THE ESTACADA PHARMACY

CURRINSVILLE

The continued rains are putting the farmers in boats to do the spring work and they are finding it difficult to get their sheep sheared. Most of the goat shearing is done. So far most all have had wonderful success this season.

Ray Heiple has 72 lambs from 42 ewes. Who can report a larger increase?

Lots of little turkeys are out but now they will stand this continued wet weather is puzzling the turkey raisers.

Mrs. Della Ewalt is able to be up after almost a month in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rake are still at Carleton on account of Mrs. Rake's health.

Mr. Olmsted has been sick for several days. He made a trip to Portland Saturday to consult a doctor.

The ball game between the Estacada grade team and the Currinsville team of last week was very hard on the Currinsville team, 6 to 0 in favor of Estacada. However, the team thinks Estacada won fair and laid their defeat to poor batting.

The W. M. Wade family visited their daughter and family recently. H. J. Spier of Portland was in Currinsville Sunday looking after his property here.

An attempt was made to rob one of the neighbor's ranches a few nights ago. Hearing an unusual noise the neighbor went to the barn. He found the garage door open and the auto lights on. But for his timely interference there is no telling what might have been stolen.

The Lester Hale and Cleve Heiple families had a picnic and fishing trip Sunday over at Eagle Creek falls.

L. A. Franks was a passenger to Portland Tuesday taking some nice veal to market.

Raymond DeShazer was a business visitor in Currinsville first of the week.

Walter Douglas hauled out fertilizer to his ranch Monday.

Frank W. Jones received the sad news Monday that his mother had dropped dead.

Dr. W. W. Gilbert left a baby boy at the B. H. Stowell home Friday April 27. Baby and mother are doing fine. The baby has been named Samuel Livingston.

Floyd Hale went to Oregon City Tuesday to bring out the road grading machinery preparing to start the summer road work.

With the high price of sheep and lambs as well as wool, it would seem that sheep men would dip them as the wool growers' association recommends. It's for the health of your sheep and for an increase in your bank account.

Another item of farm loss is the sending of dirty eggs to market. This should not be done as there is an enormous loss to the producer, ranging from 5 to 8 cents per dozen. Small and large eggs should not be mixed.

This Sunday is being observed as "vocation day" and a special invitation is extended to the young people who are interested in the choice of a life work. The subject is, "The Apprenticeship of Life." The services will be as follows:

Springwater — Sunday school at 10 a. m., church service at 11, at which time the young people will have charge of the music. Christian Endeavor at 7:30 p. m.

George — Sunday school at 2 p. m., church service at 3.

Eagle Creek — Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7:15, church service at 8.—T. I. Kirkwood, Minister.

Methodist Church

Religion is not primarily something useful, but something fruitful. It is not a means of improving mankind alongside of other means, such as education, art, politics and morality, it is the parent of them all—their foundation of life. We are busy today directing the flow of Christian motives into many trenches to irrigate tracts of life which hitherto have been desert. And the church must stand, then, through its ministry, not simply as a mere instructor imparting facts; the pulpit stands for the application of truth to create character.

To this purpose we aim to give the gospel message of truth in a clear and understanding manner so all may be helped. You are invited to hear the following sermons next Sunday: At 11 a. m., "The Three-fold Force of Man's Ascent." At 7:30 p. m., "One Thing." All have need of the messages from the churches. The Sunday school hour is always 10 a. m. and you cannot do better than to come. Do so next Sunday, for there is a special program given at the opening exercises of the school. It is something very good. Do not miss it. League at 7 p. m., midweek meeting Thursday evening at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all. C. T. Cook, Pastor.

Catholic Services

Holy Mass will be celebrated at St. Oloysis church on the first and third Sundays of each month at 10:30 a. m., Father Bernards of Milwaukie officiating.
