GRANGE TO SPONSOR ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

GRANGE HALL AT PARKPLACE ON FEBRUARY 3, TIME PLACE FOR MEETING

Grangers of Clackamas county are sponsoring an economic conference between the business men and farmers of the county to be held at the Abernethy Grange hall in Parkplace on Friday evening, February 3, to which the public in general is invited.

The purpose of this meeting is to outline a policy of cooperation between the farmers and business men of the county. According to the tentative plans a banquet will be given early in the evening and following the banquet an open conference will be held.

Listed on the program is J. C. Ainsworth, Portland banker, F. E. Price of the extension department of the Oregon State College; Matt C. Glover, master of the Pamona grange and Linn E. Jones, president of the Oregon City chamber of commerce.

Each of the 19 granges of Clackamas county are expected to be represented. A musical program is being arranged by members of the Abernethy grange and high school students.

Problems of mutual interest will be discussed and it is hoped that this conference will open the way for a series of similar meetings to be held in different sections of the county for the purpose of establishing a closer spirit of co-operation and harmony.

DODGE MAN KILLED BY HORSE; WAS 74 YEARS OLD

William Heltman, who lived in the Dodge neighborhood, went into the barn last Friday afternoon to measure a horse for a new harness when one of the horses kicked him under the other horse and he was so badly injured that he died before a doctor could get there. He was a new settler in that vicinity, not having been there but about a month. He was 74 years old.

Card Party Enjoyed

Those who attended the card party Thursday evening given by the Neighbors of Woodcraft, report a very pleasant time. There were nine tables of guests and five hundred was the game played. Mrs. Shackelford and Mrs. Carrie Marshall were the winners of the ladies high score and Ray Keith and Arnold Lovelace were the successful contestants for gentlemen's high scores. A most substantial lunch was served by the committee, after which dancing was enjoyed until the midnight hour. The band orchestra contributed excellent music for the occasion.

POST ENTERTAINS STATE OFFICIALS

FINE PROGRAM ENJOYED BY VISITORS AND 50 LOCAL EX-SERVICE MEN

Carl Douglass Post of the American Legion was host Friday night to the state officers of the organization, district officers and to members of Gresham, Portland and Oregon City posts at a banquet and a short entertainment.

The important feature of the affair was the fact that practically every ex-service man in Eastern Clackamas county was present to welcome the officials and visitors.

The ladies of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Sylvester Lawrence acting as chairman, served a fine turkey dinner, with all that goes with it, which was fully enjoyed. The roasting was done by the U-Need-A Bakery and was considered par excellence.

Commander J. C. Moreland of the local post gave a fitting address of welcome and then turned the meeting over to the state adjutant, Carl Moser, who presided. George E. Love of Eugene, state commander, who attended the national convention in Paris last fall, gave a splendid and entertaining account of his trip.

Mr. Love said he visited the parts of France that he had known during the struggle, and that in many places the former battle front remained as the American soldiers had left it, with the exception of the natural growth of weeds, flowers, etc., that reconstruction along the front had not progressed very far.

He gave a vivid description of the American cemetery in France where 15,000 American soldiers lie, telling of the great care that is being taken of this burial ground by the American government as well as by the French people.

The local post was lauded by the state officials, stress being put on the fact that the membership was larger here according to the number of ex-service men in the community than any part of the district.

Entertainers, some of whom are often heard over radio station KEX helped to enliven the occasion.

Mrs. O'Brien Seriously Ill

Mrs. John O'Brien who is in a Portland hospital, is reported as not much improved. Mr. O'Brien is with her most of the time.

Postmaster A. N. Johnson had business in Portland Friday and then went over to Vancouver, Washington, to visit his sister and family over the week end.

GEORGE

GEORGE, Jan. 25.—(Special).—A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lins in their honor on Thursday evening. Most everybody in the neighborhood was present.

The George teacher, Miss Anna Kokel, visited her homefolks in Molalla over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Leon of Currinsville has been buying cows in the neighborhood the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Held made a business trip to Gresham Tuesday. Mr. Tucker is cutting wood and having it hauled to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson and family went to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Warwick who recently had an operation. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ruhl who visited her mother.

Mrs. Rickey and baby are expected home this week.

Henry Joyner is now employed in building a new rabbit hutch.

Robert Larsen worked Monday for Julius Paulsen.

Victor Johnson has been absent from school for two days.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET AT MASONIC BLDG. TONIGHT

The program committee of the Estacada Community club has arranged a very interesting program for the monthly meeting to be held in the Masonic building this Friday evening. County Agent John Inskeep will be the principal speaker and he always has something of interest for city and country folks alike.

