NORMANDY GIRLS HERE ON SATURDAY, JUNE 30

Rube Shaw's Valjean Girls' band and entertainers will appear at the Liberty Theatre in a musical and vaudeville presentation, Saturday night, June 30. The Valjeans are a unit of the Normandy Girls organization which played Manager Bill Perry's theatre a short time ago, and proved so popular that another engagement has been arranged, with a change in the personnel of the orchestra, and an entirely new program of musical selections and vaudeville acts. The show will start early, as the Carl Douglass Post of the American Legion has secured this unit of the Normandy Girls orchestra to play its regular dance at Eagle Creek on the same night, following their performance at the Liberty Theatre. Frank Confer, rube character comedian, is a feature of this show which also includes lively dancing acts, singing and novelty offerings, in addition to the special musical numbers of the Valjean Girls' Band.

CHURCHES

Presbyterian Churches

There will be no regular services at the Springwater, George and Eagle Creek churches this Sunday as the congregations will join in the services of the district Sunday school rally of the Eastern Clackamas Council of Religious Education, at the Eagle Creek grange grove. This will be an all-day service, beginning at 10:30 a. m., and closing about 3 p. m. with a basket dinner at noon. Members of the Sunday school are specially urged to attend this rally.

Notice to Springwater people:—If you do not have a way to go, be at the church at 9:45 a. m., and transportation will be provided.—T. I. Kirkwood.

Methodist Church

In His parable of the man that was sowing seed Jesus explained that "The sower soweth the word." How important it is for Christians to recognize that God's word is the very life of God Himself. It is the living germ of immortality; for it is through God's word that He communicates with our hearts. And as the word comes into our hearts, just as the seed is sown in the ground, we learn the truth, as expressed by the apostle that "The word of God is living and active."

God's word comes to us from the living Eternal One Himself. As it is the living germ of immortality, for it is through God's word that He communicates with our hearts, just as the seed is sown in the ground, we learn of a truth, as expressed by the apostle, that "The word of God is living and active."

Next Sunday morning there will not be any preaching services for some desire to go to the Sunday school rally to be held at Eagle Creek grange grove. There will be Sunday school at 10 a. m., for those who will remain at home.

There will be preaching services at 8:00 p. m., the subject, "Life's Picture," a very interesting subject. Be sure and hear this. Epworth League at 7 p. m.—C. T. Cook, pastor.

Miss Edna Bates is home from Monmouth where she has been attending the state normal.

NOTICE

As the loganberry crop is commencing to open earlier than usual this season, berries will be received at the cannery plant on Friday, June 22 and then again on Monday following. Plenty of crates on hand.

As indications point to a large crop we would very much appreciate it if growers would get in with their deliveries as early as possible.

We are also buying dew berries, raspberries, black caps, Royal Ann cherries and Bartlett pears. Adv. J. G. Hayman.
