EAGLE CREEK

EAGLE CREEK, March 8.—(Special).—Foster Meyers had the misfortune to fall and injure his knee one day last week and is at home from

Corvallis for a time. Mrs. Clingsmith is visiting for several days with friends at Gresham. Bobby, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fuches, was quite sick for several days last week, requiring several visits from the doctor. Miss Beulah Barnett and Miss

Flora Haysany went to Portland Saturday morning, returning on Sunday evening. Marcelle and Dwight Davis entered school on Monday. They are making their home with their aunt, Mrs. Ernest Douglass. Mr. and Miss Madden of Springwater visited over Sunday at the A. C. Cogswell home. John Glover of Portland is out doing the seeding on his place. He is staying at the Ed Trullinger home. Elmer Anderson is setting out four more acres of hops on the Ed Burnett place, making a total of about fourteen acres on that place. Among those who went to Portland Wednesday evening to hear the Duncan sisters at the Pantages were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Conner, Mrs. Clingsmith, Beulah Barnett, Flora Haysany and Herbert and Henry Suter. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cogswell with Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders attended an entertainment at the Springwater church given by a Scotch quartet from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Forrester were in Portland Monday. Mrs. Wm. Hyde was a Portland visitor Tuesday. Remember the chicken dinner and program sponsored by the Ladies Aid on Friday evening, March 9, at the grange hall. Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30, the program to begin at 8 o'clock. Fifty cents for the dinner and program for adults, and 25 cents for children under 10 years. For the program alone an admission charge of 25 cents will be made. The program is to be furnished by Miller & Tracy from Portland, assisted by a reader from Oregon City. Rev. T. I. Kirkwood is preaching a very interesting and helpful series of pre-Easter sermons under the general heading of "The Rewards of an Overcoming Life."

The members of the session and the trustees of the church met on Monday evening at the Glover home to arrange the budget for the coming church year. Sunday evening at the close of the regular church service the annual congregational meeting will be held. It is reported that Noah Stingley has purchased the Paul Leitner place which adjoins the pasture land owned by Mr. Stingley.

U. A. Smith has been working at the Lundeen mill several days building a loading dock. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Burnett drove to Portland on Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Day will leave on Sunday for Dayton, Oregon, where she will stay with her niece, Mrs. Pete Nelson.

DOVER

DOVER, March 8.—(Special).—At the monthly school meeting held Friday evening Miss Violet Eccles was elected to succeed herself as teacher for the coming school year. D. V. Rose is in a Portland hospital recovering from an operation caused by internal injuries received some time ago while working in the woods. The latter part of the week his youngest son was also taken to the hospital suffering from a broken leg as a result of an accident in the woods. Mrs. C. W. Neumann is at Cornelius nursing her mother who is very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Updegrave entertained the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. DeShazer of Firwood at dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Udell and Herbert were Portland visitors Thursday. There was a good attendance at church Sunday to hear Rev. C. T. Cook who will hereafter conduct services on the second and fourth Sundays of each month. Ralph DeShazer had the misfortune to lose a very fine cow last week. Mark Pugh closed down the mill Thursday night so as to get some farming done during the good weather. He loaded out another car of ties last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Bews were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Web. Roberts Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pashall and little son Kenneth Peter, Mrs. Joseph DeShazer and Miss Violet were in Gresham Saturday afternoon. Emery Closser is now sawyer at the D. V. Rose mill and is keeping the work moving right along while Mr. Rose and his son are in the hospital. During the good weather most everyone is burning ferns or clearing in some way besides rushing their farm work.
