IDA, ONLY 107, HAS 125 OFFERS OF MARRIAGE

Proposal Record Added to Longevity Distinction.

New York.—To the distinction of longevity, Mrs. Ida Goldberg, who, at one hundred seven is the oldest inmate of the United Home for Aged Hebrews, New Rochelle, has added a marriage proposal record younger beauties may well envy. In the last year 125 matrimonial offers have come to her by mail.

Publicity is the secret of the charm she appears to have for swains of all ages, scattered from New York to Texas. Mrs. Goldberg, a widow, boasts of five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. At a celebration of her one hundred sixth birthday, which was chronicled in the press, she remarked that she wanted a suitable young man for a husband.

Many From Philly.

This wish was conveyed through the country by publication in scores of newspapers. Approximately half of the resulting proposals have come from gentlemen residing in Philadelphia, which is probably a coincidence, although some observers believe it offers material for sociological, not to say psychiatric, study.

Unfortunately, no one has come forward whom Mrs. Goldberg is willing to accept. Her suitors failed to notice that she spoke specifically of a "suitable" young man.

"My ideal man," she explained, "must be a millionaire and should be about forty-five years old. Anyone younger than that is not likely to have a great deal of wisdom."

Mrs. Goldberg has been unable to walk since she fractured a hip, several years ago. Following are extracts from some of the letters she has received:

1. A Philadelphia schoolboy, sixteen years old.—In writing this letter, my hand is guided by Cupid. My heart is beating an everlasting love for your companionship.
2. Canton, Ohio, twenty-one years old.—I am married to a young girl who said she was going to shoot me. If you could make some arrangements to go to Nevada with me for three months, I could get a divorce there.
3. Philadelphia, aged fifty-five.—Addresses her as, "My dear sweet-heart," and writes, "My dear little girl, won't you consider my hand and make me your loyal and true mate?"

From a Truck Driver.

4. Philadelphia, thirty-two years old, breaks the ice by starting, "Dear Ida," and continues, "I have been thinking of marriage, and I think you would be a wonderful wife for me. I have a fair job as truck driver and can give you a good home."
5. St. Louis, Mo.—I am an elevator man; that is, I am an elevator starter. I have initiative and ambition.
6. New York city, forty-six, signs himself: "With the highest respect, my dear Madame Ida Goldberg, I remain your obedient, loving bridegroom." He enclosed in his letter a dried four-leaf clover.
7. Philadelphia ("seventeen and one-half years of age").—Saw your picture in the paper and thought you would make a suitable wife and companion. I would like to marry an old lady because she has more sense than these flappers.
8. Atlantic City, thirty.—A woman of your type is what I am looking for. These young girls of today lack modesty. I want one who will have sensible ideas.
9. Philadelphia, twenty-one, signs himself "Your Wonderful Admirer, Don Juan," and recommends himself as follows: "I am a young man and would make a model husband for you. I can do the charleston and black bottom."
10. Washington, D. C., "almost twenty," describes himself as follows.—I am not so ugly. I can sing and dance a little and have a wonderful personality.
11. Nineteen, who resides at a Y. M. C. A. in Baltimore, warns her: "If you want me for a hubby, do not hold this letter in suspense like a flapper, because I am a Charles street cowboy and I mean what I speak."
12. Brooklyn, thirty-six, describes himself as strong and healthy, a professional dancer, and ends up by asking for an immediate loan, as he is broke.
13. Chicago, forty-five, sends his proposal with the following explanation.—I have an idea you would make me a good wife and mother, for you have been through the mill.
