BULL RUN

Bull Run, March 21.—(Special)—George Ten Eyck, who has been in the Veterans' hospital for three weeks, the result of tonsillitis, is expected home this week.

Mrs. A. H. Woodcock is an alternate delegate from Sandy grange to the State grange, and may attend whether Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas go or not.

Oren Ganger and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Regnar Staffenson, of the head works, Friday, and remained to spend the evening.

Mrs. L. Haneberg was hostess for a shower for Mrs. Erol Reece Wednesday, about 20 being present. The affair was sponsored by the Campfire Girls. Lovely gifts were brought and very delicious refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Ganger, Bobby and Robert Moore were dinner guests at the J. W. Dixon home Sunday. In the afternoon the Dixons and Gangers drove over to the fish hatchery, near Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray and babies were guests at the Ralph Ganger home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Walter Helms, who was operated on at the Good Samaritan hospital last week, for appendicitis, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sidell and baby went to Monmouth to spend the week-end with Mrs. Sidell's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinger had as Saturday night and Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Springer, of Portland.

UPPER LOGAN

Upper Logan, March 21.—(Special).—The grange "500" card party and dance was attended by a nice crowd Saturday, March 16. Six tables of cards were enjoyed and a lovely lunch was served at 11:30 by the Home Economics committee of the grange. Dancing was to the music of an accordion, violin and piano. The net proceeds are to go towards the costumes used in initiation work. Prizes won for high score were given Mrs. Jim Fullem and S. G. Kirchem. Recipients of consolation prizes were Mrs. Henry Babler and Jonas Cromer.

Flax seeding time will soon be here. E. S. Cromer made another trip for flax seed Monday for the farmers.

Bill Marlow left Friday to work in a logging camp at Ryderwood, Wash., where the Long-Bell Lumber Company has sawmills.

Oscar Bouck, Marion, Ore., drove up Friday of last week to secure seed oats of George Tracy. While here he attended the grange card party and dance. He also visited at the Charley Tracey, George Tracy and John Arnold homes. Mr. Bouck, who is a brother of Mrs. George Tracy and Mrs. Arnold, is engaged in farming at Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson and family have been quite ill with the flu and it became necessary to call Dr. W. W. Gilbert, of Estacada.

Art Youngberg is now cutting wood on the S. G. Kerchem place. E. S. Cromer has just had his filling station painted in white, trimmed with blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tschopp are rejoicing over the arrival of a new grandson. Mr. and Mrs. John Tschopp are the proud parents of a 9-lb. boy, born on Friday. Mrs. Tschopp has been helping at her son's home while making a visit with them.

Maurice Priester, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Priester, is working in a hotel in Phoenix, Ariz., and seems to like his location and occupation very much.

Mrs. Ralph Tracy attended a birthday party in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Marlow, in Portland, on Saturday.

Junior Orr Has Party

G. D. Orr, Jr., had a birthday party Sunday. Though only seven, George is finishing the second grade. Several of the little friends invited could not come. Those present were: Bobby and Lester Bruns, Philip Jonstrup, Freddy Young, Joe Shelley, John, Paul and Eugene Orr. Refreshments were served and Mr. Orr took the group into the woods to give them a lesson on nature study of plants, birds and animals.

Beers, of Sandy, Rents Farms

The Harry Bickford farm has been rented to E. H. Keep, who has taken possession. Mr. and Mrs. Keep are the parents of Mrs. A. H. Woodcock. The Mrs. Maybee place, Firwood, is rented to Frank Freeman, Portland, and the John Roberts farm to a family from Washington. George Beers is handling the above rentals.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Thursday and Friday, March 21 and 22—
Lon Chaney in
"WEST OF ZANZIBAR"
One of Chaney's most weird and fantastic pictures; showing the ceremonies of hoodoo worshippers of the jungles of Africa. Comedy, "Is Everybody Happy?"

Friday Night only, March 22—
Bob Webster and Dolly Daye in person, in a novelty act—and see them in their latest picture—
A story of the lumber camps of South Dakota. Comedy.—
"BLACK HILLS"
"So Your Monk."

Saturday night only, March 23—
Bob Steele in—
"THE BANDIT'S SON"
A Western with a new touch—real characters, quaint, lovable—a drama of hearts in which a riding, fighting, tearing, young son of the range pounds his way to love and honor. Don't miss it! Comedy, "Sweeties."

Sunday and Monday, March 24 and 25—
Esther Ralston in—
"THE SAWDUST PARADISE"
She dances the dance of death, she sings the song of life;—scintillating, fascinating, desirable; swiftly she weaves the web of destruction, and then—regeneration. A drama of lights and shadows. Comedy, "Reel Life."

Wednesday night only, March 27—
Special baseball benefit show, to help the boys raise money for new uniforms—Laura La Plante in—
"HOME JAMES"

She has a bag of tricks that get her out of any kind of a jam and she gets in some mighty tight ones in this howling comedy-drama. By all means see the screen's greatest comedienne in the big louve-laugh special. Comedy, "Shooting the Bull."
(No Show Thursday Night, March 28)

Admission: Adults, 25c; Children under 14, 10c

On Its Way— But Where?

What is the fate of this little fellow? Will it be added to the large heap of mortalities or will it retain its vitality and become a profitable producer.

During the chick season the poultryman is called upon for the best of his ability. At no other time of the year does he have so much at stake. Many things enter into chick losses, so many, in fact, that it is sometimes difficult to place the blame accurately. Overcrowding, overheating, chilling, poor ventilation and, more important, improper feeding, all take their toll. Fisher's Chick Mash contains the necessary digestible proteins, minerals and vitamins for safe, rapid development. These feeds are the choice of bookkeeping poultrymen.

FISHER'S 1929 FEEDING SCHEDULE
If you do not already have a copy, write for our 1929 Simplified Chick Feeding Schedule. It gives complete instructions for feeding and caring for your chicks and explains Fisher's Save Time Chick Mash. Fisher Flouring Mills Company, Seattle.
