

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

$1.50 Per Year

Subscribe Now!

SANDY NEWS SECTION

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER

Editor

Sandy, Oregon

EDITORIAL

In his speech on "The Money Power in Politics," before the P. T. A. guests Saturday, B. F. Lindas paid women the compliment of saying it will be through women voters that idealism in politics will eventually curb the money power. Lindas urged voting for the man rather than the party.

It is reported that the price of strawberries this season is not very encouraging, said to be due to over production—and yet is there ever a time when everyone has all they want to eat!

Hundreds thronged the scene of the Jones tragedy all day on Sunday from the city and all parts of the country. Hearts beat as one in sympathy when a local tragedy occurs.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MOTHER AND SON

One of the saddest funerals ever held in this section was that of Mrs. Inez Jones and her son Harold who were buried at Damascus Thursday. Rev. O. J. Gill giving the sermon and the Boring I. O. O. F. lodge was in charge of the arrangements. The Boring Rebekahs read the service at the grave and the Sandy grange was also represented in the rites.

Mrs. Lund, L. H. Mallicoat, Carl Gregson of Boring, assisted by Percy Shelley and Mrs. Miller of Sandy, sang the hymns. Pall bearers for Harold were boys from the Boring school: Donald Rich, Marion Duley, Mildaun Aubin, Edwin Child, Kenneth Valber, Robert Modine. For Mrs. Jones: John Hoffmeister, Floyd and Asa Lake, Oliver Peterson, Dan Erdman, J. Shonteen. As the service closed the rain began falling and the three hundred present left the scene with tearful eyes.

Mrs. Jones was born at Bridge-water, South Dakota, 36 years ago and was married to R. B. Jones in 1910. Harold was born at Boring in 1917.

Entertains Women's Club

Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. Clarence Brown and Mrs. R. F. Dittert were joint hostesses at an elaborate social evening given for the Women's club members and their friends Thursday night at the grange hall. More than forty guests were present, and ten tables of cards were played, first prize winners being Mrs. Akers of Portland and Anton Malar. Raymond E. Smith sang solos and Mr. Smith and Mrs. Jonsrud a duet, and dancing was also enjoyed for an hour after the delicious refreshments were served. The tables were set in the hall dining room and were prettily decorated. The entire evening was a happy homelike affair, and nearly ten dollars was added to the club fund during the evening from sales and donations. Miss Dorothy Jonsrud and Miss Edith Shell presided at the piano during the evening.

Celebrates Birthday

An evening honoring the birthday of Wm. Fischer of Firwood was a complete surprise put on over Mr. Fischer recently, the occasion being much enjoyed by those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krebs and Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret, Amanda and Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koenicke, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alt, Mr. and Mrs. Fischer and Phillip. The evening was spent in playing five hundred and prizes were awarded. Very delicious cake, including a pretty candied cake, sandwiches and coffee, were served.

Visitors at Dodd Home

Mrs. E. Dodd had as Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McDougall of Newberg, who made the trip in two hours, getting here in time for 7 o'clock breakfast. Mrs. Edna Goheen and children and Mrs. Carl Loundree were also guests. Lola Dodd spent the week end in the city with relatives.

Able to Leave Hospital

Mrs. Web McGinnis was able to go from the Gresham hospital to the city Monday where she will be near the baby until it is able to come home. The child is still getting along nicely. Mr. McGinnis was down again Monday to see his wife and baby.

FIRWOODEN FARM HAS IMPORTANT DAIRY

Firwooden farm, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, three miles east of Sandy, one of the most important dairy farms in this section, is visited frequently by noted Jersey producers, Ivan H. Loughary, field man for the Northwest, and Bartley A. Bull of Ontario, Canada, being visitors last week. Mr. Bull imports fine Jerseys and has made many trips to the Isle of Jersey. Mr. Bull and sons have just received a shipment of 90 Jerseys from the Isle and another lot will be received soon.

Raleigh Harold and five of his calf club boys from Stayton spent Tuesday at Firwood farm looking over the herd, and taking pictures, then returned again Sunday and took back with them two splendid six months old Jersey heifers one of which was the fine club heifer owned and raised by Annabel Molar.

