprinter, reached the man first just as he went down. Ted followed his body down the river and finally saw it at the bottom of the stream. He dove down and rescued the man who later recovered from his injury.

Children's Party

Monday afternoon Mrs. U. H. Elwood gave a party for her daughter Doris, to celebrate her 19th birthday. Games were played and later the children were seated at a large table decorated in pink and white. Places were laid for Doris Elwood, Suzanne Cooke, Hazel Cox, Jean Lemon, Myrtle Moore, Pauline Moore, Erma Beers, Lucy Metcalf, Ruth Kitching, Crystal Follet and Velma Douglas. Mrs. Rickman and Mrs. Adiane Schoonover assisted Mrs. Elwood in serving the little folks.

Next P. T. A. Meeting

The next meeting of the Estacada Parent Teachers Association will be held Tuesday, November 29 at 3 p. m. in the grade school assembly room. Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers will give an interesting talk explaining the work and purposes of the association. There will also be some musical numbers by the children. You are cordially invited to attend whether you are a member or not.

Rebekahs Visit Gresham

The local order of Rebekahs report a most enjoyable time Monday evening when about 43 members visited the Gresham lodge.
