

GARFIELD

GARFIELD, Feb. 28.—(Special).—The Garfield P. T. A. entertainment and social at the school house was a decided success. The entire program was greatly enjoyed by the large attendance. Following the program, A. C. Anderson in the capacity of auctioneer sold the pies, realizing the sum of $16 for the P. T. A. treasury.

Portland folks attending the P. T. A. entertainment and pie social were Mrs. Stewart Harryman, Mr. and Mrs. Tabor and daughter Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cloud and children Beryl and Harlin.

Mrs. Hale and daughter, Mrs. Porter of Yakima, Wash., arrived Saturday for an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dillinger. Mrs. Hale is a sister of Mrs. Dillinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Boylan entertained at their home on Sunday the parents of Mrs. Boylan, Mr. and Mrs. O. Olsen and a brother and sister, all of Silverton; also a brother and his family from Portland.

In honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter, Laurel Belle Hunt, Mrs. Howard Hunt entertained on Thursday, Feb. 21, for a number of little folks. A dainty lunch was served, games were enjoyed following the lunch. Present were the Misses Luella and Frances Springer, Rozann Moreland, Laurel Belle Hunt and Howard Hunt, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coe of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dillinger.

Mrs. Albert Cloud and children, Beryl and Harlin, were week end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schunke.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hefford and son Franklin of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schunke.

Dr. J. L. Hewitt of Portland is having the house on his ranch remodeled and he expects to spend most of his time on the ranch the coming summer.

Many of the farmers have started their spring plowing, although the soil is yet too wet for extensive cultivation.

Miss Vivian Buser, who is attending school in Portland, was visiting her parents over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Byers of Ridgefield, Wash., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Springer.

Bert Roddy from Tennessee will lead the Christian Endeavor at the Nora Memorial church next Sunday evening. The subject will be "Recruiting for Christ." Members will come prepared to answer roll call in the usual way. Everybody welcome.

The Garfield union Sunday school which meets every Sunday morning at 11 a. m., is asking for the co-operation of everyone in the community in making the Sunday school a success. Heretofore the attendance has not been what could be expected. "The Christian Church" is the lesson subject for next Sunday. Everyone should be interested. Come out and help us!

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

UPPER EAGLE CREEK, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Mrs. Linnie Gibson is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass this week. Mrs. Gibson has rented her farm to Mr. Douglass and resides in Portland, but expects to be out during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children went to Schuebel Sunday to help celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Douglass' mother. They all went to the home of Albert Mink, a brother, for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duus of Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and Mrs. Linnie Gibson were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister.

The Eagle Creek Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Douglass. During the business sessions officers of the organization for the coming year were elected, as follows: Mrs. Roy Douglass, president; Mrs. Homer Glover, vice president; Mrs. A. C. Cogswell, secretary; Mrs. May Munger, treasurer. Twenty-three ladies were present. Refreshments consisted of chocolate, coffee, sandwiches and cookies.

Roy Douglass delivered a truck load of oats Tuesday to William Fischer of Sandy.

H. S. Gibson butchered a fine veal Tuesday which he took to Estacada and sold to the Estacada Meat Co.

Robert Stevens was acquitted of a charge of punching Thomas Riordan's nose when he testified that Riordan had called Mrs. Stevens "a rotten crook."

COLTON-CEDAR DALE

COLTON, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Seventy-five friends and relatives surprised George Williams Saturday evening by calling to help him celebrate his birthday. After dancing for several hours a delicious lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gottberg and Mrs. Algie Gottberg and three children of Oregon City spent Sunday at the Walter Gorbett home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brown are the parents of an 8½ pound boy born February 5, at the Oregon City hospital.

N. P. Johnson and Arthur Orem are cutting wood on shares on the former's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Williams and Percy Williams of Longview, Wash., spent the week end at the home of the boys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Williams.

Mrs. Alta Murphy and children visited at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. W. M. Wells of Mulino, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Apperson of Portland spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Clark. The James sawmill, which was shut down for several weeks on account of the cold weather, started up the first of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Orem of Molalla visited at the home of Mrs. Orem's mother, Mrs. Ella Mallott, Sunday.

Delbert Fischer has been hauling gravel from the steel bridge rock crusher to the Wallace hill. Several of the men who live along this road have been working on the road.

Miss Meryle Burnett left recently for Los Angeles where she is taking dancing lessons.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Fischer and daughter and Lola Gorbett visited at the H. Garness home in Canby one day last week.

