

Chickens Stolen While Owner Attends Church Services

EAGLE CREEK, June 14.—(Special.)—Twenty-six chickens, mostly laying hens, were stolen from Grant Test Sunday evening while he was at church, leaving him only seven hens which had roosted in the trees and so escaped the thief's notice.

Among the lot taken was a valuable black minorca cock which Test prized very highly.

This is the second time within the last few months that Grant has been visited by chicken thieves. The only clew left was a can of Copenhagen found on the floor of the chicken house.

Mrs. Kenny, Pamela and Mrs. Klingingsmith attended the Rose festival in Portland Thursday and witnessed the floral parade. Grant Test and W. A. Smith joined them in the evening with Mrs. Smith and Margaret and they all went to the Stadium to see the pageant, "Where Rolls the Oregon." Mr. Smith drove the party home.

The annual meeting of school district 17 will be held Monday evening, June 18, at 8 p. m., at the school house. One director and the clerk is to be elected, and the budget adopted. William Sanders is the retiring director.

Spraying is again over in the orchards and cultivating is in full swing at this time. The orchards are looking fine and promise a good crop of fruit this year.

Mr. Winkler from Nashville was a week end guest at the Olaf Spillie home.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society will be held Wednesday, June 20, at the home of Mrs. E. Trullinger.

Mrs. Olaf Spillie was called to Silverton Monday by the death of her father, Mr. Thompson.

Sam Felker, Foster Meyers and Ronald Burnett are home from O. A. C., the latter having graduated.

A very good program was given by the children on Children's Day, June 10, at the Presbyterian church. The church was very beautifully decorated with Paul Nyron blue and red ramble roses together with many kind of wild flowers. Mrs. A. C. Cogswell, Mrs. Emma Clingingsmith and Mrs. Grant Test did the decorating.

Edward Grier, manager of the King walnut orchard, is very busy erecting tents. Grier reports a large crop of walnuts.

Miss Evelyn Meyers of Eagle Creek is one of the candidates in the Goddess of Liberty contest, and is being given a lot of support. Miss Meyers is well known and is very popular, and will be pleased to receive the support of her friends.

CHURCHES

Methodist Church

Here is an inspiring promise, "Lo, I am with you always," is the cheering and inspiring promise of the blessed Christ. It is this unseen presence that enriches and sustains the follower of the Lord. This is the source and strength and courage, the consciousness of such a presence and help brings into the heart the inexhaustible riches and strength of heaven.

With this divine assurance, no cross can be too heavy, no scourging too severe, no hatred too fierce, no trial too bitter, no experience too hard, for, with all, and in it all, He who is the "light of the world" says, "Lo, I am with you. He desires to abide until his radiant glory transforms human lives and the dark stains of the heart disappear. Then the child of God may stand and live, reflecting the indwelling presence of the personal Lord.

Into such we try to lead the people of Estacada. Come and hear the sermon next Sunday. The subject at 11 a. m. will be "Christian Living" and in the evening at 8 o'clock "A Swift Tongue and Slow Feet."

We seek your children and young people for the Sunday school which meets at 10 a. m. Midweek meeting always Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. We wish to greet you at the church. A cordial welcome is extended.—C. T. Cook, pastor.
