

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

VOLUME XXIII

ESTACADA-SANDY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1929

NUMBER 32

LEGION AUXILIARY TO SPONSOR POPPY SALE

PRIZES AWARDED FOR ESSAYS IN WHICH LOCAL SCHOOL CHILDREN COMPETE

One thousand poppies have been prepared by the Carl Douglas unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, and will be sold by the members of the organization, starting May 15. The poppies are made by patients in Veterans Hospital No. 77 of Portland, and the funds derived from the sale will be used to care for families of veterans who are in need of financial aid.

The sale, starting next Monday, will continue until Memorial day, and an appeal is made by the ladies to all to lend their aid in this undertaking. The poppy sale was successful last year, and a larger quota has been set for 1929.

The poppy essay contest sponsored by the Auxiliary for the pupils of the grade schools of Estacada and neighboring districts, came to a close last week, four schools competing. A large number of papers came in from Currinsville, Springwater, Estacada and Dodge. The grades were classed in three groups. One essay was chosen from each group for which three first prizes are to be awarded by the state department of the Auxiliary. The local unit also offered a first and second prize for each group.

Winners of the prizes offered by the Estacada unit, which essays were also entered in the state competition, were—primary group, Ruth Barr; second group, Suzanne Cooke, including the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, and Laura Nelson, the third group, which included the seventh and eighth grades.

Those winning second prizes were Donald McGinnis, Dodge; Letha Russell, Currinsville, and Valeen Julian, Springwater.

E. H. S. FRESHMEN ENTERTAIN SOPHS

The freshman class of the Estacada high school gave a return party for the sophomores Wednesday evening after school, chaperoned by Principal W. E. Buell and other teachers. They drove to Deep Creek below Barton. Lunch was served in army style and consisted of hot dogs, buns, potatoes, ice cream and coffee. Baseball and other games were enjoyed until dark when other games were played around the campfire. The committee in charge was Ella Hayden, Lavea Grabeel, Louise Armstrong and Glen Cary.

ESTACADA HIGH SCHOOL ELECTS NEW SET OF OFFICERS

The student body of Estacada high school has elected officers for the coming year, as follows: Arnold Anderson, president; Ruby Bates, vice president; Loretta Wallace, secretary; Howard Fifer, treasurer; John Young, sergeant at arms; Kenneth Palmateer and Carl Felker, yell leaders; Margaret Gavin, editor of the school paper and Edna Heiple, publisher.

SANDY PLUG MILL CLOSES; PLANT IS MOVED TO TOLEDO

Frank Bittner, who operated one of the most lucrative plants in Sandy for about thirteen years, has moved most of the machinery to his new plant at Toledo, Ore., and Sandy has lost an important industry, due largely to the fact that most of the immediate hardwood timber has been cut out. It is said that Bittner has sufficient timber at Toledo to make plugs for 30 years.

SANDY LOSES TO GRESHAM

Gresham carried away the honors from Sandy high diamond Friday. The ground was so wet and slick it was impossible to play a real game. The score was 19 to 11. Two more games are to be played this week by Sandy, and the last game of the season will be on May 17, with Estacada on the Sandy grounds.

Estacada lost to Molalla Tuesday by a 9 to 2 score. Canby plays on the Estacada diamond Friday.

BALL GAME PROTEST UPHELD BY LEAGUE MANAGERS

Estacada protested the baseball game played here April 28, on the grounds that the umpire called the game at the end of the seventh inning after an agreement had been reached to play nine innings. Vancouver, with whom the game was played, was defeated by Oswego on last Sunday afternoon, and they protested the game because the lake nine pitcher used the spit ball. Both protests were sustained, and now Estacada starts the season with a clean slate, as does also Vancouver, although the last named team has played two games.

