Additional Sandy News

Guests at Duke Home

Mrs. Raymond Murray, Miss Shell, and Nellie R. Zenger were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Duke on Thursday evening. Cards and the radio were enjoyed.

Mill Closes Temporarily

The Frank Beers mill, which has been operating all winter, is now closed down for a few days to move donkeys. Mr. Beers is of this vicinity but his plant is located near Eagle Creek.

To Build New Bridge

Lumber for the new bridge over Deep creek on Sandyridge, near Boitanos, is being delivered by the A. W. Bell Lumber company and work on this badly needed structure will begin at once.

Building New Home

The Gus Logus residence, will be 32x34 feet, will have a full basement and be wired for electricity, and modern in every way including a fire place. Hall & Sons are all ready at work on the contract.

Visiting Canning Home

Mrs. Louis Gambee and little daughter are enjoying country life at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Canning while Dr. Gambee, a prominent Portland physician, is in Chicago for a period of four months taking advanced surgery and research work.

Confirmation Services

Confirmation services were held for the following at the Lutheran church Sunday: Donald Dahrens, Henry Weissenfluh, Geraldina and Vera Krebs, Gertrude Schwartz, Sylvia Dobberfuhl, Hazel Fischer. The class sang a song during the service.

Appointed Road Supervisor

F. D. Eason has been appointed to supervise work on the Mt. Hood Loop highway on part time and will be out this way about twice each week. Mr. Eason was resident engineer when the highway was being built and his many friends will be glad to see him out this way again.

Stork Visits Murrays

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray who recently purchased a ten acre home at Bull Run were visited by the stork Saturday and an eight pound daughter is now the center of attraction. Mrs. Murray is at Gresham. The Murrays' new home was purchased from Bill Coates.

Quits Dairy Business

George Gunderson, who is running the old home farm while his brother Oscar is working at the Jonsrud Gunderson planing mill of which firm the latter is a junior partner was in town recently. George has gone out of the dairy business and is doing just "plain" farming.

Entertains Social Club

On last Wednesday Mrs. Thomas Kubitzka was hostess for the Sandy Valley social club, and a pleasant afternoon is reported. Delightful refreshments were enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. Otto Matz, Mrs. Chas. Sharnke, Mrs. Riggles, Mrs. Hartzell, Mrs. D. S. Webster and Mrs. Harry Nichols.

Baby Girl Born

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O. Loundree (Frances Meinig) are delighted over the arrival of the stork March 29, a fine baby girl weighing six pounds being the precious package left for them. The little one is named Beverly Jeanne. Mrs. Loundree is at the Bushong maternity home in Gresham. P. R. Meinig is now "grandpa" for the first time and is being duly congratulated.

Confirmation Party Given

A confirmation party was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Dahrens after church Sunday in honor of Donald Dahrens who was confirmed at Sandy and Barbara Hauskins who was confirmed in Portland. A big dinner was served jointly by Mrs. Dahrens and Mrs. Hauskins, and the guests also remained for the evening.

meal. Present were the Hauskins and Dahrens families. Mrs. Dora Dahrens, Miss Pauline Wendland, Miss Ida Wendland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gesch and E. Wendland.
