CHURCHES

Estacada Methodist Church
The story of the cross is the most wonderful story ever told. Only by the way of the cross, that instrument of torture and shame, were hope and salvation ever brought to our hearts. It is not enough to have the cross as a story or a song; not enough to believe in the suffering of Christ on Calvary; not enough to believe in His atoning death as a mere theory or creed. It is not the cross on the church spire, the cross stamped in gold on our Bible, or the cross in the window; it is the cross in the heart that is a true sign of the consecrated life.

It is only when the sinner has been led to take a long and earnest look at Calvary; when the awful tragedy of that hour is stamped with undying conviction upon his soul; and when the real meaning of the cross becomes a personal experience, dissolved into his very life, that he can truly say with the great apostle, "I am crucified with Christ."

Then in addition to all else, he realizes that he is not his own, that he is bought with a price,—oh such a price;—and he says: I cannot go back to the old selfish life—Christ suffered and died for me; I belong to Him. He is my Savior, and gladly I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ my Lord.

We aim to so preach this Christ of the cross; holding Him up to the ideal need of all men. Our subject for next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be "The God of Loving Righteousness." Come and learn how good He is. In the evening at 7:30 the subject will be "Human Weakness and Divine Strength."

Remember at 10 o'clock in the morning the Sunday school meets to study the international lessons used by all churches. A fine spirit is growing in the church school. Then the Epworth League meets at 6:30 in the evening. Miss Irene Kaake will be leader. A cordial invitation to all these services is extended to any who will come.—C. T. Cook, pastor.

Estacada Christian Church
There is no better way to start the New Year than to turn our thoughts heavenward and consider the Creator. So the Bible school lesson for next Sunday, the first Lord's day of the year 1929, is "Our Heavenly Father."

The morning sermon message following the praise and communion service at 11 will also be in keeping with the New Year. The morning message will be "The New Birth," based on the conversation with the Savior with Nicodemus, when Jesus said "Ye must be born anew."

The Christian Endeavor topic is "Forces that are making the world better." Do you believe the world is getting better or worse? The Endeavorers think it is getting better and are lending a hand to make their belief a reality. Come, and let the Endeavor wipe the frown away and replace it with a smile, and learn that life is really worth while.—Hugh Foster, pastor.

Presbyterian Churches
The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed this Sunday. Our communion study will be taken from Luke's story of "The Walk to Emmaus."

Springwater—Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning worship at 11.

Eagle Creek—Sunday school at 10:30; evening service at 8 o'clock.—T. I. Kirkwood, pastor.
