Mrs. T. Ahlberg has a bridge luncheon at her home this Friday afternoon. The club is composed of eight ladies.

A. G. Ames was unsuccessful in his search for the lost Airedale dog up in the mountains last week. He says he saw dog tracks but not near the cabin. Evidently the dog starved as he was muzzled. The dog belonged to Wallace Smith and was a valuable one.

"WINGS" ATTRACTION AT LIBERTY SUNDAY

All those who are interested in high courage, the bravery of unselfish and unheeding youth, the splendour of youthful sacrifice and beauty of human comradeship should go to see "Wings" at the Liberty Theatre, Estacada, Sunday, Monday or Tuesday, next. It is a film setting forth the work of the young knights of the clouds in the war. But it is far more than a film. It is an epic of fearless young manhood, a paean of tribute to the airmen "whose wings are folded forever"—as a beautiful phase of dedication says,—and it is also an amazing example of what can be achieved in the air. How this picture ever came to be made passes understanding. It is no combination of trickery and models, but a realistic visualization of real people riding the clouds and triumphing over the dawn.

The story is one of genuine drama, rich with the finest qualities that lie at the basis of the friendships of youth, and touched with infinite beauty of romance, which runs thru it like a silver thread in a purple pall. For it is also essentially a picture of war, of sacrifice, of stern conflict, of the ultimate test of human endurance and human conquest over fear. Those who have no knowledge of aviation—and they constitute the very great majority of theatergoers as of the general public—will marvel at the astounding scenes and sights presented upon the screen—scenes which are amplified by mechanical methods until at times it almost seems as if you were part and parcel of the vivid drama you are beholding.

To make you understand about this wonderful production in print is an impossibility. Many local people have seen the picture, and they want to see it again. Don't miss this opportunity to view the greatest picture of all time. Just three days, at the Liberty, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 24, 25 and 26.

Down From Three Links

Mrs. Dale Kelly came down from Three Links Wednesday morning with her little daughter and was a guest at the W. Weingart home until the next day. She assisted with the special program given by the American Legion Auxiliary at the Liberty on Wednesday evening, by rendering a vocal solo.

"THE BIGGEST ONE YET"

"WINGS"

With Clara Bow, Charles Rogers, Richard Arlen and Gary Cooper.

Many local people saw this wonderful production at the Broadway a few weeks ago, and are unanimous in proclaiming it the greatest picture ever made

"Exultantly, he swooped down on the wrecked enemy plane. Boastfully he stooped to snatch its tattered insignia from the wing. And then he recoiled in terror. He had shot down his best friend." An epic picture of the American war "ace" in France.