J. G. DeShazer, local dairyman, has purchased two A-1 heifers from the Molar herd which trace to such records for production as Poppy's St. Mawes, a gold medal sire, Noble Lad's Lady Helen, a gold, silver and medal of merit cow with a record of 850 pounds of butterfat and 14,714 lbs. of milk, and La Belle's Girl with 901 pounds of fat.

Other sales recently made are two young Jersey herd sires to Wm. McKillop and Chas. Rider both of Oregon City, and another to William E. Lamp, Ephraim, Utah.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR JOSEPH A. ALBEL

Funeral services were held for Joseph A. Albel Thursday by Rev. O. J. Gill, music being furnished by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Jonsrud, P. T. Shelley, R. S. Smith, with Miss Dorothy Jonsrud at the organ. Interment was at Sandy, the Odd Fellows and Masons being in charge at the grave. Pall bearers were J. C. Loundree, A. C. Baumbach, Clem Bartach, Otto Meinig, George Moronay and Herman Bruns.

Deceased had lived near Sandy over 25 years. Surviving are his widow, Elsie Albel, and one son, Wm. Albel.

Has Fifty Pigs

Lafe Green has 50 young pigs on his place that keep him busy with all his farm work beside.

Mill Starts Operations

Bruns & McIntyre, who have been doing much overhauling at their newly purchased mill and making many changes, began cutting Monday noon and hope to run steadily. Jonsrud-Gunderson have been doing some planing for the above firm who will not have their planer in operation for a time.

Working to Clear Slide

About twenty local men have been working for over a week at the slide on the head works road. Bent Bros. had a day crew on, and George Ten Eyck had charge of a night crew the first three days after the slide. It is not decided just how long the crew will be needed.

Election Date Postponed

The Marmot school district will probably not vote on the question of suspending school for a year and sending to the Sandy grammar school until the annual meeting. However, the Marmot board will confer with the Union high board concerning transportation meanwhile.

Plug Industry Doomed

With hard wood becoming more scarce in this locality it will not be long until the plug mill industry will have to move from here, according to F. W. Bittner, who has operated a plant here for a number of years.

Completes Spring Crops

A. C. Martin has almost completed the planting of his spring crop and will soon be going to the city again to seek work. Martin has been digging basements instead of doing cement work as formerly.

Visit Bruns Home

Mrs. Lola Thiess and sons spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bruns. Mrs. Thiess has moved into the adjoining Bruns cottage.

It has "leaked out" that Jack Scales lost his purse containing $72 cash beside checks, and the same was found and returned by Helen Scott and Evelyn Mutchler, both honest Sandy girls.

SANDY LOCALS

Mrs. Cecelia Brown, primary teacher of Sandy grade school, was ill the first of the week and Mrs. Blanche Shelley taught as a supply.

The L. W. Tice family of Marmot are enjoying their new modern residence very much. There are five rooms on the first floor, and the house is lighted with the carbide system, and they have lovely fixtures for the same.

Henry Asehoff of Marmot is building a new dairy barn on his own place which is near the Adolph Asehoff home. Harry Bramhall and Joe Vaeretti helped with part of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. James Linn moved from the Hoffman house to the Bell Lumber company mill the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris and Mrs. Beers were home from Saturday until Sunday from the Mountandale mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edwards moved from their rooms at Junker's—the first of the week into the Craswell house which was vacated Saturday.

Roberta Smith and Dorothy Bruns have received their final certificates in penmanship which gives them a grade of 95, and Margaret Bell received an improvement certificate which gives her a grade of 90. Celeste McIntyre obtained her final certificate in the Brightwood school and her grade is 95. All of the above of the 8th grade will be exempt from state exams on writing.

Bobby Bruns, pupil in Mrs. Zenger's room, has received four county tests of 100 in arithmetic and also had three hundreds in spelling, making an average for the year of 100 and 99 in the above.

Alice Scales went to Rhododendron the first of the week to remain for several days while Mrs. Maud Reed is taking a vacation and looking after business affairs.

Mrs. J. A. Albel has so far been unable to find a house in which to move. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Brosius had the rooms engaged where Mrs. Albel is living some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown entertained Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Boman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Akers and Mr. and Mrs. Resch on Thursday, all of whom attended the Women's club social evening at the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morton and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Earl Day and J. R. Waithe were among the out of town folks attending the card party at the grange hall.