Phillip Hult, who spent a few days in Colton last week, returned to Scottsburg where a bridge is being built.

BORING

BORING, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Mrs. Hazel Rich of Boring was the chairman of the two-day Rebekah convention at Portland last week.

Billy Child is working at Columbia slough while the tie docks are idle. Child is helping Mr. Spada, who recently moved from the Vetsch farm, to get settled.

Little Doris Metzger, who was taken to a city hospital with mastoid trouble, is improving and may not require an operation.

Mrs. Root is reported as considerably better.

Mrs. L. E. Child, who has been visiting a week, has returned home.

GEORGE

GEORGE, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Washington's birthday was observed in the school last Friday, combined with the P. T. A. program. Rev. C. T. Cook, pastor of the Methodist church of Estacada, gave a talk for the benefit of parents and children. A fine lunch was served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Held drove to Hillsboro last Sunday to visit Mr. Held's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weisner and other relatives.

Harold Joyner and C. A. Johnson made a business trip to Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horger and son of Barton visited Mrs. Horger's mother, Mrs. Marie Klinker and family Sunday. Mrs. Klinker accompanied them home for a visit of several days.

Mrs. R. S. Chaney and Mrs. C. A. Chaney called on Mrs. Julius Paulsen last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Larson and children motored to Portland Friday, returning home on Saturday.

Julius Paulsen sold a registered Jersey bull to George Lawrence & Son of Springwater, last week.

Here and There

At a dinner celebrating the 104th birthday of Juniper Barnett, at Norwich, Eng., four nephews were present, aged 74, 76, 77 and 80 years.

Frederick Gelsen, of Berlin, admitted forgery when experts proved that ink on a will he claimed to be 15 years old was actually made since 1919.

Mlle. Lucille Preleuve, a wealthy spinster who disappeared from her fine chateau near Lyons, France, three years ago, has been found working as a cook in Paris.

SPRINGWATER

SPRINGWATER, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Mrs. Peter Erickson was hostess at a shower Wednesday afternoon given in honor of her granddaughter, Mrs. Gene Kiggins (Evelyn Aycock) a recent bride. Many lovely and useful articles were received. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and the bride's mother, Mrs. Ed Aycock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. Moger. Seven members were present and the afternoon was spent sewing carpet rags for rugs to be sold later, probably at the Aid booth during the Springwater Fair this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strunk were very pleasantly surprised last week when a cousin, Mr. Strunk and family from Montana, whom he had not seen for nearly thirty years, and his brother David Strunk of Mill Plain, Wash., visited them for several days.

Henry Cromer, district roadmaster, has been out with a crew of several men mending ditches and holes caused by the recent snow and freezing weather.

Miss Madden, who has been staying with Mrs. Byron Cogswell for the last three weeks, returned to her home Tuesday. Miss Cogswell is now able to walk with the aid of one crutch.

Mrs. Joe Guttridge, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vanhoy and Mrs. R. Hansen were shopping in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Erickson returned to their home here after nearly a year at Bend where Mr. Erickson has been working in a mill. They visited relatives of Mr. Erickson in The Dalles for a few days on the way home.

Ruth Guttridge, whose tenth birthday occurred Wednesday, February 20, celebrated the occasion with a party on Saturday. Ten little girl friends presented her with gifts and helped enjoy the birthday cake and goodies served by her mother.

Miss Young was a supper guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hull Thursday.

Mr. Kneisda and Sam Spitzer went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vanhoy are moving to Oregon City and will be greatly missed by their many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bard of Forest Grove visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bard over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Piepke of Molalla are visiting at the R. Hansen home for a few days this week. Mrs. Piepke and Mrs. Hansen called on Mrs. Peter Erickson Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Howell spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shibley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Erickson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Erickson and family of Portland spent Sunday at the Ed Aycock home.

Miss Ethyl Young, principal of the Springwater school, spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cogswell visited relatives in Portland Sunday. Dinner guests at the Peterson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Erickson.

Marion Millard of Portland was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Moger Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Guttridge had as guests Sunday Mrs. Guttridge's brother and family, Carl Vucher of St. Johns, and an uncle from Gresham, John Schenk and his daughter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Cogswell of Eagle Creek called on Miss Madden Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kiggins are moving up the river to the P. E. P. company intake where Mr. Kiggins is taking over the work for a year.

Saturday, March 9, is the date of the next Grange meeting. Members are urged to attend and each are asked to give some helpful hint on poultry raising in response to roll call. Mrs. Horner will also give a report on her trip to Corvallis.

