

CURRINSVILLE

CURRINSVILLE, Jan. 17.—(Special).—George Walter is doing some repair work for the Neil Taylor family on their buildings. W. T. Looney and P. W. Douglas shipped four hogs on the Currinsville store truck to the Portland market Tuesday. Mrs. John Githens and Mrs. Effie Douglass shipped some poultry on the Currinsville store truck to Portland Tuesday. K. H. Currin is out again after a siege of the flu. Floyd Hale is doing some work on his ginseng gardens during the nice weather. Miss Ethel Hale spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lou Hale. Cleve Heiple is reported to be improving very rapidly. Albert and Charley Kitching are doing some repair work on the Linn property in Currinsville. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Currin and Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kassteater at Bear Creek last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen of Bull Run spent Monday and Tuesday at the Currin home. They left for Seattle and other Washington points for a two weeks' vacation.

SANDY LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. L. E. Palmer and fine baby, Fred Eugene, are now getting along nicely in the Junker cottage, returning from the hospital ten days ago. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley are still at the R. C. Shipley home, and have not decided if they will return to California to live. Miss Mabel Shipley was down from college in Washington recently and was also a guest of the Shipleys. Mrs. Albert Jonrud was at Boring Monday night to practice in the Rebekah drill team. Mrs. Clarence Brown has been in the city this week on account of the illness of her little niece, who is not expected to recover. The child had flu, took a relapse that developed into pneumonia.

Boring and Estacada grade school hoop teams won over Bull Run and Kelso last week at Sandy union high gymnasium. Estacada is ahead so far in the division. Another game is scheduled for this week.

The Bagley family, Kelso, were visited by the stork Friday night, which left a 11-pound boy, the seventh child in the family.

Harry Morton, Zig Zag, fell on a log a few days ago and injured himself so badly he was rushed to the Portland sanitarium and was operated on for hernia within half an hour after he arrived there. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson and daughter were at the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah installation Monday night. The Andersons live near Boring.

J. F. Klapp, who lives on the Strucken place near Boring, injured his thigh badly while clearing, a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sitz had as Sunday dinner guests Rev. F. T. Schoen and family.

Spend Vacation in Mountains
Wallace Smith and A. G. Ames went into the mountains to the former's place on a fishing and hunting expedition the latter part of last week.

Mrs. W. H. Grabeel drove to Oregon City Thursday where she met an old school friend, and then drove to Portland to visit another friend, returning home Friday evening.

BIG FEATURE SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING AT THE LIBERTY THEATRE

Bill Perry, manager of the Liberty Theatre of Estacada, has arranged a special attraction for theatre goers Saturday, when Waring, famous magician, will appear at a matinee at 2:30 and again in the evening, in connection with the regular theatre program.

Waring comes to Estacada highly recommended, and Mr. Perry feels that he has been fortunate in securing this attraction for his patrons.

Those who enjoy real comedy will certainly want to see the feature picture to be shown both at the matinee and in the evening. "Jake, the Plumber," This is said to be one of the funniest pictures ever made, which features Jess DeVorska, the new FBO star.

The theme of the story is based on

SANDY LOCAL NEWS

Robert Beck has been helping Wm. Jocelyn clear about an acre of land. The ground will soon be in shape for its first crop. Beck also does clearing on his own place.

Paddy McKnight and Ed. Boston trapped for two weeks up above Cherryville but got only a couple of skins. They were in the "Shorty" Harris cabin. Paddy knew the late Tex Rickard well in the old Alaskan days.

Dr. and Mrs. Schneider had Mr. and Mrs. Shelley and Joe as their guests Sunday on a trip to see the winter sports at Hood, and the Shelleys were also their luncheon guests.

the adventures of a plumber's helper who is overwhelmed by lofty ambitions as well as the desire to win the love of the girl who lives next door. By a mere accident, Jake, the plumber's helper, rescues a wealthy woman who fainted while driving her automobile. Through this woman, Jake becomes associated with the race track. When a jockey is doped, Jake who has never been on a horse in his life, offers to substitute. He ties himself on the horse with a strap and wins a steeple chase.

The steeple chase, which is one of the high lights of the picture, proved one of the most thrilling race scenes ever flashed on a screen.

DeVorska as Jake, the plumber, has the support of a splendid cast including Ann Brodie and Rose Rosanova, who are well known delineators of mother roles. Both have important parts in this production.

Sharon Lynn, erstwhile musical comedy player, is seen as Jake's sweetheart and gives a very creditable performance.

Other well known motion picture players who appear in the comedy are Carol Holloway, Dolores Brinkman, and John S. King.

In addition to the feature and the magician's act, there is also a good short comedy. This is an unusually good two hours' entertainment, and Mr. Perry has not increased the admission fees.
