Miss Margaret Schock is able to get around again, after being laid up for two weeks with a bad case of poison oak.

The Estacada school band has been engaged to play in the Blue Ribbon Health parade in Oregon City Saturday.

W. D. Howard and family have moved into the Bank apartments from the LaBarre house, and another tenant has moved into the attractive new residence recently completed by H. A. LaBarre.

Through the courtesy of the Jackson Lumber company, who donated the paint, three high school boys—Walter Smith, Fred Buell and Claude Lankins—painted the lines on the school tennis court this week.

A. G. Ames left for the mountains Monday where he joined the forest service and will have charge of a crew of men. Vernon Ames will manage the Broadway Garage while his father is away.

Richard Hayman is now employed at the Faraday power house, having given up his job with a Portland lumber company.

The high school band of boys with their director, Mr. Bushnell, spent some time Monday practicing marching in preparation for their parade in Oregon City Saturday.

George Rose and wife left Tuesday morning for Seattle where George expects to find employment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens and Mrs. Elizabeth Allen and sister, Mrs. Marshall, visited the tulip gardens at Canby last Sunday.

The Estacada Meat company has improved their shop this week by the application of a coat of paint, and it certainly looks nice inside now.

SANDY LOCAL ITEMS

The complete registration for the Sandy grade school this year was 123.

Carl Sharnke had a big job painting the new state garage, which is now finished. Walter Creighton completed the contract last week.

Sandy boys home from college for the week-end included Tom and Kenneth Scales, Edward Nelson and Tom Dunn.

Former Sandy Hi students writing letters for the alumni edition of the Mountain Echoes were Florence and Alta DeShazer, Rildie Roberts Allen, Jonnie Shelley, Zaidie Alt Krebs, Bernice Duncan Gannon, Marie and Ruth Baumbach, Kathleen Jones, Gladys Wilkins-Nelson, Ken Scales, James Crissey, Alice Douglass, Avis Strong, Clara Sitz, Ella Schwartz, Genevieve Jonsrud and Helen Hempe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bacon returned last week from a three-day trip over in the Yakima country. They found sunshine and everything growing fine over there.

The Frank Schmitz children have been having the measles and Mrs. Dodd has been staying at the Schmitz home during the day.

Mayor Smith expects his wife and new baby daughter home from the hospital this week.

Hon. Matt Glover visited Sandy and surrounding country last week, making assessments for the county assessor, and Matt met many old friends.

P. T. Shelley has eight sheep already grazing on his ranch. The Shelleys will not move before June.

Some work has been done on the road south from the grade school the past week by the road boss, Henry Keisicker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collier, from Astoria, and Mrs. Collier, Sr., were at the C. O. Duke home over the week-end. Mr. Collier has been quite poorly.

F. L. Proctor, who has been staying home to recover from his tonsil operation most of the past two weeks, is now in the bank again.

Jim Folsom is foreman of an oiling crew this season and is located in the Eugene section of the highway work. Mrs. Folsom and children will join him after school closes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret went to Friend Saturday with Mrs. Raymond Smith, Perret driving the Smith car back to go over it. The Smiths are getting moved to Dee, in the Hood River section.

Dorothy Nelson is now a graduate of the state normal, having completed her work there last week. She may decide to take special work this summer.

Elmer Glockner, Sandy's young aviator, received his diploma as pilot last week. Elmer is working at Glenn's Garage until a suitable opening comes for him to take to the air.

Mrs. Gottfried Stucki, who suffered a major operation last week, is getting along very well, and will soon be able to leave the hospital.