Sellwood club will play on the Estacada grounds next Sunday afternoon at 2:30, if the weather permits.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON BROADWAY

When coming to Estacada Tuesday evening Hugh Jones, driving a Star car, while making for a parking place near the Estacada library, a Ford driven by Mrs. J. V. Couch, coming from the south met the Star in a head-on collision. No one was injured but the Jones machine suffered minor injuries and a cap was taken off one of the Ford's front wheels.

MAX SAGNER PURCHASES CHEVROLET GARAGE HERE

Max Sagner of Portland, formerly of Estacada, has purchased from F. M. Forman the Chevrolet Garage of Estacada, the sale to go into effect May 15. In addition to handling the Chevrolet agency, the new manager expects to have the Marmon agency and a large stock of used cars.

Mr. Sagner has been employed by the Manley Auto company of Portland for several years, and has the reputation of making more car sales in Portland than any other salesman. He has had charge of the used car department for Manley on the Eastside in Portland, and has established an enviable reputation as a business getter.

Max has twenty or more used cars in Portland taken in on deals, which he will bring to Estacada, and will be able to supply any demand for used cars regardless of the price class desired.

He is bringing with him to Estacada an expert mechanic who will put his official okay on every car going out. The best possible service will be maintained at all times, Mr. Sagner states, including all parts and supplies for Chevrolets as well as other accessories and equipment.—Goodyear tires, and gasoline, oils, and batteries.

INJURED IN LUMBER CAMP

L. L. Wells of Yacolt, Wash., was injured quite badly two weeks ago while working in a lumber camp and has been in a Portland hospital recovering from wounds on his head. Mrs. Wells has been in Estacada at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beck, so as to be near him. He was able to leave the hospital Tuesday and came to Estacada.

Sandy High Juniors Present Delightful Play

Sandy high junior class made a tremendous hit with their play, "The Bride Breezes In," Friday night, the house being held with interest until the last curtain. It was considered one of the best plays ever given at Sandy high, and was directed by Miss Edith Shell.

The cast included Victor Bacon, Allavene Light, Fred Nelson, Pat Lund, Glenn Heacock, Ethel Irvin, Winnifred Glockner, Hugh Guthrie, Naomi Child, and Margaret Peterson. Dorothy Bruns gave a piano solo. Frank Christianson and Ruth Barnett sang, Hugh Guthrie, Victor Bacon and Martha Maulding played the sax, drums and piano, and Naomi Child won the audience with her vocal solo.

THIEVES STEAL FIFTY HENS

Thieves visited the Crawford ranch in the Garfield district Tuesday night and helped themselves to 50 chickens on the place, leaving only seven old hens and a cock.

SANDY HIGH FACULTY FOR NEXT TERM

TEACHERS, WITH TWO EXCEPTIONS, WILL REMAIN FOR ANOTHER YEAR

Sandy union high school board has announced that all vacancies have been filled in next year's teaching staff. The faculty for the year will be: G. D. Orr, principal; Neal L. Horr, assistant principal and director of industrial arts.

W. E. Rannow, history, civics and athletics; Miss Edith Marie Shell, English, French, glee clubs, and dramatics; Roberta Williams, mathematics and girls' athletics.

L. E. Palmer, head of the commercial department, wrestling coach and journalism; Miss Ida Mildred Antrim, commerce, assistant in English and school secretary; and Ruth M. Forest, home economics.

The faculty is practically the same as the past year, with the exception of Miss Kammerer and Mrs. Edna Hall, both of whom tendered their resignations.

The board has decided to adopt the Hughes-Smith plan in the home "ec" department. Under this plan, the government will pay one half the salary of the home economics teacher. Miss Kammerer has worked up the department along this idea, so that very little change will be necessary.

BIG RUBIE SHAW FEATURE FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Four-Leaf Clovers, an aggregation of girl musicians and entertainers and comedians, will be the feature attraction at the Liberty Theatre next Wednesday night, May 15. There will be singing, dancing and comedy acts on the stage, in addition to the picture program.

