"BEAU GESTIE" BIG SCREEN FEATURE COMING SUNDAY

The screen version of one of the most popular romantic action novels in recent years, "Beau Geste," will be shown at the Liberty Theatre in Estacada Sunday and Monday.

This thrilling story of romance, mystery and adventure in the French foreign legion with the theme of the devotion of three brothers powerfully depicted, has been transferred to the screen by Paramount on a scale never surpassed by any previous production.

For the filming of this novel, Director Herbert Brenon led an army of 2000 men into the great American desert for three months during which the exterior scenes were made. The camp was built in a sand basin 30 miles from any habitation and the entire company worked straight through without a day's rest, from 5:30 each morning until sunset.

Brenon took his company to Burlingame, Cal.—a 900 mile trip—for a few cranks of the camera.

No obstacle was permitted to stand in the way of making it as fine as possible. The director was given the selection of any player in motion pictures. Months were spent in preparation and more months to filming. Hundred's of the West's finest riders were brought together as were 1500 of the world's fastest horses and 50 camels.

The smallest part in the picture was filmed with the same care that was given to casting the featured roles.

Ronald Colman plays the title part, that of the eldest of the three brothers who each leave home with out telling the others, to enlist in the French foreign Legion under assumed names in order to shield each other from the blame for the theft of a famous sapphire. Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes enact the other brothers.

The brave defense by 40 legionnaires of a lonely fort in the Sahara when it is attacked by countless hordes of mounted desert warriors, Touraegs, brings the story to its climax. It also causes Noah Beery, as the brutal adjutant, "the cruellest beast and bravest soldier" in the legion, to reach the pinnacle of his notable screen career.

Other prominent players in "Beau Geste" include Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, William Powell, Norman Trevor and Victor McLaglan.

Frank Whitaker of Estacada went to Corvallis Saturday to see the ball game between the two colleges. Dr. game and was among the "rooters" for Oregon.

Estelle Hanson celebrated her sixteenth birthday Sunday evening by inviting a number of young friends to her home.

Attend Ball Game

George and Pauline Rose went to Corvallis Friday to attend the home coming festivities and to see the football game between the college and Oregon U.

On Thanksgiving

We are thankful—

- That America stands united and powerful;
- That brave hearts and broad oceans guard us from any foreign danger;
- That education, equal rights and democracy find free expression here;
- That opportunity lies on every hand and every man has a chance to advance;
- That practically every man has work, good wages and a chance to save for the future.
- That an American dollar is worth a dollar and when we earn one we have something better than a bale of European paper money.