Dr. E. DeWitt Connell of Portland whose residence burned at Rhododendron last season, is completing an elaborate rock residence there.

Charley Wilkinson, Cottrell poultryman, purchased 25 day-old chicks from O. S. C. last week at $1.25 each.

The Yost family and Ernest Boylan have returned from their trip to California and report a wonderful time. They went via the coast route and returned by way of Bend.

Mrs. Helen Dahrens states she is very grateful to each and all who helped her to win the cash prize in the News' recent contest, and says she is well pleased even if she did not get a car.

While in the city to serve as honorary pall bearer for Penumbra Kelley, John Revenue was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Alice Webster, Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed and children and Mrs. Mildred Gray were among the local people at Mt. Hood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Duke went to Estacada Saturday night as Mr. Duke was appointed to help count up the votes and make the awards for the News. Mrs. Helen Dahrens accompanied the Dukes.

Before starting to Europe B. F. Schlessinger, owner of the Olds and King store, and his son, spent the week end at the Rhododendron Inn. Our mountains are more and more attractive to people of means.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Radford of Cottrell were surprised Sunday by the Houstons of The Dalles driving in for breakfast. They returned the same evening.

Principal and Mrs. G. D. Orr had as week end guests Mr. Orr's brother, Dr. Paul Orr, dean of education at Linfield college. Mrs. Orr and their daughters, the Misses Alma, Opal and Burma Orr. The Ors took their guests to the P. T. A. dinner and program.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith are having the interior of the dwelling remodeled.

Sam Bacon, pioneer, was considerably better according to report, a few days ago and was able to sit up in his chair for three hours.

PROGRAM GIVEN BY FIRWOOD SCHOOL

Firwood school had its in-ning on Friday night, a splendid program arranged by the teacher, Mrs. Morse, being very entertaining. For the play Albert Lamper was schoolmaster; visitors, "Mrs. Charity" and daughter were Jessie Mersinger and Rose Keisicker; and Alfred Smith and Olline Keisicker were the visiting deacon and wife. Pupils of the "school" were Phillip Fischer, Frank Smith, George and Henry Keisicker, Annabel and Merlin Malar, Ellen and Irene Algeier, Laura, Opal, Grace and Edna Keisicker.

Other numbers were: Piano, Stanley Morris; Dublin jig, by several girls; readings by Stanley and De-mont Morris; songs by a group of children; Charleston dance, Laura Keisicker; skit, Annabel Malar and Henry Keisicker Jr.; violin solo, Mrs. Wm. Struthers of Portland, accompanied by Miss Helen Evans; rose-bud dance by a group of little girls.

The proceeds are to be used for playground equipment. Mrs. Morse and the children deserve appreciation for their excellent program.

ENTERTAINS PARTY OF FRIENDS FROM PORTLAND

(Too late for last week.—Editor)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis of Portland, who have an attractive summer home, "The End of the Road," at Welches, recently entertained with a house party the following: Judge and Mrs. Walter Evans, Judge and Mrs. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Webber, John J. Deifel, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hall, Miss Frances Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kribs, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Donovan, Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, all of Portland, Mrs. Rawlins of California, Mr. and Mrs. William Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Roberts, Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Richards.

TO GIVE DANCE FOR STRICKEN JONES FAMILY

Sandy Grange plans to give a benefit dance March 31 for the Jones family and the ladies will probably serve lunch in order to aid the fund. It is said the Gresham Rebekah lodge is to give a bake sale Saturday of this week for the stricken family. W. A. Morand, Boring, is in charge of the finance committee and requests that all funds be sent direct to him.

The interior of the Jack Scales store at Rhododendron will not be entirely completed for a month, and a grand opening will probably be announced about the time the mountain business picks up for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dittert entertained one of the navy officers at dinner the same evening their son Heinie left for San Diego, to enter the navy.

A splendid picture show at Cottrell school house was put on Friday night by Lee Wood and Joe Caldo who are in charge of the movies since the death of E. E. Van Fleet.

Mrs. Viola Denning visited all her children at Douglass ridge, also her daughter Mrs. J. G. DeShazer and family for two days, returning after more than a week's absence.

