Cottrell, March 21.—(Special)— Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judkins had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. J.
A. Caldo and William Caldo. The Judkins also had a pleasant visit last week from Mr. Judkins' nephew, Joseph Forrest, of Janesville, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins had as Saturday afternoon guests Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farmer, of Portland.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs.
H. H. Watkins, Virginia and Dorothy, and the Ray Wilkinsons all drove to near Oregon City, to see Mrs. Simmons.

Mrs. E. E. VanFleet is much pleased over the handsome window she donated to the Pleasant Home church, in memory of her late husband.

A party was given at the new W.
H. Breen home Monday night, for Mrs. Breen's sister, who is going away.

Adolph Blooms, of Carlinville, Ill., has completed his 26th year as rural mail carrier and has traveled more than 208,000 miles.

SPRINGWATER

Springwater, March 21.—(Special)— Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cogswell and Miss Madden, while on their way to Portland, Sunday, went by Gresham and stopped for a short visit with Mrs. Jesse Hobson. She likes her new home very much and is enjoying good health.

The Neighborly Club met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carroll Howell, with 23 members present.
Everyone had a good time. Refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Floyd Hoyt, Mrs.
Bryon Mddre, Mrs. Andrew Swanson and Mrs. John Marshall.

Earl Closser left on Friday for Antelope, Ore., where he will work on a ranch for his aunt, Mrs. Rose Wilcox.

Children who were out of school recently for several days on account of sickness were Clinton Smith, Cathlene Horner, Edward Shearer, Ray Julian and Jean Closser. They were all able to be present again on Monday.

William Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shearer, is home from his school at Albany, for a short vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shibley and family visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday, with Mrs. Shibley's parents Mr. and Mrs. Smedley.

James Guttridge, who is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, is improving rapidly and, although still very weak, the doctor reports that he will soon be able to come home. Mr. Guttridge recently had his left arm amputated, as the result of a shot gun wound in the upper arm.

The farmers are all taking advantage of the good weather to get their grain in and most of them here are nearly finished.

Mrs. Robert Guttridge's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Walker from Portland, visited here Sunday.

A short program by the children is being planned for Easter Sunday and will be given in the morning at the regular Sunday school hour.

Rev. Hollensted, the newly appointed minister, will be here to hold services the first Sunday in April, which falls on the 7th.

Mr. House, who is logging off the timber on the John Marshall place, had the misfortune to have his truck wrecked by a collision with some company machinery on the River road recently, which has delayed his work here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Closser, who have been visiting relatives here for the past week, left on Saturday for Carroll, Wash., where they have been living since last fall.

Mrs. Bryon Moore and family and John Park and family visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M.
Park.

Callers at the J. F. Moger home on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs.
Ed Shearer and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, of Viola.

GARFIELD

Garfield, March 21.—(Special)— Mrs. B. N. Bower and children, of Corvallis, were week-end visitors at the home of her uncle, John Ayers.

Arnold Anders is convalescing at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, following an operation for ap-
morning for a visit with him.

The program put on at the grange hall by the Christian Endeavor was well attended, each number receiving hearty applause. The hall could have accommodated a much larger attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anders, of Stayton, visited with relatives and friends here over the week-end.

The board of directors of Garfield school district, No. 12, at a meeting held March 14, decided to retain the present teacher, Mr. Stewart Harry-man, for the next school term. Mr.
Haryman was highly commended by the board for the excellent work done during the past six months of school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schunke attended the educational rally and institute at Sandy last Saturday.

Dr. R. P. Landis, of Portland, visited his prune ranch here last Sunday and authorized numerous improvements. Spencer Lawshe is in charge of the ranch.

A community gathering is planned for May 25, at the grange hall. According to announcements the meet promises to be an outstanding event of the season. All clubs and societies together with three school districts—Tracy, Porter and Garfield, will participate. The committee in charge will decide on a definite program for the occasion within another week.
Keep the date in mind and watch for further announcements.

William Shafer is convalescing at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. A.

D. Kern, in Portland, following an operation, and hopes to be able to return to his home in a few days.

Mrs. L. Miller, Mrs. H. Als and Mrs. E. Tracy, all of Portland, were guests at the Earl Tracy home Sunday.

The county court has authorized the installation of new bins at the Rock quarry and the work is now under way.

Fred Davis, who has been ill in the Gresham hospital, was taken to Ver-nonia by his son.

Rev. William Schunke, of Portland, is on an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schunke. Mr. Schunke is A. W.'s father.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Willis, of Ver-nonia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. G.
O. Botkin for a few days this week.

ELWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bittner and daughter, Elenore, of Bull Run, spent the week-end at the Chris Bittner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mebes, of Mulino, visited at the homes of Matt Jag-min and Mrs. Moehnke last week.

Wallie Moehnke did some repair work at the church last Thursday.

Levi Kellas, of Scott's Mills, was in this vicinity last week, looking over some timber, intending to buy if price and location was suitable for a mill.

Prof. Grimes and Mrs. Elva Krause of Wilsonville, were guests at the Dan Stahlnecker home on Friday.

