Aerial Signposts

For some time past the British air ministry has been considering the question of providing identification marks at points all over the country for the convenience of airplane pilots. The first of these novel "signposts" is shortly to be established near Wey-down common, Haslemere, where the ministry has rented a piece of ground sufficiently large to enable the name "Haslemere" to be outlined against the turf in large white letters.

Up till now only aerodromes have been indicated by this method, but it is intended to develop the identification scheme until every town and village will have its name inscribed at a convenient spot. Airmen will then have no need to carry maps, since the whole of Great Britain, seen from above, will be one vast map.—London Answers.

ISAIAH COUNSELS THE RULERS

LESSON TEXT—Isa. 37:5-11; 14-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Care for Jerusalem.
JUNIOR TOPIC—God's Care of a Nation.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—God the Ruler of Nations.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Recognition of God in National Affairs.

The committee has given as the scripture units chapters 7, 31, 36 and 37. It will materially help in the grasp of the lesson if brief attention be given to these chapters; therefore in the outline brief reference will be made to chapters 7 and 31 while confining the main exposition to chapters 36 and 37.

I. Isaiah's Message to Ahaz.
1. Prophecy concerning Immanuel (ch. 7).
The occasion of this prophecy was an invasion from the north by Israel and Syria. This invasion greatly alarmed Ahaz. To calm his fearful heart Isaiah assured him that God's purpose concerning the nation would not fail. He urged the exercise of faith in God, offering to confirm his faith by working any miracle desired. While with false humility he refused a sign the prophet announced the giving of a sign which would be the birth of Immanuel.

2. A promise of divine protection (ch. 31).
Ahaz foolishly called for the help of Assyria and Egypt against Israel and Syria. Isaiah rebuked him for this, showing him clearly that his only help was in God.

II. Judah Invaded by the Assyrians (Isa. 36).
1. Rabshekeh meets a deputation from Judah (vv. 1-21).
He represented Sennacherib, the king of Judah, whose mission was to induce Assyria to surrender. His method to accomplish this was:
(1) Intimidation (vv. 4-9).
He tried to bully them into submission.
(2) Misrepresentation (v. 10).
He asserted that it was useless for them to put their trust in God and even declared that the Lord had sent him to destroy Egypt.

(3) He tried to create a panic among the people (vv. 13-21). Fearing such a panic the deputation of the Jews urged Rabshekeh not to speak in the Jews' language.
(4) He promised them plenty in another land (vv. 16, 17).
2. The report to Hezekiah by the deputation (v. 22). They rent their garments in fear and dismay over their perilous condition, for the crisis long before predicted by Isaiah had now come upon them.

III. Hezekiah's Behavior (Isa. 37).
1. Resorted to the House of the Lord (v. 1).
This is a sure retreat for God's people in time of distress (Ps. 73:16, 17; 73:13). This action was prompted by faith, for God had promised that whoever in time of distress resorted to His house would be heard by Him (11 Chron. 7:15, 16).
2. Sent to Isaiah (vv. 2-7).
The natural and logical thing for the king to do under such circumstances was to send for God's prophet.

3. Hezekiah's prayer (vv. 14-20).
Rabshekeh, who seems to have withdrawn from Jerusalem for a little while, now returned from Sennacherib with a letter warning Hezekiah against trusting God for deliverance, for no God was able to stand against the Assyrian army. He spread the letter before the Lord and prayed.
(1) He recognized God's throne, making it the ground of his plea (v. 16).
He reposed his faith in the lordship of Jehovah, knowing that all power and authority resided in Him.
(2) He recognized the peril which threatened the people (vv. 17-19).
(3) He asked for deliverance (v. 20).
4. Isaiah's message to Hezekiah (vv. 21-35).
(1) That Sennacherib's sin was blasphemy against the Holy One of Israel (vv. 21-23).
(2) That Sennacherib had forgotten that he was an instrument in God's hand (vv. 24-25).
(3) That judgment upon Sennacherib was imminent (vv. 29-35).
IV. The Assyrian Army Destroyed (vv. 36-38).
The angel of the Lord went forth and slew in the camp of the Assyrians 185,000 men, so Sennacherib was turned back by the way he came.

