CHURCHES

Presbyterian
This Sunday is World's Temperance Sunday. Let us rally to the temperance cause as we have never done before. The subject will be "Prohibition the Only Way to Temperance."

Springwater—Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning worship at 11.
George—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., church service at 3 p. m.

Eagle Creek—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., evening service at 8.
The young people of these churches are urged to attend the Clackamas County Christian Endeavor convention at the Christian church in Estacada beginning Friday evening, November 2, and continuing until Sunday evening, November 4.—Thos. I. Kirkwood, pastor.

Sandy Lutheran Service
English service at 10:30 a. m., with celebration of holy communion. Announcement for communion on Thursday. Subject of sermon, "The Reformation." The confessional service will begin at 10 a. m.

Estacada Methodist Church
The two last Sundays have been wonderful in church services. A great uplift to all who were present! The special songs by the choir help so much! We ask you to come next Sunday morning at 11 a. m., to hear a discussion of the subject, "The Kingdom in a New Social Order."
Sunday school at 10 a. m. There will be no Epworth League meeting Sunday evening as we will join with the County Christian Endeavor in the Christian church. A cordial welcome to our morning services.—C. T. Cook, pastor.

Estacada Church of Christ
D. W. Summers of Portland will preach at the Church of Christ in Estacada Sunday at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

Estacada Christian Church
The Bible school subject Sunday morning will be "World Temperance." All who have no other church home are invited to attend the services at 10 o'clock for the study and discussion of this most important world theme. A class for everyone and a loyal, live wire teacher for every class. Mrs. May Page is the superintendent. Communion and praise service at 11 followed by a brief message on the subject of "God's Big Billboard."

The Christian Endeavor hour will be given over entirely to the young people attending the convention. The topic is "In What Ways Do We Waste Our Time." The hour is 7 p. m. Everybody welcome.

The convention theme is "Crusade With Christ." The young people wish to invite the public to the sessions of the convention beginning Friday evening and ending with the 8 o'clock service Sunday evening. Come and enjoy the meetings with the young people.—Hugh Foster.

GIVE BIG CARD PARTY

Ladies of the Ridge Lumber Co. mill colony gave a surprise Thursday night honoring Mrs. Ernest Aschoff's birthday. Cards were enjoyed and coffee, cake and root beer were served to 32 guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Aschoff and son Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bramhall and daughter, R. Lippard and family, E. Lippard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Whute, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Linn, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Lillian and Russell Nelson, Lora Russell, Nettie Gaston, Bob Jarl, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Erickson, Loeffler Bros., Frank Lalong, Alfred Ishberg, Harvey Crowe, Margaret Thomas and mother.

WHOLE MENAGERIE USED IN BIG FILMING PICTURE

A veritable Noah's Ark sailed the Pacific ocean when the Tiffany production, "The Enchanted Island," was being made on a lonely volcanic island off the coast of Lower California. Animals of every description from the huge elephants and giraffes to tigers, lions, chimpanzees, goats, deer, skunks, zebras, camels, and donkeys were loaded on a vessel and brought to location.

Those in charge of the menagerie after unloading the animal cargo wondered how old Noah was able to get all the animals aboard his Ark before the big flood started. The same difficulty was experienced in getting the animals aboard for the home trip. A few monkeys escaped and reverted back to their primitive existence. "The Enchanted Island" will be the feature picture attraction at the Liberty Theatre, Estacada, on Thursday and Friday of next week.

SANDY LOCAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Buse were in Sandy shopping, Saturday, from Dover. They report strawberries are still ripe there.

Ed Hein and bride and Mrs. Hein, Sr., spent Wednesday evening at the Charles Sharnke home.
Mrs. Maud Reed, Rhododendron, has a fine new Ford coupe.

Paddy McKnight says he is working 25 hours per day planting bulbs at the Holland Bulb farm—and likes it.

The Lundy's made the Mt. Hood Loop last week and say the autumn leaves are beautiful beyond expression.

Jack Scales is better. He was able to walk up to the store one day recently.

Mail Order Competition

is easy with us. We have satisfied several of our customers in the last few days, after they had their order made out, and we have given them better merchandise at the same price.

Next time you have an order made out to send to the mail order house, bring it in and give us a chance.

GRANDPA BULGER

ADMISSION IS FREE

Through the courtesy of the Sperry Flour Company, we have secured for the Eagle Creek Parent-Teachers association on the evening of Friday, November 9, the founder and leading spirit of the Sperry Flour Children's and "Our Gang" radio club. Grandpa Bulger will entertain the children of this community at the Eagle Creek school, beginning at 8 p. m., Friday, November 9. You are cordially invited to be here to give "Grandpa" a royal welcome.

There will be no collection. The ladies of the Parent-Teachers association will serve a lunch, for which a nominal charge will be made and at the close of the festivities the three prize winning pies will be auctioned to the highest bidder, all proceeds to go to the P. T. A. Grandpa Bulger used to be a circus clown—yes sir—a real, live, laughing circus clown—he will make you laugh and will draw pictures for you, too. Come, children, and bring "Ma" and "Pa," too.
