

Our Bulletin Service

In co-operation with the county agent, we keep a supply of bulletins covering almost everything of local interest along agricultural, horticultural and floricultural lines.

Bulletins on hand include farm crops, fruits, nuts, flowers, house gardens, soil studies, livestock, poultry, bees, diseases and pests of fruit and livestock, and miscellaneous bulletins.

If we do not have what you need we shall be glad to obtain it for you if possible.

SANDY LOCAL ITEMS

Helen Dahrens has been miserable with an attack of Lumbago, recently.

Miss Gusta Ruther was home over the week end from Monmouth where she is preparing to be a teacher.

Brenton Vedder dropped in at Sandy grade school long enough to say 'hello' Friday while on his way up the mountains for a short outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, proprietors of The Hut, Government Camp, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Dillard French and Mr. and Mrs. Al Esterberg of Pendleton for a few days recently. The Johnson's little boy, Henry Lee, is staying at the Dittert home, Sandy, to have the benefit of Sandy grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Oren Gangor were Sunday dinner guests at the J. W. Dixon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mallicoat, Boring, were up to see the exciting Estacada-Sandy ball games Friday night, and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Allen, also enthusiastic fans, drove down all the way from Brightwood to see the game.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Luther McNulty is a former popular Sandy woman. Mr. McNulty preceeded Mr. Horr as manual training teacher here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper were hosts at a lovely chicken dinner Friday night given in honor of the birthdays of Miss Claire Payn and R. W. Mallery. Besides the above, Mrs. Miller was also a guest.

Harry Morton, Zigzag, who was so badly injured by a fall from a log last week is getting along nicely at the hospital.

Richard Maronay and Bill Dodd went a-skiing and a-sliding at Government Camp again Sunday. R. W. Mallery of Sandy also enjoyed the sport.

The John Sladky family have moved into their pretty new home on the Wall tract near Sandy Lumber Company plant.

Mrs. Viola Denning is spending this week at the home of her son Walter Douglass. She attended the installation of officers at Eagle Creek Grange, Saturday.

Mario Boitano was still confined to the house the first of the week. Mario has had a long siege with the flu.

Sandy fans 'played' fully as hard as the Sandy and Estacada teams at the double header Friday night.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kircher has been very ill but is somewhat better.

Sandy P. T. A. is working out plans for a big educational meeting in March.

Tom Scales drove home from the O. A. C. Friday night, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Johnson have a very handsome new De Sota Lux coupe which they purchased at Gresham from Hessel Bros. Mrs. Miller was a guest of the Johnsons on a trip to Hood Sunday, in the new car, and they also brought her home.

Clair Nolan joined a party of Gresham friends Thursday evening and enjoyed an ice hockey game at Portland.

Miss Eunice Jonsrud is planning to come home next spring and remain at least through the summer.

Mrs. A. Hoernicker is quite sure that a comet went over Sandy recently, as she heard the familiar "swishing" sound that is not akin to a blast. The noise came about 5 o'clock a. m., and the explosion made the house tremble.

Pete Lenz has been trapping up the mountains for a few weeks while his family was at Parkdale.

The Earl Frost family were all in the city over the week end, returning in time for Kathryn to get back to high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sitz were shopping in Sandy Monday.

The recent blanket of snow is reported as being fine for the grain.

Mrs. James Lamper and baby have recently been visiting Mrs. Lamper's mother at Eagle Creek.

Miss Pauline Heacock and Mrs. Teevin of Damascus recently visited Mrs. A. Malar and helped tie two woolen comforts while there.

Miss Edith Shell, who returned from the funeral of her sister at Wallowa, Sunday, took up her classes at the high school Monday.

The three Miller girls of Sandy enjoyed a big time Christmas in Australia, where they attended a big costume dinner party at a large hotel in Sidney. One of the girls wore red, one white and the other blue, to represent the American flag, and they won the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frenz entertained Rev. F. T. Schoen and family at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller was a dinner guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Summers of Swim.