The Bible as a Foundation

God's Giants

All God's giants have been weak men, who did great things for God because they reckoned on His being with them.—Hudson Taylor.

GREAT STONE FACE IN PERIL, IS SAVED

Friends of Literary Landmark Buy Tract.

Concord, N. H.—A threat of despoilment has brought lovers of nature to the rescue of the great stone face, age-old sculpture of nature made famous by Hawthorne, Lowell and Webster.

The movement of lumbermen toward the wooded slopes of Franconia notch, above which the Old Man of the Mountain keeps his lone watch from a lofty bluff, and the possibility that quarrymen might come to blast granite from the mountain walls near the landmark have been checked by steps to purchase and set aside for the public 6,000 acres of forest land in the notch surrounding the great stone face.

$300,000 in Two Gifts.

In the effort are allied the state of New Hampshire, the Society for Protection of New Hampshire Forests, the American Nature association and numerous individuals. The state has appropriated $200,000 of the $500,000 asked for the land; James J. Storrow, late Boston banker, left another $100,000 for the fund, and a nation-wide campaign is in progress to obtain $100,000 from private contributors, each of whom is offered opportunity to name a forest tree in the region. The other $100,000 would be paid out of revenue on concessions.

Acquisition of the region for a preserve will prevent the denuding of its hillsides and will avert danger of displacement of any part of the profile of the great stone face from blasts of quarrymen.

It was in 1805 that workmen, building the first rough road through Franconia notch, discovered the great stone face towering 1,200 feet above them.

Later Hawthorne in his story, "The Great Stone Face," wrote: "It seems as if an enormous giant or Titan had sculptured his own likeness on the precipice. . . Its fast lips, if they could have spoken, would have rolled their thunder accents from one end of the valley to the other."

Daniel Webster, native of the vicinity, said: "Up in the mountains of New Hampshire God Almighty has hung out a sign to show that there He makes men."

Other Beauty Spots Near By.

Close to the face are the fume, great chasm in the granite wall of the notch; the pool, Echo lake and Profile lake, and high on Mount Cannon, Lonesome lake.

In the nation-wide appeal for aid in preserving the famous profile one of the first to respond was Mrs. Ellen F. Butterfield of Milwaukee, whose families for several generations were neighbors of the Old Man.

"My mother, Angelina Knapp Fuller, was born in Franconia, N. H., and my grandfather, Clark Knapp, was one of the early hotelkeepers in the White mountain region," she relates. "He entertained such celebrities as Jenny Lind, the Siamese twins, P. T. Barnum and Ole Bull. My grandmother, Elizabeth Newton Knapp, named Echo lake."

Carry Assistants to Solicit Taxi Fares

Mexico City.—This capital offers to ambitious young men a possibly unique opportunity—that of becoming an assistant taxicab driver. Many of the taxi chauffeurs of Mexico City carry helpers. Their duties do not seem arduous.

While the driver, who is usually the owner, handles the car, his right-hand man busily engages himself in keeping a sharp lookout for customers. If he is a good assistant and a willing worker he crooks his finger in a questioning manner at passers-by and persons standing on corners. Naturally, if one wants a taxicab the assistant falls to spot the prospective fare. But theoretically he specializes in establishing contact with the public as a kind of tside salesman. Probably if he likes your appearance he will open the door for you when you get in.

Some of the assistant drivers, it is alleged, do not love their work as well as they should and are in it only for what they can get out of it—namely: continuous free travel. Others, it is said, get their jobs only because their employers cannot endure driving around all day without some one to talk to.

In still another category are those who act as bodyguards, safeguarding to some extent the danger of holdups at night.

Anatole France's Brain Like Fine Clock, Doctors Say

Paris.—Anatole France, noted French author, had a smaller brain than the average man, Dr. Guillaume Louis and Doctor Dubrieul-Chambardel, who performed an autopsy on the body, told the Academy of Medicine recently. M. France's brain weighed 1,017 grams, while the average weight for a man's brain is 1,300 grams. "It was the most beautiful brain I ever saw," one of the doctors said. "It looked like one of those pretty little clocks Julien Leroy used to make in the days of Louis XV, elegant and light, but beautifully chiseled and wonderfully precise."

