Additional Sandy News

Will Attend Summer School
Miss Dorothy Nelson left for Mouth Monday morning to attend summer school again at the normal.

Home From "U"
Glenn Ten Eyck, medical student at Oregon University, is home for vacation, and is helping the folks and working on the road.

Attends Rose Show
Mrs. E. Dodd spent several days in the city last week attending the rose show and visiting with her daughters.

Mrs. Gannon to Return
Mrs. Frank Gannon and fine boy are getting along splendidly and will probably be home from the hospital this week.

New Gas Washer
Mrs. L. M. Tice is enjoying a new gas washer, along with the new Tice home at Marmot. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dahrens of Sandy were at the Tices Sunday.

Purcells to Return
It is reported the Purcells will return to their home here. The Folsoms have moved into their new home but A. L. Mattingly still has the Purcell house leased for a month.

Undergoes Operation
Will Updegrave was operated on for double hernia at the Good Samaritan hospital Monday. Mrs. Updegrave and Mrs. Susan Kelliher went to the hospital with Bill.

Gresham Folks Vacationing
Mrs. A. Meyers, wife of the Gresham banker, and her daughter have been camped at Marmot to pick strawberries and enjoy the outing. Meyers owns a place near the Bol Akim ranch.

Principal Orr Employed
Principal G. D. Orr says he feels a "heap" better since he has become a laboring man and is picking strawberries for the market. Mr. Orr is working in the Dunn fields. Little Johnnie Orr is doing well at the work and Mrs. Orr also has helped.

Here From South Dakota
C. L. Fiske was pleased to have callers from his old home in South Dakota recently. They were Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Falkner, who are on a trip East from California, and with them were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Portland.

Black Caps Doing Well
Warren Forrester says his 250 black caps set out this spring look well, and he is also "helping" Mrs. Goheen's farm a little, their town lots adjoining. They are getting a start of chickens along with the gardening.

Entertain for Kenneth Proctor
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Murray entertained with a dinner party Saturday night, honoring Kenneth Proctor who has just returned from Oregon University. Eight were present, including the Misses Jennie Johnson and Esther Richards of Portland, who were week end guests at the Murray home.

Father's Day Observed
Father's Day was observed in grand style for Jim Dixon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Owen Ganger, Sunday. Everything that Dad likes best was served at the big dinner, including home made ice cream. Jim said he felt like coming into his own to be a guest of honor, which kind of made up for his lack of attention on Mother's Day.

Attends O. E. S. Grand Lodge
Mrs. Victoria Nelson attended the grand lodge session of the O. E. S. for three days last week in Portland.

Timber Cut Out
The Oregon Trail Lumber company mill will finish cutting this week, the stock of timber having been exhausted. Mr. Lundeen has been shipping lumber in car lots to John Valberg, Boring. The remaining wood timber in the logging will be cut and marketed.

Birthday Surprise Party
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilkinson planned a big birthday surprise at their home for R. B. Wilkinson Sunday. A crowd of the neighbors came and brought with them well filled baskets for a feast, and good fellowship prevailed among relatives and friends for the day.

Watkins, Family Have Guests
On Saturday the H. H. Watkins family enjoyed a visit for the afternoon and evening from Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farmer of Portland. Miss Haight was also out from the city and took Mrs. Simmons home, who had been visiting at the Watkins home.

Attends Masonic Grand Lodge
Oren Ganger attended the three-day session of the Masonic grand lodge at Portland last week and then went fishing with his brother Ralph Ganger, Frank Bacon and Dr. C. R. Haagsma, the quartet going to Crooked river in Eastern Oregon for several days.

Garage Receives Coat of Paint
The City Garage, Ross Smith, proprietor, is having a new coat of white paint over its large surface, which is going to make a great improvement for the west end. A Portland firm is doing the work as C. Sharnke has all he can handle just now with his son Carl away.

Wedding Bells Ring
Wedding bells jingled over at Vancouver last week for Mrs. Jessie Downing and William C. Alt of Sandy. Mr. and Mrs. Alt are now keeping house at Mr. Alt's home on the Loop highway which had been in readiness for the bride. Their friends wish the newly weds much happiness.

Surveyor Busy
John Roberts has been very busy surveying lately. He has just platted about 15 acres, Malcom's first addition to Minekahda, on the road into Trumans, and has also subdivided a tract for Mrs. Franzetti at Rhododendron. When not busy elsewhere he is at work on the Jonsrud plat.

Guests at Marmot
Mr. and Mrs. Paarnell Avery and Mr. and Mrs. George Ten Eyck have as guests at their Marmot homes Mrs. D. F. Anderson and daughter Alice from Princeton, Ill., whom they had not seen for 17 years. Mrs. Anderson is a daughter of the Averages, and a sister of Mrs. Ten Eyck.

Asks Water Permit
The Sandy Lumber company has filed application for .5 cubic foot per second from an unnamed creek tributary to the Sandy river for domestic and manufacturing purposes. A loose rock dam is to be built. The pipe line is to be 2640 feet long.
Gus Logus, Sandy, has also filed for .05 cubic feet per second from two unnamed springs tributary to the Sandy river watershed, for domestic purposes. The pipe line is to be 1000 feet in length.

Bells Entertain Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson and son Howard and Mrs. Cupp and daughter, Virginia, from the city, at Sunday dinner. Mrs. Bell's mother, Mrs. Viola Denning, is at her old home on Douglass Ridge for the week.

GARFIELD

Mrs. E. D. Beeman and little daughter of Los Angeles are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Phillips.

The annual school meeting was held Monday evening at the Garfield school house. O. A. Phillips was elected director and Mr. Shunke clerk.

The Christian Endeavor will be led next Sunday evening by Miss Jessie McMurray. The subject will be "Mission work in the slums of Chicago." Miss McMurray is here on a visit from Chicago at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. Van Houten. Everyone welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop gave a birthday party for their son Sim on his sixth birthday. Fourteen of his little friends helped him enjoy a good time on his pony which he received from his parents. The guests were Rose Ann and Rodney Moreland, Allen and Jack Carter, Junior Cook and Junior Ahlberg; and from Portland, Geraldine Ferguson, Warren McClure, Virginia Nash, Gloria and Allen Lane, Dorothy Cyphers, Betty Blair, June Ransome and Robert Ransome.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hollister left Saturday morning for Bend, Oregon, on a fishing trip.
Visitors at the J. O. Botkin home during the past week were Dr. A. W. Botkin of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Shunke, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis, Herbert Hussick, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan of Portland. Mr. Morgan is an orchestra leader and frequent radio entertainer.

Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Botkin of Chervyville spent the past week with their son, J. O. Botkin, the latter taking them home Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Anders and sons Byron, Leonard and daughter Helen and Harry Jerome were shopping in Portland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moreland were business visitors in Portland Monday.

Mr. Botkin and Ely View made a business trip to Gresham Sunday.
Little Bobbie Hamilton of Portland is staying with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kregbaum. Bobbie is picking strawberries at the J. O. Botkin place.

Aid to Have Booth
The Methodist Ladies Aid will have charge of a booth here during the celebration on the Fourth.
