CURRINSVILLE

CURRINSVILLE, Jan. 19.—(Special).—Mrs. George Walter is out again after being confined to her bed and room for over three weeks.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lombard who have been confined to their beds for some time, are reported better.

Mrs. L. H. Ewalt accompanied Lloyd to Portland Tuesday.

Messrs. R. B. Gibson, T. C. McKay, and Wm. F. Douglass shipped several coops of poultry to the Portland market Tuesday on the Currinsville store truck.

W. M. Wade has been doing some plumbing work for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Looney.

The shingle mill on Douglass ridge is again in operation. This mill burned down some time ago. It is owned by E. J. Tompkins of Currinsville, and others.

Mrs. Jake Moss was in Currinsville Sunday taking subscriptions to the Eastern Clackamas News.

A. E. Yocum was in Currinsville Tuesday transacting business.

W. O. Echols, accompanied by Richard DeLoft, returned to his home at Condon Monday.

G. C. Heiple has finished hay baling and has moved his baler home. There is not the hay here there usually is, and those who are going to need hay should buy immediately.

C. A. Looney and P. W. Douglass both have very fine baled hay.

EAGLE CREEK

EAGLE CREEK, Jan. 19.—(Special).—Dan Kinley recently sold his place to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Gerke, who arrived last Thursday to take possession. The Gerke family lived in Minneapolis, but have been in Portland since last fall. Mr. Kinley is moving temporarily on the Hilltop Orchard tracts in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Cox and family.

Mrs. Ben Blaisdell has been confined to her home by illness caused by having an abscess on the spine.

Henry and Herbert Suter went to Portland Friday evening to attend "What Happened to Bragg," which was put on by the Epworth League of St. John's M. E. church. Miss Fern Clute, primary teacher at Eagle Creek last year, was dramatic coach for the play.

Carl Felker with Stanley and John Cox attended the basket ball games at Estacada on Wednesday evening.

Miss Beulah Barnett spent Saturday in Portland.

Henry Brown has been planting early potatoes this week. He plans to raise them for the market.

Miss Margaret Maloney sustained a painful injury to her foot on Thursday evening when she fell from a porch at her home. Owing to the extreme swelling the extent of the injury to the foot could not be determined for several days. A trip to see a doctor in Portland was planned for Wednesday.

Mrs. Jeff Barr of Estacada, formerly lone Anderson, visited with her parents last week.

Mrs. A. C. Cogswell returned on Monday after a stay of several weeks with relatives in Spokane and Rockford, Washington.

Mr. Furrer and family from Portland spent Sunday on their ranch at this place.

Miss Fern Clute and Miss Eloise Fairchild of Portland spent Saturday night with Mrs. William Saunders.

On Sunday a party consisting of the Misses Fern Clute, Eloise Fairchild, Beulah Barnett and Flora Haysary, Messrs. Clyde Phillips, Paul Forrester, Herbert and Henry Suter, motored to Government Camp. After dinner at Battle Axe Inn the party enjoyed the winter sports for several hours, the main diversion being the toboggan slide.

Visits Cousin Here
Miss Ruth Hewitt of Portland arrived last Thursday to visit her cousin, Mrs. Raymond Lovelace, remaining until Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Baker of Eagle Creek were shopping in Currinsville Monday.

P. W. Douglass has been buying some cattle this week.

George Walter visited in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Eagle Creek visited the Arthur Smith family Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Smith and mother, Mrs. Blaisdell, were shopping in Currinsville Saturday.

The automobile accident here on Sunday afternoon has caused some ill feeling, some comments that are not pleasant in the least. It was a serious accident and could have been avoided, as there is a plain view either north or south. The lady is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. She is innocent of any wrong but must suffer for the carelessness of others. Unless there is more precaution taken this is only the beginning of accidents at this place. The school boys have been riding in front of trucks trying to race them following behind cars, then trying to pass. This is serious and should be checked.

CHURCHES

Christian Church
Bible School Sunday at 10 a. m., Mrs. D. E. Dent, Bible school superintendent. Morning service at 11, subject of sermon, "The Heart of Religion."

Evening services, Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. A live meeting is always in store for new comers.

"The Heart of Religion."—The sermon next Lord's day morning is the first of a series of sermons on the general topic of religion—particularly the Christian religion. You will want to come and hear all of the series in order to find out just what real religion and applied Christianity in life actually is in our life. It deals with some matters that lie at the very heart of Christian living. This subject will be followed by a sober attempt to answer the question "What is religion?" And following this subject will be continued the thought under the title, "Getting Religion." These practical discussions of a vital matter and significant importance should prove both interesting and helpful to our community. Come and hear all the topics of the series. A cordial invitation is extended to all in the community not attending church elsewhere. A welcome is always extended to out of town visitors and week end guests.

Methodist Notes
Who is going to tell them? They, the children and young people, know very, very little and there is much that they must learn—so much that if the future should life its veil and show them the onrushing horde of questions that they must face in the next twenty odd years they probably would lift up their voices to tell the world their decision to quit right now and there.

Who is going to tell them?
Mother and father and playmate and teachers and books and nature will carry them far along the toilsome road to maturity.

Without a doubt some day they will be home-makers and have the care of parents. They will have little ones who must be guided along the path of life.

They must be taught to be kind, true, honest and virtuous. They must be taught to want a better home for their children than ever their parents—that is the task.

Who is going to tell them? Who is going to teach them?
First, the parents are responsible. They must do everything within their power to protect, guide and teach these girls and boys of promise. No only must they be taught good morals; but they should have a religious education.

Let us suggest that the parents let the church school help them in the great work of telling them—teaching them the higher values of life.

You, your wife and children are invited, and urged, to go to Sunday school regularly. A welcome awaits you at the Methodist Sunday school. Also the church services are good for you. Come!

Next Sunday morning the third sermon on John 3:16, "Love," will be delivered. These series are a real spiritual help to any one attending. Remember the morning hour is 11 o'clock. In the evening at 7:30, the subject will be "The Duty of Self-Testing." Sunday school meets at 10 a. m., Epworth League at 7:00 p. m. A cordial welcome to all. — C. T. Cook, Pastor.

Springwater Church
Sunday school at 10 a. m., worship service at 11, "The World's Greatest Bargain Counter."

Christian Endeavor and mission study in the evening. The Endeavor society will hold a business meeting and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shibley on Friday evening, January 20.

POCKET BOOK RETURNED AFTER ONE MONTH

Just before Christmas Miss Maud Sherman lost her pocket-book in Portland. It contained some money and other valuables. A few days ago the Lipman-Wolfe department store informed her they had found the purse. As Miss Sherman was not in the store the day she lost the purse she is now wondering how it was found there.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM FOR CLUB MEETING ANNOUNCED

The program for the next Community club meeting, January 27, in the Masonic hall, so far as has been reported, is as follows: Talk by J. J. Inskip, county agent; reading, Mrs. W. F. Cary; duet, Mesdames G. E. Lawrence and W. E. Linn; community sing, led by J. K. Ely; cornet duet, Merlin Bullard and David Eshleman.

Since the last meeting in November a large number have joined the club and it is expected that all new members as well as old ones, will be present at this meeting.

A paragrapher has it: "There are many times more bankers in jail than newspaper men." Let's thank God we're lucky.—Hubbard Enterprise.

George
Sunday school at 2 p. m., church service at 3. Christian Endeavor in the evening.

Eagle Creek
Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7:15 and church service at 8. Mission group and Bible study meeting on the first and third Thursday evenings.
