EAGLE CREEK

EAGLE CREEK, March 1.—(Special)—Lyle and Margaret Smith from Portland visited friends here one day last week.

Miss Pamela Kenny and Mrs. Foster were in Estacada on business Saturday afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor business meeting and social was held Friday evening at the A. D. Bennett home. Mrs. A. C. Cogswell was a Portland visitor on Monday.

C. L. Chambers has completed the work of installing a water system at his home. U. L. Smith of Portland assisted him. A gas engine runs the pump, forcing the water from a spring to a tank at the house.

Clyde Phillips is working at the Bell mill on Sandyridge. At present he is staying with his sister, Mrs. James Lamfer at Firwood.

A number of Boy Scouts from Portland were at Camp Millard over the week end.

Jack Jossy from Portland visited at the Cox home over the week end. Homer Glover recently purchased two yearling Guernsey heifers from Charles Hall of Douglass Ridge.

Those from Eagle Creek who went to Springwater Friday to attend the meeting of the Clackamas County Council of Religious Education were Matt Glover and family, Mrs. E. Trullinger, Mrs. Klingingsmith, Mrs. Homer Glover, and Mrs. Wm. Saunders.

Grant Test and William Saunders went up for the evening session. Mrs. Weathersby and Grant Test furnished special music during the evening.

Sam Felker and Foster Meyers were at home from O. A. C. over the week end.

Russell Stringham from Spokane visited a couple of days last week with his aunt, Mrs. A. C. Cogswell.

A. D. Burnett drove to Oreon City Monday.

Work has begun on the improvement of the Test road. Mr. Bullinger and Tony are clearing the right of way preparing for the grading.

The Gabbe Giglatti family recently purchased a pinno.

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Sessions, with the trustees of the Springwater, George and Eagle Creek churches, held a meeting at the Eagle Creek church.

Ben Blaisdell is helping Adolph Still cut cordwood near Barton.

A called meeting of the Ladies Aid was held at the church Thursday afternoon to complete arrangements for the program to be given at the grange hall on Friday evening, March 9. A chicken supper will be served from 5:30 until 7:30 and the program will be given promptly at 8 o'clock. The program will be furnished by Miller & Tracy male quartette from Portland, assisted by a reader from Oregon City. Tickets will be sold at the door for 50 cents to adults, which will entitle the holder to supper and the entertainment.

For children under ten years a charge of 25 cents will be made. For those who do not come for supper a charge of 25 cents will be made for the entertainment.

Among those who attended the sale near Boring Tuesday were Elmer Anderson, Ed. Johnson, Roy Forrester, Henry Suter and Shirley Burnett.

We are trying to get Kelso on the map again, and our Sunday school and church are going strong.

Kelso Community church holds Sunday school every Sunday from 10 to 11 a. m. Every other Sunday Rev. P. O. Bruland, city missionary and visiting chaplain, conducts services from 11 to 12. Evreyone is invited to come and bring their friends.

The Women's Club of Kelso met at the home of Mrs. Max Kligel on February 23, the regular meeting time. Everyone enjoyed a well conducted meeting and social gathering after which a delicious luncheon was served.

In the near future Kelso club is planning to give a play to raise funds for the school.

Kelso Community church gave a play entitled "Janey," Saturday evening.

ning February 24, which was very much enjoyed by everyone. After the play, pie, cake, coffee and punch were served. The play was well attended and the funds are to go for supplies needed for the Sunday school.

Plans are under way for raising money to paint and re-shingle the Community church. As we have met with so much success so far, we are hopeful for the future.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is again home and is doing nicely and her many friends will be glad to know that she will not be disfigured in any way, though one arm is in quite a bad condition yet.

Anne Louise Larsen is again in declamatory contest at Sandy high where she is attending. The judges could not decide last Friday and they are to compete again Monday. The tie seemed to lie between her and a senior. Anne Louise will be remembered as the winner of the silver loving cup for Kelso last year, and with Anne May Aust this year Kelso has just cause to be proud of her girls.

A gospel team from the Powell Valley Mission church will be at the Kelso Community church at 3 p. m. Sunday, March 4. You are invited to come and listen to music by a string band. There will be many other interesting features.

Cottrell P. T. A. has changed its regular meeting night from Friday to Thursday and a meeting was held Thursday night of this week.