Free guesses on the number of beans in a jar will be open all week at the Estacada Pharmacy and a ballot box will be at the Liberty Theatre Wednesday evening; the person guessing nearest the number of beans in the jar will be presented absolutely free with a beautiful full-sized blanket robe. Popular prices will prevail.

COL. ARNOLD PLANTS LILIES

Col. T. Arnold of Portland, who owns 80 acres of land at Marmot, is specializing in lily bulbs, and has just set out another acre. The colonel is also cultivating land. L. W. Tice is pulling the stumps and Col. Arnold expects to build a summer cottage.

CHILDREN WARNED ABOUT SKATING ON STREETS

It has come to the attention of the mayor and city council of Estacada that the present practice of children roller skating on the streets is very dangerous, not only to the children, but to drivers of vehicles as well. Several near accidents have been the result of this practice.

Therefore the council has deemed it necessary to take action in this matter—to warn parents not to permit their children to continue this practice as the city will not be responsible in any way for any such accidents. Also instruct all minors to be off the streets by 9 p. m., or it will be necessary to enforce the curfew ordinance. By order of the city council.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES AT SANDY SUNDAY NIGHT

Baccalaureate services will be held at Sandy union high school Sunday night. The Rev. Mr. Gates, former pastor of East Side Evangelistic church, will deliver the sermon. He is an unusually good speaker and the auditorium should be packed. There will be no services at the Sandy Community church because of this event.

Sandy Class Takes City Trip

Sandy home economics class visited the Pacific Coast Biscuit company plant and the St. Johns Woolen mills last week. Miss Kammerer in charge. Mr. Olds, manager, who was formerly with Olds and King store, personally took the class through the mills. This week the senior class will go through the Swift packing plant.

PLAN TO OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY

GRAVES OF VETERANS IN DIFFERENT CEMETERIES TO BE CARED FOR

Plans were undertaken by the American Legion Monday evening to arrange for a fitting observance of Memorial Day this year, and to clean up the graves of all veterans in the cemeteries of the surrounding district.

It is planned to set a day a few days prior to May 30, and to clear the graves of veterans of all wars, and if possible, clean up all the cemeteries, depending, however, upon the co-operation of the people of the different communities.

It is planned to get an estimate of the amount of work required to put the different cemeteries in shape, and such reports will be received at the next meeting of the Legion, to be held May 22.

The survey of the task is to be made by Paul Holm at Garfield; Elmer Erickson at Springwater; Elmer Anderson at Eagle Creek and Douglass ridge, and the Sandyridge and Viola cemeteries are also to be included.

Memorial Day plans include, at least the decoration of the graves of veterans, and the planting of American flags on the graves. Markers will be provided by the Federal government for war veterans if application is made on blanks furnished, and the Legion is undertaking to supply the necessary information in order to secure these markers for a large number of graves of veterans in the cemeteries in Eastern Clackamas county.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR FRANK OTTO AHNERT

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Chapman funeral parlors for Frank Otto Ahnert, who died at his home in the George district April 29.

Mr. Ahnert was born in Germany in 1861 and came to America at the age of 20 and settled near Estacada where he resided for over forty years. In 1895 he married Augusta Kroll, who survives. The surviving children are Mrs. John Anderson of Portland and Ralph Ahnert of Estacada. Two sisters, Mrs. Otto Solomon of Gresham and Mrs. P. J. Donnellan of Sumner, Wash., also survive, and there are three grandchildren. Rev. C. T. Cook of the Estacada M. E. church gave the funeral sermon and interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Estacada.

LADIES OBJECT TO ADS OF CIGARETTES ON BOARDS

A committee of ladies from the Estacada Garden club attended the city council meeting last week and put in a protest against the Foster & Kleiser bill boards which are usually covered with cigarette advertisements where girls' pictures figure very conspicuously.

WANTS TO LEASE HIS RANCH

W. M. Jacobson, who lost his wife last week, expects to leave for California next week, and desires to secure a tenant for his ranch 3 miles north of Springwater. He has 30 acres, 22 of which is in cultivation, fair buildings, fruit, berries, and some crop, and is offering a very attractive proposition. For further particulars read the classified ads in this copy of the News.