Mrs. Cecelia Brown had three engagements to play at entertainments Friday night, having her dates thus crossed. She compromised by playing for the Firwood program.

George Hartwig of Hartwig's Filling station drove Ethel Jones and Gladys Roe to the hospital after the tragedy Thursday.

Sandy News continued on last page

FOR SALE—Baled clover hay, $15 per ton at barn. W. A. Proctor, phone Sandy 32x. 1241f

DR. F. C. BROSIUS, M. D.
Office in Clackamas County Bank Bldg.
Telephone 341
Sandy, Oregon

DR. H. A. SCHNEIDER
DENTIST
Phone Sandy 151
Sandy, Oregon

SANDY LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder and Mrs. Edith Morris took dinner at the Malar home recently.

Mrs. Henry Perret and Mrs. C. B. Stetman recently visited the Sandy grade school.

Mrs. E. Dodd was surprised March 16, her birthday, by her daughters Elsie and Doris coming from the city, and Mrs. Edna Goheen and children, also Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loundree and junior, who arranged a dinner for her including the candied cake. Mrs. John Sladsky and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dodd were also present.

Mrs. Clarence Brown was hostess to the Embroidery club last week, who with the following ladies spent a pleasant social evening with their needles: Mrs. Harvey Schneider, Mrs. Ned Mitchell, Mrs. Annie Glockner, Winnifred Glockner, Zaidie Krebs, Mrs. Marguerite Dittert.

Mrs. James B. Ogden and little Dick were down from Cherryville purposely to attend the P. T. A. dinner and program.

John Boshoh and Mrs. Boshoh made their first trip to Mt. Hood to see the snow last Sunday, and they have lived here many years. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Albon Meinig and baby and Milton Meinig who also went up in honor of Sandy day.

Mrs. J. C. Duke came out from the city last Thursday to spend a week or so with the C. O. Duke family.

The Hubbard family, relatives of Mrs. T. M. Miller, left for California, Saturday. The Hubbards lived in the Craswell cottage.

Mrs. H. B. Reed and children and Mrs. Alice Trullinger of Portland were dinner guests Saturday at the

P. T. A. DINNER RECEIPTS AMOUNT TO SUM OF $57

Receipts of the Sandy P. T. A. dinner and supper were $57, the expenses something over $15. The meals were both delicious and everyone had a splendid time and the program also a delight to the audience which included songs from Mrs. Brown's room which pleased greatly, also an Irish dance by the little tots.

Mrs. Zenger's boys executed the flag drill splendidly, Frank Christianson and George Bruns gave a coon dialogue well, and Earl Hite and Donald Dunsuir also amused the crowd with the "Two Dutchmen" all four being pupils from Mr. Malley's room.

Mrs. Brown was in charge of the program, after which P. T. Shelley introduced B. F. Lindas of Oregon City, who gave an excellent address.

The tables were decorated with shamrocks and there was a candy booth. The entire affair was a pronounced success.

In honor of Mrs. August Hoernicker in honor of Mrs. Trullinger's birthday.

Jack Barnett has taken the contract of logging at the Bruns-McIntyre mill and Walter Krebs has been back at his job driving the Barnett truck to Portland since his broken finger recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bedenstein and Miss Catherine Thayer were all down from Cherryville to attend the Firwood school program at Sandy U. H. S. on Friday night.

Sandy U. H. S. band covered themselves with glory at Oregon City Wednesday night.

Firstclass Battery Work...

RADIO AND CAR BATTERIES RECHARGED

Give Us a Trial Satisfaction Guaranteed

Peoples' Service Station

HARTWIG & SONS, Proprietors

Corner Bluff Road and Loop Highway Phone 208

We Make Your Car Run Right!

Years of Experience in all kinds of Repair Work

Our Prices Are Right!

CITY GARAGE

Sandy Oregon

There's Much To Be Done...

The progressive farmer and dairymen are gradually recognizing the Sandy community as a logical place for their activities. For those who have cast their lot with us, let's afford a fitting welcome.

The Clackamas County Bank knows that the opportunities here in an agricultural way are surpassed by few other sections. We are ever ready to apply our services to the development of the many things that should and can be done.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY BANK

SANDY, OREGON

