CHURCHES

Estacada Christian Church
The Bible school takes great pleasure in inviting the folks of the community who have no church home in Estacada, or are not members of any church, to attend the service Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The study period will be devoted to the Prayers of Paul. Man has a three-fold relationship, which try as he will, he cannot escape his relationship toward God, his relationship to man, and his relationship toward the church. Prayer is an expression of that relationship toward the Creator. The prayers of this man, whose life and work has so blessed the world that he is counted as one of the earth's greatest of men, are surely of untold value to us of the 20th century.

We do not invite you to come, serve us, but come, and let us be of service to you.

The subject of the 11 o'clock message is "Jesus, the Unequaled." Text John 6:38. Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.

Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., topic, "Remember God!" Miss Anna Leeman is president and Miss Nielsen will be leader. At the conclusion of the meeting the pastor will explain the first section of the new Crusader's chart.

This happy group of young people invite any and all to come to this meeting.—Hugh Foster, pastor.

Presbyterian Churches
Special Thanksgiving services are being planned in our churches for this Sunday. There will be special music and a thanks offering will be taken for missions. The subject is "Thanking God for All His Benefits."

Springwater—Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning worship at 11.

George—Sunday school at 2 p. m., church service at 3.

Eagle Creek—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., evening service at 8.—T. I. Kirkwood, pastor.

Methodist Church

"A Thanksgiving Thought." If the prayer of men gratify the sense of the Divine and move Him to compassion and mercy, their praises and thanksgiving are those invisible forces which sway the heart of the Father to good pleasure and fellowship.

The happy recognition of kindness received begets happiness, and the happier the children of men express their appreciations, the greater the joy of Him who is able to bestow.

God is appreciative of thanks. He is easily touched by the remembrance of his beneficiaries and truly pained by their forgetfulness. Did not the interpreter of the Father, rather the very image of the Father, turned to the thankful healed Samaritan leper saying with deep feeling, "Thy faith hath made thee whole?" And did he not ask in great disappointment, "Were there not ten cleansed, but where are the nine?"

Thanksgiving is faith and faith pleases God. Let us please God by our faith, the very essence of Thanksgiving.

Sunday morning at 11 a. m. a rally day sermon will be given, entitled, "The Gateway of Tomorrow." This is a very interesting program. In the evening at 7:30 the sermon will be a Thanksgiving sermon, subject, "Thanksgiving an Essential Element in Life." Make this your Thanksgiving service in unison. Come and be present! Sunday school meets at 10 a. m., Epworth League at 6:30 in the evening. We extend a cordial welcome to any who attend the service.—C. T. Cook, pastor.

BIG COMEDY FEATURE FOR REBEKAH SHOW

The Rebekah lodge of Estacada is offering an unusual entertainment at the Liberty Theatre in Estacada on next Tuesday evening. Comedy acts have been arranged by local talent, in addition to the big screen feature, "That's My Daddy," a picture that is being brought to Estacada for this event.

The story "That's My Daddy," was written by Reginald Denny who stars in this farce, and who also wrote his previous success, "Fast and Furious." Fred Newmeyer, the man who directed Harold Lloyd for three years, came directly from the Lloyd organization to direct Denny.

"That's My Daddy" is an unusual picture, being in many ways a departure from the farcical subjects in which Denny has made his name and fortune. For screaming situations the film unsurpassed, there are spots where the comicalities become convulsive. But added to all this is a touch of child pathos injected by the remarkable acting of Jane LaVerne, a baby prodigy recently discovered by Reginald Denny himself.

The cast of the picture is exceptional with Barbara Kent, Wampus star of 1927, playing the feminine lead and Lillian Rich, well known leading woman, playing second lead.

Others in the cast are Tom O'Brian, Jane LaVerne, Mathilde Brundage, Wilson Bengt, Armand Kaliz, Charles Coleman and Art Currier.

The story concerns the little girl befriended by Denny and is featured by a gorgeous wedding on board a palatial private yacht.

Celeste McIntyre Very Ill
Much anxiety is expressed by friends of the Glenn McIntyre family over the dangerous illness of Celeste, who is suffering from an enlarged heart, which is said to be three times as large as a normal heart.