Watch the Kiddies, Is Warning

Every spring small boys at Sandy do much damage by peeling cascara bark. These trees are just as much personal property as anything else, and unless the trees are bought, it is a trespass to peel them. One Sandy man says he has already had fifty trees peeled by small Sandy boys, and that he valued them at $1 each.

FRED C. BLOOMBACK PASSES

Fred C. Bloomback, 65, of Boring, was buried at the Sandy cemetery Tuesday. Deceased had lived at Boring 30 years. A son and a paralyzed daughter survive.

MOTHER OF MRS. SNYDER PASSES IN PENNSYLVANIA

Mrs. Alice S. Houck, 80, mother of Mrs. H. B. Snyder of Estacada, passed Sunday morning, according to a message received here Wednesday by Mr. Snyder from his wife. Mrs. Snyder left immediately for the East on receipt of the news of the serious illness of her mother, arriving Saturday afternoon, only a few hours before her death.

Mrs. Houck was a national figure in the W. C. T. U. organization, and was state president of the Women's Relief corps of Pennsylvania. The funeral was held Wednesday in Mechanicsburg, Pa.

COUGAR STILL AT LARGE

Imagine how Mrs. Merle Tice felt as she was going home from the mail box at Marmot Friday when she spied a big cougar and its kitty calmly sitting on a log by the side of the road. Mrs. Tice did not stop to argue but grabbed her four-year-old child and ran. Hunters failed to locate the big cat.

AWARDED $12,000 IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Charles L. Tooley of Woodland, Wash., formerly of Estacada, was awarded a judgement for $12,000 by a jury in Judge Ekwall's court in Portland Wednesday, as the result of an injury he received in January of last year, when he was injured while riding in a bus operated by the S. P. & S. company.

Wallace Smith of Estacada was the attorney for the plaintiff, and was assisted by Colonel A. E. Clark of Portland. Dr. W. W. Rhodes of Estacada, who treated Mr. Tooley for his injuries, was the principal witness for the plaintiff. The case was bitterly contested by the attorneys for the defendants, and expert testimony was called in connection with X-ray pictures showing the extent of the injury. The case lasted three days and is considered a very important victory for Wallace Smith, who worked up the entire case against the bus company.

C. M. T. C. OPEN JULY 2 TO 31

The Citizens Military Training Camp at Vancouver barracks will be open this year from July 2 to July 31, and boys are admitted between the ages of 17 and 31, Dr. W. W. Gilbert announces. The doctor has application blanks, and will make the necessary physical examinations without charge for those who desire to apply for entrance. Applications should be sent in immediately.

SANDY HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT MAY 17

Dean A. B. Cordley of O. S. A. C., has been secured to deliver the commencement address at the Sandy high commencement exercises, Friday evening, May 17. Mr. Cordley is a man of high standing in the college, and in the state, and Sandy is considered fortunate in securing his services. There will be twenty graduates.

Rites Held for Mrs. W. M. Jacobson, Aged 67

Funeral services for Mrs. Elvie C. Jacobson, who passed away at her home three miles north of Springwater, April 29, were held at the L. A. Chapman funeral parlors Saturday afternoon, with Rev. C. T. Cook officiating and burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Estacada.

Mrs. Jacobson was born in Middleport, N. Y., in 1861 and was married to Wm. N. Jacobson in Nebraska in 1887 and with her family has resided near Estacada since 1920.

She is survived by the husband, and three sons, Walter H. of Orange, Calif., Clyde L. of Garibaldi, and S. G. of Longview, Wash., all of whom attended the funeral services. One brother, Elmer Todd of Basin, Wyo., and one sister, Mrs. Mary Weaver of Louisville, Calif., also survive.