Everyone is urged to come, and especially it is desired that the new members be present. The committee asks you to come and rub elbows with your neighbor, stating that it will do you good and will do your community no harm.

Mrs. Botkin's Arm Still Painful

Mrs. A. W. Botkin of the Garfield district was in Estacada Tuesday morning accompanied by Mr. Botkin. She is still suffering with her right arm which was injured by a fall in the Oregon hotel in Portland just before Christmas. While no bones were broken, the ligaments were so sprained that the injured arm has pained her since that time almost constantly.

School Bus Stalled

The school bus Tuesday morning was stalled near the Dillon home and the boys and girls were obliged to walk into town. Just a lack of gas was the cause of the mishap.

Spent Week End Here

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Fifer of Portland spent the week end in Estacada with relatives.

J. H. DENNING, PIONEER ANSWERS LAST CALL

HAD LIVED IN OREGON ALL HIS LIFE; FUNERAL SERVICES HELD WEDNESDAY

J. H. Denning, 63, passed away at his home here Monday morning, January 23, following a lingering illness. Funeral services were held in the Christian church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. There was a large attendance of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Rev. C. E. Cook, pastor of the local Methodist church, spoke comforting words to the bereaved relatives and Mrs. Julius Kreager, Miss Anna Dillon and Ralph Baker sang the beautiful songs selected. Commitment followed at the I. O. O. F. cemetery where the local order of Odd Fellows had charge.

James H. Denning was born in Looking Glass, Oregon, April 22, 1864 and was almost 64 years old. He resided at Wasco, Oregon, for 21 years, being salesman in the general merchandise store of J. Crossfield. With the exception of a short time spent in Alaska, he resided in Oregon all his life.

Six years ago he came to Estacada and on April 19, 1924, was married to Mrs. Viola Douglass and remained here until his death.

He was a member of Estacada lodge No. 175, I. O. O. F., and Centennial Rebekah lodge; also was a charter member of Estacada Encampment, No. 91.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Viola Denning, two brothers and three sisters—L. F. Denning of Marshfield, W. S. Denning of Portage, Washington, Mrs. Tim Ollivant of Roseburg, Mrs. M. E. Williams of Gresham and Mrs. U. S. Morgan of Estacada.

Mr. Denning was a man of many admirable qualities; always cheerful and accommodating and had a host of friends who will long remember him.

O. E. Smith, who has employment in Portland, came home Saturday to spend the week end with his family.

NEWS ADS BRING RESULTS

Estacada, Oregon, January 25, 1928

Eastern Clackamas News, Gentlemen:

We are more than pleased with the results obtained from the advertisements we ran in your paper in regard to our smoked meat sale. We sold over one hundred and twenty-five hams from the ad, to say nothing of the other meats sold. I did not know that an ad in the newspaper could bring such results.

Very truly yours,
ESTACADA MEAT CO.,
H. C. Gohring, Proprietor.

CIRCULATION DRIVE NOW IN FULL SWING

HONOR ROLL WILL BE STARTED MONDAY AND CONTINUED UNTIL THE FINALS

The Eastern Clackamas News' big circulation drive is now really getting under way. That this campaign is proving popular is evidenced by the fact that the candidates and their friends are getting active in every part of Eastern Clackamas county and the new subscriptions are beginning to roll in.

Campaign Only Starting

Many of the candidates are becoming active now, but hte different communities still offer big inducements to those who will become active. The public is now lining up behind their favorites, and each candidate in the different localities should get busy and let the people know they are in the race and that they want their votes.

This is a short campaign. If you start now no one can have much advantage over you. There is plenty of time to line up your friends and get in on the heavy votes.

Interest in Campaign

Interest in the campaign is growing each day all over Eastern Clackamas county. Now is the time to start to cash in on this interest by securing votes for yourself that will eventually win you a new Chevrolet or Ford auto, radio, or cash prize.

There are over seven full weeks of the campaign left yet, and as interest increases, so will the possible number of votes you can gather for yourself.

Honor Roll Starts

Beginning Monday, January 30, and continuing until the end of the second period, the candidate turning in the most cash each day will be placed on the Honor Roll for that day, which will entitle said candidate to 10,000 extra votes. The list of contestants winning these extra votes will be published each week, starting with next week.

The approximate standing of the candidates will be published weekly starting with the next issue of the News. This week we are able to publish the list of nominations only as we have been unable to check up on the standing at this date.

Those who have been nominated are:

Name	Votes
Harry La Barre, Estacada	10,000
Mrs. R. B. Gibson, Upper Eagle Creek	10,000
Mrs. Wiley Howell, Spring water	10,000
