RETURN FROM VACATION TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

EAGLE CREEK, July 26.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cogswell and her sister, Mrs. Tennyson of Spokane, and Arthur Smith of Portland, have just returned from their vacation trip. They visited in California and Southern Oregon points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sanders of Silverton visited Mr. Sanders brother, Wm. Sanders, here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown of Portland are visiting Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Homer Glover. They are here on their vacation and Mr. Brown is spending most of the time fishing. He brought in nine nice trout from Eagle Creek Tuesday.

Foster Meyers had the misfortune to throw his knee out of joint again Monday morning at the Delph Creek fish hatchery where he is employed during summer vacation. Foster first dislocated his knee while playing football at Oregon State Agricultural college about two years ago.

Grant Test made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

SANDY LOCALS

Mrs. Louise Schroeder spent a day last week with her folks, the H. Hammans, and her small son Vernon. It is reported that L. E. Hoffman has decided not to build houses for rental until later in the season.

Miss Barbara Sharnke is working at the Sandy Creamery with Miss Dobberfuhl, to get the run of the bookkeeping work before Frieda gives up her position.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dodson were up this way from Troutdale section last Saturday.

John Motejl and Louis Hauglum of this vicinity and William Morand and Mrs. Morand and son Donald of Boring were all at Oregon City recently on business.

Mark Johnson of Welches is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Will Updegrave of Sandy is fine but will not be able to work for some time. Bill is recovering from an operation.

Miss Gusta Ruther came out from the city to spend a few days last week with her parents but was called back next day because of a death in the family where she works.

Miss Frieda Dobberfuhl will continue her work at the Sandy Creamery until September when she will go to Mt. Angel where her parents will be located after this month. Mrs. Dobberfuhl arrived from a visit to the East last week.

Mrs. E. Dodd came home from the Newberg berry fields last week and went up to Rhododendron to work for Mrs. Jack Scales.

Mr. and Mrs. Popoff of Firwood have a mighty fine pair of twins about a year and a half old they are going to enter at the Gresham fair.

Sylvester Hall has been very busy until recently wiring the Gus Logus and Eason houses and the Jonard park. The latter will be very attractive at night with its electric lights in both the buildings and the park.

After all the strawberries in this immediate vicinity were gone, nice fresh ones came from up the mountains and have been on the market.

Jerry Duke came out from the city to see that fine grandson of his Sunday, and incidentally to visit with the rest of the Duke family.

W. A. Proctor still carries the scar of the cut on his cheek caused by falling in a wild blackberry patch but was able to go to the Mountaineer mill the latter part of the week.

Miss Evelyn Bennett is wrapping butter at the Sandy Creamery since Mrs. C. W. Bruce quit to get ready for her trip to Iowa.

TEACHERS AND STUDENTS REACH TOP OF MT. HOOD

A local party of high school boys led by Principal G. D. Orr, made a 100 per cent climb of Mt. Hood, leaving Timberline at 11:15 Saturday night, taking their time, and half arrived in time to see the sunrise.

Among the many sights in the night was the northern lights, plainly visible. Mr. Orr has climbed the mountain many times and says he never found it in such good condition for climbing.

In the party were Mr. Orr, V. D. Butler and sons Robley and Charles, Gordon and Horton Bacon, Fred Bechill, Jr., Richard Mundlin, Bert Wilkinson, Leonard, Melvin and Walter Haneberg, Harold Soderberg, Lloyd Dunn, Jno. Hempe, R. Foust, Harry Swerver, Russell Norquist and Julius Ruther.

Returns to Arizona

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller's brother, F. U. Armstrong and wife of Douglas, Arizona, left this week for Toledo, Oregon, where they will visit relatives before returning home. Mr. Armstrong has been a locomotive engineer for 39 years and runs a train of Pullman cars to El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence of Gresham were also guests at the Miller home part of the week, and Saturday night and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stamps and five children were also guests, making "almost" a family reunion, 12 being present Sunday.

Here from Palo Alto

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bruns were pleased to have a visit last week from Henry Cordes and wife from Palo Alto. Mrs. Cordes is a special friend of Mrs. Bruns. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Notbaum, formerly of Wisconsin, were also guests at the same time. Mr. Notbaum is a retired saw mill man, and Mr. Cordes is doing research work for the Spreckels company in California.

Returns From Trip East

"The gang's" all glad to see Albert Motejl back from his two months' auto trip to the East, and he surely received the glad hand. Albert drove his old "Chev." to Wisconsin where he traded for a new cabriolet, went to Tulsa, Okla., to visit a brother, came through Yellowstone and visited other points. He made the trip back from Toledo, Ohio, alone and reports a wonderful time.

Will Attend Pioneer Meet

Mrs. Peter Vetsch and John Vetsch were out from Portland at the Wewer home a few days ago. The Vetsches, and also the Frishe families plan to come to the Pioneer meeting next Sunday, July 29, and the Frey, Koesel and Olson families are expected among the many others who helped develop the Sandy section in days gone by.

Guests at Bell Home

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Marshall and Mrs. DeShields called on Mrs. Viola Denning Sunday at the Will Bell home. Mr. and Mrs. Will Updegrave and children also called in the evening, and Mr. Beaver and daughters Nellie and Helen spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Bell home.

Dam to Be Finished This Fall

Andy Lamper and Otto Motejl were in town Saturday night. Andy is an inspector of concrete work at the Bear Creek dam, which is a fine position. The dam is to be finished late in the fall.

Visiting in Toledo

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller left Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Toledo, Ore. She will return the last of this week. This accounts for the small amount of Sandy news items in this issue of the News.