Otis Vallen and Henry Cadonan made a trip to Portland Friday.

Dan Stahlnecker and sons are getting out posts for an increased acreage in their hop yard.

Donald Nelson bought some pure bred Buff Leghorns of W. Jones last week.

Lillian Shumacher went to her home in Portland over the week-end, walking as far as the Dodge road, as her brother finds the Clear Creek highway too much of a risk to one who is not accustomed to its ins and outs and ups and downs.

Byron Hoarde, of Seattle, was a Sunday guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards, daughter Amy, and Reba Spittler motored to Portland Thursday, to attend the funeral of Amy's cousin.

Willie Bittner made a trip to Toledo last week, to bring his father and uncle home. They have been employed there for some months past in the erection of the spool mill being installed by Frank Bittner.

VIOLA

Ralph Bateson, Ernest Evenson and Lloyd Hinkle, who are working at the Potter Mill at Moffitt, Wash., spent the week-end here with relatives.

On Monday, Walter Bateson helped haul the machinery for the new sawmill here. He had to go beyond Forest Grove for it. Mr. Mayer hauled the other load. They are going right ahead now to put the mill in running order.

Charlie Hicinbotham is cutting timber here for the new sawmill. There will be quite a number of men employed.

Bob Mattoon is still taking treatment in the Veterans' hospital, Portland.

Miss Ruth Whitfield is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Mattoon.
She has improved in health but will have to go to Portland to take a few more treatments from her doctor.

William Hicinbotham and family came from Stevenson Saturday to spend the week-end at the home of H. Sevier.

On Sunday, Mrs. M. L. Sevier celebrated her 70th birthday. Those present for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Hicinbotham and daughter, Esther; Mrs. Mildred Burlingame with her husband, James; Mr. and Mrs.
Charlie Hicinbotham, son Leslie and daughter Alice, and her son, Duane McGraw and Mrs. E. McGraw.

J. H. Sevier has been quite poorly lately, with la grippe.

Elden Lankin, of Gresham, is working at the Elliott mill here and is boarding at the home of Mrs. Emery Powers.

Miss Annie Bateson spent Monday with Mrs. E. Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burlingame called on Miss Bernice Miller Sunday afternoon. The ladies were schoolmates in the Viola school.

The tunnel being planned from the Detroit river to the Rouge plant of the Ford Motor Company will permit 1,000,000,000 gallons of water to flow into the power house of the Ford plant daily.

COLTON

Colton, March 21.—(Special)— Mrs. Alice Nelson and Grandpa Lundstrom, of Newberg, visited at the M. C. Lundstrom home Friday.

The high school students gave a program Friday afternoon in honor of St. Patrick's day. Slides on Shakespeare and of the English Lakes district were shown on the screen and Scotch songs were sung by the pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lindbeck left Monday for Burlingame, Cal. A sister of Mrs. Lindbeck lives there, also a brother of Mr. Lindbeck. They expect to spend a year there.

Martin Berglund took Frances Gross, Frances Lafferty and his sister, Ruth Berglund, to Oregon City to attend the Older Girls' conference, which was held there Friday afternoon.

land Saturday evening, spending Sunday with her Aunt Esther Hult.

Mrs. Anna Froling, of Portland, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with the J. E. Nordlings.

Rev. Enoch Sandeen and Mrs. San-deen, also Mrs. Ayers, sister of Mrs.
Sandeen, called at the Esther Hult home Thursday, remaining over the night. Rev. Sandeen was formerly pastor of the Colton Lutheran church but is now pastor of the Lutheran church at Gresham.

Mr. Joe Nordling spent Sunday with his family. He works at the Torkelson garage in Portland.

Mrs. Peter Jensen and children, of Needy, called on her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hunter, Saturday evening.

A silver tea was held at the home of Mrs. Emile Swanson last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Druse has gone to Yakima for a few days' visit.

Mrs. C. A. Branland spent the past week in Portland, visiting with friends.

Alfred Anderson and daughters, Valborg and Elinor, visited friends at Troutdale over the week-end.

Clarence Lundgren and Waldo Petersen spent the week-end in Colton, returning to Oregon City Sunday evening. They are employed in the paper mills there.

Ole Frigaard is home from the University of Oregon to spend the spring vacation.

A play, "Headstrong Joan," under the auspices of the Meadow Brook Literary Club, will be presented in the near future at the Colton high school. Judging from the ability displayed in a play given by the club last year, and from reports on the recent showing, this will be good, so watch for the date.

Valdemar Danielson left for Stockton, Cal., Monday evening. He is making the trip in the interests of his father's business.

BORING

Boring, March 21.—(Special)— Practicing is well under way for the Easter program at the Boring church.

The Orient Campfire Girls' play at Orient was such a big success Saturday night, they are talking of trying to arrange to put it on at Boring.

Principal L. H. Mallicoat, Miss Edith Anderson, Mrs. Lund and a number of others from Boring attended the big educational rally at Sandy on Saturday.
