VIOLA P. T. A. HOLDS INTERESTING MEET

VIOLA, Jan. 31.—(Special)—Viola has a touch of winter just now, with the thermometer registering 22 above and twelve inches of snow on the ground and it is still falling.

The P. T. A. met at the church Friday evening and there was a large crowd and a fine program was enjoyed of songs, music and readings. Mrs. Nelson, the school teacher, was present and told what was needed for the good of the school. A number of improvements are to be made in the building.

Mrs. John Mattox made a business trip to Marshfield a few days ago. Miss Jaret Hamilton, who is a student in Grant high school in Portland, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton.

The P. T. A. is considering having a spelling contest. Anyone thinking he can spell better than Joe McComb is invited to come along and try it.

The cream wagon from Logan, the meat wagon from Estacada and the faithful mail carrier were all on time Tuesday, despite the heavy snow.

John Mattox, Walter Brewster and Bill Pelkey have gone into partnership in the mill business, having purchased an outfit over at Corvallis. They expect to go over there Monday. They are all good mill men, and their friends wish them good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Conrow had their daughter Opal from Portland visiting them the past two weeks.

The Elliott mill has shut down until the weather improves.

Guests of Weingarts

Mrs. Ruth Baker and daughter and son of Portland, who entertained at the Legion banquet Friday night, were guests at the Weingart home while in Estacada.

Morns for Lost Dog

The Wm. Cary family of Estacada are grieved over the loss of their dog, Terry. He came down to the post office with Phyllis Friday and has not been seen since. He is a black and white, long-haired dog and generally not very friendly with strangers. He was never known to go away from home before.

SANDY LOCAL ITEMS

Christina Dunsmuir, Sandy grade, has received her final writing certificate which gives her exemption from examination. Her grade was 95.

Stella Stout and Rosa Funk are entitled to improvement certificates.

Ed Flatau was in town Friday and renewed his subscription to the Clackamas County News on the club plan with the Portland News.

Mrs. J. T. McIntyre, Brightwood, was unable to attend the pioneer meeting Sunday and read a paper concerning the early history of her father, a pioneer of this section, because her husband was in bed with the flu.

PROGRAM PLANNED FEB. 16, AT ELWOOD

ELWOOD, Jan. 31.—(Special)—The entertainment committee of the P. T. A. met Saturday p. m., at the school house to arrange for the Valentine program to be given February 16. The sale of a cafeteria supper will be a feature of the evening's entertainment.

W. Jones gave a farewell dance at the Baker hall January 16. J. Lewellen played the merry tunes.

William Bittner made a business trip to Sandy Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Wilson were calling at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Otis Vallen, Friday evening.

Mrs. Martha Henderson was on the sick list last week, but is feeling fairly well again. Her sister, Mrs. Matilda Surfus, stayed with her during her illness.

After taking the mid-term examinations in the Franklin high school in Portland, Orel Vallen came out Wednesday evening to spend the remainder of the week with his mother on the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Park visited at the C. Bittner home Tuesday evening. Lillian Schumacher was a guest of Mrs. Moeheke over the week end.

Prof. J. Grimes of Berkeley, Cal., spent the week end at the home of his brother-in-law, Dan Stahlnecker. Mr. Stahlnecker and the boys helped him repair his car for a trip to Eastern Oregon.

L. M. Cox had the new license plates stolen from his car, which was parked near the mill where he works in Oregon City, last week.

The school directors had a sink installed in the cloak room of the school building Saturday, which is a much-appreciated convenience.
