A Checking Account Shows the Way to Save

If the head of every family knew how much he was spending for groceries, meat and other items, he would know which expenses were running too high and cut them down.

Paying all your bills with a Clackamas County Bank Checking Account gives this necessary information and enables you to save more, too. Open your account here, pay your bills by check and you will soon see that we are right.

THE SHOE RE-BUILDER IN OUR TOWN—

Rebuilders come—rebuilders go,
In our town, year on year.
But we can all depend on "Joe,"
Who's "stuck" and "made good" here!
And when he does a "job" for us,
He puts his HEART in it;
There's never any "kick" or "fuss"—
There's A-1 "Art" in it!

CURRINSVILLE

With the harvesting over and farm work at a standstill on account of no moisture in the ground so farmers can plow, it seems that news is very scarce.

N. R. Holland is preparing to move back to the ranch near Salem. The Currinsville store truck hauled a load of fine fat hogs to the North Portland stock yards for A. D. Burnett Monday.

Mrs. L. H. Ewalt accompanied Lloyd to Portland Monday.

Walter Looney and Lester Hale have some ewe lambs for sale that should be purchased by farmers at home and not thrown on the slaughter market.

Is there a disc plow for sale? If so advertise it. A farmer in this district wants one.

Lester Hale has a crew of men at work on the bridge in this district, and in a short time will have the bridge in good shape.

The mill at the Currinsville store is doing more grinding than ever before. They have recently put in a new seed cleaner, which does excellent work.

P. R. Russell went to Portland Wednesday to try to get a house-keeper to assist with the work while his wife is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller are assisting George DeShields with his prunes.

Messrs. VanMoss and Olmstead were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Linn were visitors at the Currinsville store Sunday.

VIOLA

We are sorry to report the death of William Powers, who passed away September 15, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ina Chapman, of Portland. He was the father of Elmer and Emery Powers of Viola and step father to three daughters and one son. There are 26 grandchildren also. He was a good father and a good neighbor and will be missed by his many friends.

Mrs. Joe Hinkle, with her little daughter Rose May, are visiting at Seattle with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Kay, who has been quite ill, is a little better at this time.

Viola school started Monday with 17 students. Miss Lucille Hubbard is the teacher.

Mrs. Harry Northrup is talking of selling her place here. Mr. Northrup is still in Tacoma taking treatments but is not improving in health. Mrs. Knox is staying here with Mrs. Northrup, who wants to join Mr. Northrup at Tacoma.

The Springwater fair was a success and a large number of people were present with fine exhibits. The Estacada Band and the fine dinner which was prepared by the Springwater ladies, was enjoyed by all. The speaking was also good.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilgan with the latter's father, called at the J. H. Sevier home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hicinbotham and son Leslie and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGraw and son were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sevier Sunday.

GARFIELD

The Christian Endeavor social club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Reeber Wednesday, September 19, in the evening.

The C. E. will be led Sunday evening by Mrs. Cass of Chicago. The topic, "How Missionary Interest Broadens Our Knowledge."

Mrs. Albert Douglass and son Ernest of Estacada visited with Mrs. Dart and Kenneth Sunday.
