The party who maliciously removed the lily in the front yard of Mrs. Thos. Carter's residence just being completed, is known, and from the appearance of the lily, with its drooping branches, where it was transplanted, it surely will not survive. Would advise this party to return the lily where they found it. —Adv. 1t

CHURCHES

Estacada Methodist

The world is skeptical upon the subject of character. It believes that man will be very much as he has been. It has little hope of him turning out to be a saint, or exhibiting any great degree of holiness. If the possibility rests with his own personal resources, the world's skepticism is justified enough, but it does not. It rests with God. God's power is never exhibited more really than in his conversion of character. He can lay hold of man and transform him. The gospel is the most hopeful message in the world, and the most needed message, for it never suffers man to acquiesce in his condition, or allow him to despair. "Man's extremity is God's opportunity." Where all else has failed God can appeal to the motive of love and win man's response by the exhibition of His own love. "Oh, 'twas love; 'twas wondrous love! The love of God to me; It brought my Savior from above, To die on Calvary."

Your attention is called to the subject for next Sunday. The morning theme at 11 o'clock will be "The Man and His World." In the evening at 8 o'clock (note the change in the hour) the theme will be "The King of Glory." The Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock in the morning and is a very busy place for one hour's time. The Epworth League meets at 7:15 in the evening. An urgent invitation is extended to any who will worship with us.—C. T. Cook, pastor.

Sandy Lutheran

As the flowers follow the sun and silently hold up their petals to be tinted and enlarged by its shining, so must we, if we should know the joy of God, hold our souls, wills, hearts and minds, still before Him whose voice commands, whose love warms, whose truth makes fair our whole being. God speaks for the most part in such silence only. If the soul be full of tumult and jangling voices, His voice is little likely to be heard. God's love, grace, goodness and mercy is the spiritual dew that falls from heaven, refreshing and reviving the parched soul.

Should man alone, God's foremost creature, be so vile as not to raise his head in faith, devotion and worship toward his Creator?

English services next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. You are welcome to worship with us.—F. T. Schoen, pastor.

Estacada Christian

Perhaps one of the most interesting incidents recorded in the Old Testament is the one chosen for the Bible school Sunday. Manasseh, one of the most corrupt kings possible, had been on the throne of Judah for 55 years. The worship of Jehovah had ceased and the temple was allowed to fall into ruin. He was not only idolatrous himself, but he led the people into the most hideous and licentious idolatry possible to believe of any nation. He was followed on the throne by his young grandson, Josiah, who proved to be one of the best kings to sit upon the throne of Judah. His big job, of course, was to undo the wrongs committed by his grandfather. One of his first acts was to thoroughly renovate and repair the temple that the service of Jehovah might be restored as it was in the days of David and Solomon, but the book of the law of Jehovah was lost.

While they were cleaning out the debris that fairly filled the temple Hilkiah, the high priest, found something of tremendous importance and interest to the king. The subject of the lesson for Sunday is "What Hilkiah Found in the Temple." What was it? This question will be answered Sunday morning. Come, you will be interested in what was found in the temple.

The sermon theme for the 11 a. m. message will be "The Government and Character of Jehovah."

The Christian Endeavorers will migrate to Gladstone to visit the C. E. there Sunday evening, and also to hear Evangelist Teddy W. Leavitt, who is holding evangelistic services at the Christian church. The young people will gather at the church and leave for Gladstone at 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Transportation facilities have been provided for all who wish to go.—Hugh Foster, pastor.

Presbyterian Churches

"The United Protestant Church of America—Coming Christianity's New Day" will be the theme for the sermons Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Springfield, 3 p. m. at George and at 8 p. m. at Eagle Creek.—Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Linn went to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Linn's brother, Roy, who was obliged to return to the hospital for treatments.