Still Working

London.—There is a rumor that British engineers are working on a car that will get 50 miles on a gallon of gas.

SMUGGLERS COST U. S. MILLIONS

Secret Service Unable to Stop Illicit Traffic.

Washington.—Unset diamonds worth at least $50,000,000 are being smuggled into the United States this year by a gang of international smugglers. The government of this country will be swindled out of $10,000,000 duty due on the gems. Skilled American secret service agents have been sent to Antwerp, Belgium, headquarters of the gang, to try to capture the smugglers.

The smuggler gang has been in operation for several years, it has just been disclosed. Treasury officials in Washington have obtained no clues that would warrant arrests in the course of their investigations.

The gang, it is asserted, guarantees to deliver smuggled diamonds to purchasers in New York city. It even posts forfeits equal to the value of the gems to assure purchasers that they will not lose their money should the smugglers be captured and the gems confiscated.

Government officials admit that the manner in which the diamonds are smuggled into this country is a mystery they have been unable to solve. Customs inspectors seize on an average of $150,000 worth of smuggled gems a year, it is explained, but it is doubtful if any of these gems were taken from agents of the Antwerp band. The directors of the international gang are believed to be Americans, and secret service agents are working day and night in their anxiety to end the gang's operations.

Food Waste in U. S. Is $700,000,000 a Year

Chicago.—Housewives of the United States waste $700,000,000 in foodstuffs annually, it was shown in a survey completed by A. J. Autherlioth of the Middle West Utilities company, which was made public recently. Autherlioth is vice president in charge of the ice engineering for the company.

His figures showed that each family wasted about 10 cents' worth of food daily by spoilage, or an equivalent of $35 annually. This waste was not due to carelessness, but rather to a want of proper refrigerating facilities, he said.

"Only 55 per cent of the 28,750,000 American homes have refrigerators, and but 20 per cent of them use ice the year round," Autherlioth found. "Present-day diet is composed chiefly of highly perishable foods—green vegetables, fresh fruits, meat and dairy products," he said. "These foods contain a high percentage of moisture and are subject to quick spoilage. Refrigeration has become a necessity in the name of economy, because a constant temperature of 45 degrees or less is required to delay deterioration."

Gloom-Chasing Cafe for Foggy Days in London

London.—An "anti-depression restaurant" for women shoppers on foggy days was recently opened by a large Piccadilly circus department store.

The restaurant stretches from one end of the store to the other. Artificial sunlight effects are obtained by the glowing golden walls and ceiling of the lounge.

Beams stretch across the ceiling of the restaurant, which is papered in silver. On the walls are dull orange and green lights in alabaster globes.

The carpet is yellow, with blue "suns" on it, with the chairs and tables of apple green. Shimmering green taffeta curtains give an illusion of leaves and woods outside.

"We wanted something that would cheer up women shoppers on dull, sunless days which are a sample of England in any season," one of the directors declared.

Features of the service are quick luncheons and American dishes.

The Boss' Chance

Help—But I haven't asked you for more salary before.

Boss—Of course not, and I never had reason to fire you.

Resin from the almeciga tree is used in making fine varnish and patent-leather and by natives for driving away mosquitoes.

Find Photographic Way to Trace Tuberculosis

Paris.—A photographic method of determining the existence of tuberculosis in mankind, even when unsuspected, was announced by Dr. Arthur Vernes, head of the Prophylactic Institute, whose work has been greatly facilitated by large gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gould.

Vernes asserted that more than 10,000 tests have verified the accuracy of his method which is based on a photometric test of the blood. Tuberculosis is frequently active when the lungs are entirely free of it, he said. He said cases had been found where tuberculosis was not suspected but that the test showed its presence and the hidden seat of the disease was then found.

His Decision

"Hooraw! hooraw!" suddenly shouted Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "Glory halleluoyer!"

"Now what's the matter with you?" asked his wife.

"I was reading along and didn't find anything interesting for quite a spell and was about to fling the paper down when I ran onto the account of a last chance sale of Shakespeare's books— if I don't buy 'em now I'll never get another chance!"

"Well, what about it?"

"I hain't a-going to buy 'em; that's all."—Kansas City Star.

Drugs Excite the Kidneys, Drink Water

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.
