DOG FEATURED IN SHOW ARRANGED FOR SATURDAY

A dog picture providing clean, wholesome entertainment for everyone, with plenty of actions and thrills will be shown at the Liberty Theatre Saturday afternoon at 2:30 and in the evening, tickets for which may be had at all the leading stores in Estacada.

It is "Ranger of the North," starring Ranger, the popular police dog. In this picture Ranger has been given a particularly strong story, written by Ewar Adamson and adapted by Leon D'Usseau. It deals with the adventures of a dog who goes wild in the Canadian wilderness and then admits a city-bred youth to be his master. At the instigation of a beautiful French-Canadian girl, the two tenderfeet set out to clear up the mystery of a haunted mountain, where many hardened woodsmen have met their death. Mainly through the heroic actions of Ranger, his master wins a fortune in gold and in love.

Lina Basque, who rose to fame before the footlights as the premiere danseuse of the Ziegfield follies for three years, gives a fine performance as the girl. A comparative newcomer to the screen, Hugh Trevor, deserves particular praise for his portrayal of the boy, a part which carries a great deal of the weight of the story. Jerome Storm directed, and the cast includes Bernard Seigle and Jules Rancourt.

The scenery forming the background is beautiful. The entire film was made near Mammoth, lake, deep in the high Sierras of California, where the landscape closely resembles the wooded wilderness of Canada, noted for its picturesque grandeur.

"Ranger of the North" will be the big attraction Saturday, one day only, and tickets will be given by the merchants of Estacada for this entertainment without charge. There will be a good comedy also. The matinee will start at 2:30, and the tickets given with purchases by the stores will be good at the matinee or in the evening.

COTTRELL NOTES

Cottrell P. T. A. will meet Thursday night, November 1, and an especially good program is being prepared by Miss Helen Maxwell, Hazel Booth and Virginia Watkins. The spirit of the program is to be in keeping with Halloween.

Mrs. A. J. Alt, Mrs. Jim Matthews, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Lizzie Bennett have returned from the Mt. Adams pear orchard where they got on splendidly packing pears.

A large crew of men are planting bulbs recently arriving from Holland at the Holland Bulb gardens near Cottrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherer and Miss Helen Hall attended the Pleasant Home Sunday school convention on Sunday morning. Miss Edna Thomson and Sylvester Hall were present from Sandy in the afternoon.

CURRINSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Inkster of Portland were visitors of the Tunnell's in Currinsville Sunday. Mr. Owen is one of the successful merchants in Portland. J. O. Tunnell worked for him in 1914 and 1915 in one of the stores he operated.

A birthday surprise party was given at the home of Walter Loony in honor of Juanita's birthday. The guests gathered about 7:30 and games were played and everyone had a good time. Ice cream, candy and a birthday cake were served at 10:30. There were 32 present. Juanita received several nice presents.

Burt Curtis returned from Sheridan Sunday evening and has started working for Paul Lovell.

Wilbur and Doris Looney, Mrs. Walter Looney and Mrs. Frank Jones drove to Milwaukie Wednesday.

George Evans of Oregon City and George Walter installed a new 10-gallon visible Takheim gas pump and a new 94-gallon kerosene tank for the Currinsville store.

H. D. Lombard finished his fall seeding Wednesday. The farmers are rejoicing that the fall weather is still nice.

Mrs. Clara Webber was a visitor at the Currinsville store Wednesday morning.

ESTACADA HIGH SCHOOL NEWS NOTES

The Estacada high school is planning to have an annual this year. Pictures have been taken of juniors, seniors, sophomores and freshmen, the faculty and officers of the different classes, girls' glee club, boys' glee club, football team and girls' baseball teams. Blanche Armstrong was unanimously elected editor of the annual and Ruby Bates was elected assistant editor.

A letter from Misses Kershner and Anderson, former high school teachers, from the Columbia University, New York, state that both are taking library work.

A fire drill was held last week and everybody was clear of the building in 18 seconds.

Students continue to enroll, Earl Hassell and Claude Lankin being recent ones.

The Cafeteria class went to Portland to attend the Oregonian rooking school.

A football rally was held Thursday night announcing the Milwaukie contest for Friday. Students serpentine down from the high school to the large pile of wood gathered for a bon fire on the flat near the city hall and while it was burning there was a program of short talks by Mayor H. C. Stephens, Bob Cooke, W. E. Buell and Coach Maning. Guy Fanton was master of ceremonies and Howard Fifer yell leader.

Bob Hayden, one of the football boys, was unable to take part in the Milwaukie game Friday on account of an infected arm, caused by a small scratch.

Estacada won from Milwaukie by the close score of 13 to 12. At the time of the final whistle the visitors were nearing the danger line.

Adelphic and Websterian societies have been organized with the following officers selected: Adelphic—Claude Shriner, president; Alvin Munson, vice president; Velva Perrine, secretary; Evelyn Meyers, treasurer; Charles Lingelbach, sergeant at arms and Miss Spall, advisor. Websterians—Robert Marchbank, president; Anna Leeman, vice president; Herbert Fifer, secretary and treasurer, and Zola Clester, sergeant at arms. The first program will be given by the Adelphics sometime near Thanksgiving.

The sophomores entertained the freshmen in the grade school auditorium Friday night. The Halloween scheme was carried out in the room decorations and the lunch served by a committee. The refreshments consisted of cider, doughnuts, pumpkin pie and sandwiches. All report a most enjoyable evening.

Misses Irene and Alice Kaake are now employed in the cannery at Carver.

The Wrath of a Boss

On October 17, 1913, by a vote of 43 to 12, the Court of Impeachment voted to remove William Sulzer from the office of governor of the State of New York. It was the first time in the history of the state that a governor has ever been impeached, and its most powerful lesson was the power of a Tammany Boss's wrath.—M. R. Werner in Tammany Hall.