Attend Farewell Services

Mr. and Mrs. Brandes (Martha Hoffman) were out Sunday to attend the farewell services held by Rev. F. Dobberfuhl, also the Hoffman and Deaton families.

Mrs. Dahrens Improved

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is so much better her recovery is almost assured. The veins above her eyes have cleared up and she can see and talk as usual.

Meets Deer on Highway

Mrs. Henry Perret, while on a trip to Eastern Oregon, met a pretty doe on the Wapinitia highway. The deer calmly looked them over and took its time to disappear.

SANDY LOCALS

Mrs. G. D. Orr and children and Mrs. V. D. Butler had a pleasant camping trip Saturday night at Government Camp while the Sandy climbing party scaled the slopes of Mt. Hood.

The Jonsrud-Gunderson planing mill has been doing a lot of business recently which has kept their planer running steadily.

Mrs. Carl Power is still marketing sweet cream in the city each day. Mrs. Powers has been exceedingly brave to take up the burden of managing such a large dairy since the passing of her husband.

Mrs. Edna Esson writes from Corvallis that she had a severe time when her tonsils were removed, but she is about recovered from the ordeal.

Mrs. F. D. Eason was an all day guest at the home of Mrs. J. M. C. Miller Friday. Mrs. Esson called on Mrs. Kate Schmitz, Mrs. P. T. Shelley, the Duke family, Pearl Proctor, Frieda Dobberfuhl and a few others while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peel are getting along nicely farming on the A. W. Bell place. The Peels took over the C. A. Ruther lease.

Mrs. Clarence Brown's sister and husband were out to spend Saturday night at the Brown home.

Mrs. Francois Burrell is at the Aug. Hoernicker home getting initiated into the household duties as Miss Blanche Bruce is giving up the work there and may decide to go East with her mother and Leslie.

Miss Catherine Thayer of Cherryville was in Sandy Saturday night shopping.

Mrs. Henry Perret has all ready canned 95 quarts of wild blackberries and the "end is not yet."

Joe Wilcoxson much prefers being "powder monkey" at the Bear creek dam to doing ordinary work back in Indiana. Wilcoxson spent the winter at the latter place to be near his aged mother, but likes Oregon best.

Ida Ryan, Sandy union high school girl, is spending her vacation helping her mother take care of the store adjoining Allen's garage at Cherryville.

Miss Evelyn Bennett and Jonnie Shelley went to the city recently to spend the day with Mrs. Lloyd Eckhardt (Alaia Ostrum). Mrs. Brooke (Hilda Thorne) came to the Eckhardt home to meet the girls and all were delightfully entertained at the lovely Erhardt home.

Mrs. J. M. Gant was a recent Sandy visitor at the home of Mrs. Bennet. Beulah Gant is scheduled to work at the Arthur Woodcock home the remainder of vacation.

August 5 is announced as the date of the annual mission fest of Sandy Lutheran church. Visiting pastors will be in charge, as Rev. Dobberfuhl will be at his new pastorate at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. J. C. Loundree's parents, have been at the Loundree home over a week. Mrs. Shafer's health is still very poor.

Mrs. A. Hoernicker has not been so well, the heat being quite hard for her. Her sister, Mrs. Alice Trullinger, was out and spent Sunday with her.

Bob Smith's sister, Mrs. Joe Anderson, her husband and two children, are visiting the Smith family for a week from Seattle.

Drive to Washougal

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Harper made a 90-mile motor trip Sunday to Washougal, Vancouver and other points to call on friends and relatives.

Climb Mt. Hood

Edgar Hite was home a week or so ago and took several friends from Monmouth with him to climb Mt. Hood.

Will Remain During Summer

John Motejl, Sandy U. H. S. graduate, will not be home until Christmas. John has a splendid position teaching in a high school in Calif.

School Principal Busy

Principal G. D. Orr is so busy checking over supplies and other detail work connected with high school interests he will not be able to take his family for a vacation for several weeks.

Farrell Buys Timber

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Farrell of Barton were in Estacada Monday morning. They were closing a deal with George Lawrence & Son for a tract of timber in the Springwater district. This makes Mr. Farrell more than one hundred acres of timber for wood and other purposes in this vicinity.

INSTALLS NEW DONKEY FOR LOGGING OPERATIONS

DOVER, July 26.—(Special).—The gas donkey installed by D. V. Rose recently did not prove satisfactory and he has installed a Lambert 7-11 steam donkey which it is estimated will have twice the capacity of the gas machine. Mr. Rose expects to average 20,000 feet per day by working over time. He is pressed for time on a foreign order. The logging is somewhat difficult as the timber lies across the Jones creek canyon.

Hiram Johnson has been awarded the contract for painting the exterior of the school building.

Mark Pugh and family have gone to Hood River to work in the fruit harvest.

Work in the grain fields started the latter part of the week. The acreage is small as so much of the land is planted to strawberries. The yield will be better this year than for a number of years.

CURRINSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Currin and Mrs. Don Allen returned from a two weeks' trip to Spokane and Wallace, Idaho, this week.

Mrs. Henry Heiple returned Saturday from Gervais, Oregon.

Kenneth Githens of Portland is visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Githens, at the Carlin ranch.

Among those going to Gladstone to see "The Old Frontier" Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Linn and Mrs. R. H. Currin.

Juvenile Thrift

The spirit of thrift cannot be inspired in our youngsters too soon.

A child who is taught the value of pennies in his extreme youth needs little coaching on the value of a dollar in later life.

We welcome children's accounts in the names of the guardians, for we plainly see in the children of today the big men of our business community of tomorrow.

It is never too early to save.
