CHURCHES

Methodist Notes

The church serves. It is here for no other purpose than to serve. Her Lord "took upon Him the form of a servant." He said: "He that will be greatest among you, let him be your servant."

The church serves the individual—by proclaiming pardon and peace, by preserving ideals, by providing an opportunity to identify one's self with Christ's program.

The church serves the family—by helping in the proper training of the children, by emphasizing the sanctity of the home ties, by preserving the faith of the fathers.

The church serves the nation—by providing good citizens, by teaching loyalty and obedience, by upholding the law.

Is the church serving you?
If you have no church home you are invited to worship with us, the Estacada Methodist church, the church of the word of God.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the second sermon from John 3:15 will be delivered. That was a fine attendance last Sunday. In the evening at 7:30 the subject will be "The Power House of Faith."

The Sunday school, with a good corps of teachers, meets at 10 a. m., and the Epworth league at 7 p. m. A welcome for all!—C. T. Cook, pastor.