L. O. TICE VISITS SANDY

L. W. Tice, Marmot farmer, also a retired chef, was in Sandy recently and says he greatly enjoys the Clackamas County News. Tice says "It's a fine little paper and I would not be without it."

MAYORS SET DAY FOR GENERAL CLEAN-UP

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, IS ESTACADA DATE; SANDY SETS SATURDAY, MAY 18

The mayors and councils of both Estacada and Sandy have set days for a general clean-up, and are asking for the co-operation of the public to put over a thorough job. Estacada date is Wednesday, May 15, and Sandy has set Saturday, May 18, for this annual event.

Mayor L. A. Chapman of Estacada in his proclamation, says:

"In accordance with the usual custom, and the urgent need thereof, the citizens of Estacada are asked to co-operate in cleaning up the city, and in making it sanitary and attractive."

"Gather up your refuse in sacks, barrels or boxes, and leave where it can be reached by trucks. Burn all you can and save cartage. All unsightly refuse must be removed from alleys and afterwards kept clean and neat by abutting property owners."

"Vacant lots must be likewise kept free from refuse and weeds kept cut. We trust the people will co-operate in this, and help make our city neat and clean."

"We therefore declare Wednesday, May 15, as clean-up day. By order of the mayor and city council."

Sandy council met Monday night and decided on May 18, and state that all rubbish will be called for, and the people are asked to have it out ready for the truck. W. G. Duncan is to serve for the present on police duty for the city.

W. A. Proctor has given the city of Sandy a 99-year lease on a portion of the canyon at the north end of town to be used as a city dump.

REPAIR WORK ON LOOP HIGHWAY IS STARTED

Work of scarifying and grading the Mt. Hood Loop highway from the county line to Sandy has been started, the larger tractor and scarifier arriving Friday. Oiling will not start until June. It is said a heavier base and a different process will be used this year.

Entertain Sandy Embroidery Club

Mrs. Ned Mitchell and Miss Mary Sharnke were hostesses at the Monday night meeting of the Sandy Embroidery club, which met at the Sharnke home. Refreshments were served. It was voted to serve once each month, two hostesses taking turns. Present were Miss Kammerer, Mrs. S. Hall, Mrs. J. A. Hall, Mrs. L. B. Green, Mrs. S. R. Harper, Clair Payn, Mrs. C. W. Bruce, Mrs. Blanch Lundy, Hazel Brown, Mrs. Dittert, Mrs. G. D. Orr, Mrs. Helen Dahrens, Mrs. F. L. Proctor, Mrs. H. A. Schneider, Mrs. Perret, Blanche Bruce, Mrs. Sharnke and Barbara Sharnke.

At the last meeting names omitted in reporting were Mrs. D. S. Webster, Mrs. F. Christianson, Mrs. Hennessey, Mrs. Cecil O. Duke and Mrs. F. L. Proctor.

Shower Given For Hazel Hudson

Mrs. A. Hoernicker of Sandy entertained Friday with a shower for Miss Hazel Hudson, fiancee of Jim Stewart. Many pretty gifts were brought. Present were Miss Kammerer, Winnifred Glockner, Margaret and Mildred Barnett, Mrs. C. W. Bruce, Mrs. A. Bruce, Sr., Mrs. Webster, Mrs. H. A. Schneider, Mrs. H. Perret, Mrs. J. C. Loundree, Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mrs. Helen Dahrens, Mrs. Dittert, Mrs. Christianson, Ruth Reed, the hostess and guest of honor.

Mrs. Zenger Goes to Portland

Mrs. Nellie Zenger, teacher of intermediate grades at Sandy for three years, was chosen out of more than one hundred applicants to teach physical "ed." in the city. Mrs. Zenger did excellent work in Sandy and is to be congratulated on getting into a larger field.

Special Collection Asked

Next Sunday, Mother's Day, those attending the Sandy Community Sunday school, are asked to bring a little extra change along to help meet the expense of janitor, supplies, lights, and piano payments.