BULL RUN

BULL RUN, Feb. 28.—(Special).—Walter Helms lost his left eye Saturday at the flume. While getting centers to line up bents, in some way the point of the sharp plumb bob struck Walter in the eye. Helms is sub-boss at the new flume.

A large crowd from Bull Run attended the Sandy Women's club party last week and carried off two of the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinger entertained recently with a lovely dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Oren Ganger and Bobby, Robert Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Klinger and two children.

An attractive Washington birthday program was given at the school house Friday morning, the parents and friends attending.

HEMSTITCHING

6 and 8 cents per yard

Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention.

Mrs. Roy H. Gibbs

Main St., second house north Section Line

Phone 3706 Gresham, Ore.

"A STITCH IN TIME --- SAVES NINE"

TRADE HERE FOR CASH SAVINGS

Stidd's - TAMALES - Stidd's
Two Cans for45¢

FIG BARS
Fresh and Crisp
Two pounds25¢

PINEAPPLE
2½ size
Two cans for43¢

FREE SAMPLES OF FOLEY'S REMEDIES
and Family Almanac, FREE

SOAP—NO-RUB NAPHTHA
Hot, cold, hard or soft water
Six bars for25¢

TAMALE PUDDING

1 Can Stidd's Tamales

1 Can of Corn

One-half Cup of Milk

1 Egg; 1 Teaspoon Salt

1 Tablespoon Butter

1 Tablespoon Flour

Melt butter, stir in flour until well mixed, not browned; add corn, milk and beaten egg, salt and Stidd's Tamales. Mix all thoroughly and put in casserole or pan and bake for 20 minutes.

THIS IS SERVED AS A MEAT DISH

Yellow CORN, Sweet
Two cans for35¢

OYSTERS—Otter Brand
Large Whole Oysters
Two cans for33¢

SALMON
Rosedale Brand
Two cans for45¢

QUILT PATCHES
Just a few left, to go at
Per Roll59¢

Pure JAM Fruit
Gallon Tins
Each, only93¢

We thank our friends for the new customers they are sending us

Eagle Creek Trading Co.

THE BIG WHITE STORE

EAGLE CREEK, OREGON

LIBERTY THEATRE

Thursday, February 28; Friday, March 1—
NORMA SHEARER in—
"THE ACTRESS"

With Ralph Forbes and Owen Moore. Here's a thrilling revelation of the ups and downs of life back of the footlights. Made from Piner's stage classic; and is now a film vehicle which fits Miss Shearer perfectly. Comedy, "THE FINISHING TOUCH."

Saturday night (only) March 2—
Bessie Love in
"SALLY OF THE SCANDALS"

The show that explains why girls leave home for Broadway. Comedy, Mickey McGuire (Himself) in "Mickey's Triumph."

Sunday and Monday, March 3 and 4—
Zane Grey's Greatest Story—
"THE WATER HOLE"

With Jack Holt and Nancy Carroll. Where the West begins, there is romance, and danger. Magnificent scenic backgrounds, reproduced in natural colors. Comedy, "Bulloney," and News.

Wednesday night (only) March 6—
Lili Damita, the new European sensation in—
"FORBIDDEN LOVE"

She was a queen and loved a man of menial blood. What could she do? See this superb screen drama and find out. Comedy, "Pride of Pikerville."

Thursday, Friday, March 7 and 8—
Lewis Stone and Mercelene Day in Peter B. Kyne's sensational newspaper story—
"FREEDOM OF THE PRESS"

When gangsters tried to muzzle the free press, they precipitated the greatest battle of wits and crime in the history of the fourth estate. Comedy, "Watch the Birdie."

Admission: Adults, 25c; Children under 14, 10c

FREE VOTE COUPON
Good for 150 Credits

Name of Candidate.....
This coupon, when neatly clipped from the paper, will be counted the same as earned credits for candidate whose name appears above, if presented to The Clackamas County News, at Sandy or Estacada, on or before Wednesday, March 6.

CUTS MORE SLICES
TO THE LOAF

An ideal slice-size for toasting, sandwiches and children's between meal snacks.
ECONOMICAL FOR LARGE FAMILIES
The same Holsum quality that won the Harry M. Freer Trophy the second time in two years. The same price as the regular large loaf.
Sold at Your Favorite HOLSUM Grocery and Restaurants in Estacada and LONGLOAF Vicinity.
Nearest member of the Holsum family