County Superintendent Vedder says the 2 mill elementary tax is the fairest law we have for raising and distributing school money, as it takes in all the taxable property in the county and distributes the funds according to the number of children in each district. An effort will be made at the next session of the legislature it is predicted, to do away with this law, and it remains for the people to fight for its retention.

How many voters have looked over the Voter's phanlex, and know why they will vote for a candidate aside from personal reasons and why they will vote for or against the measures. May 18 will soon be here.

Despite the continued rains and cold weather we should be thankful—there have been no disasters in our neck of the woods.

Make Good Record

In the eighth grade writing class of Sandy grade school 12 out of the 13 in the class received certificates for Palmer method work as follows: Arletha Proctor, Alta Brooks, Celeste McIntyre, Ruth Barnett, Dorothy Bruns, Roberta Smith and Frank Christianson received final certificates. This gives these pupils a grade of 95 and exempts them from state tests.

Margaret Bell, Mary Funk, Earl Hite, Phyllis Christianson and Amanda Perret received improvement certificates and a grade of 90. Christina Dunsaur obtained her improvement certificate in the seventh grade. Other seventh and sixth graders have received various other pins as awards.

In awarding the trophy to Shelley Mayor Shannon remarked "If Brother Shelley keeps on running like this he will sure get the nomination." The other entries were W. W. Foster of Portland, Lynk Waldron, Jess J. Shannon, Flavel Stanton and P. L. Randles of Oregon City and Pete Ellis of Molalla.

SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS MEETING AT SANDY

Plans were set for 72 at the dinner sponsored by the high school board of education Friday night for members of school boards comprising the union federation of twelve districts.

It was the first event of the kind ever held in the county to talk over school problems, and to unite the common interests of the high and grade schools. It was a mighty fine idea and was originated by Wm. Ganger, a member of the high school board since its organization in 1917.

In a resume of the school's history Mr. Ganger, the first speaker, gave facts and figures. Though county and state taxes have doubled in 15 years, Mr. Ganger showed the P. E. P. company alone has paid 35 per cent of the same, and actual residents the other 65 per cent.

Transportation, Mr. Ganger said, would probably be $3870 for this year, but tuition received will amount to $3,000. He estimated the building and equipment worth $45,000.

Mr. Vedder made a strong plea for retaining the 2 mill elementary tax, and stated that an effort will be made in the legislature to kill this law by those who do not pay any tax. He also advocated some method of relieving the heavy property tax.

E. F. Bruns made one of his characteristic talks which always hit the nail on the head, and ended with a strong plea for keeping up the development of the high school.

Other speakers were V. D. Butler, Glenn McIntyre, Max Kligel, Anton Malar. For want of time Chairman G. D. Orr did not call on the remaining chairmen of the local districts.

Sandy high was the second union high school formed in the county. Carver was first, but soon "evaporated" for want of support. At present there are five union districts in the county, and Sandy high stands up as one of the best.

The delicious feed was prepared and served by the boys and girls of the home "ec" classes, Miss Kammerer supervising. This it is hoped is only the beginning of other get-together meetings to talk mutual school interests.

Being a Slave of Circumstance...

One of the most popular alibis of today is that one about "circumstances." The man who used to have a little money but is nearly down and out right now lays all his troubles to Circumstances. It does save a lot of explaining that would generally show that the real trouble is carelessness and extravagance. Circumstances are not accidents—someone has to make them. Why should you let somebody make your circumstances? There is one sure way to make them favorable for yourself—and that is to have money in the bank, to be independent. You can start building the sort of circumstances that create success with a savings account at this bank.

Prepare For Trouble...

It is no trouble at all to smile when you are lucky and things are coming your way. It is the smile that is forced during hard luck that seems to almost crack your face.

When times are good and you are making plenty of money, the future does not worry you. But when adversity comes in any of its forms, sickness, crop failures and calamities, then it is said that the prudent man who has established a bank account, will have something to lean upon.
