Haley Baptist Church

An evangelist of national repute, Rev. D. E. Anderson, of New York, will come to the Haley Baptist church for a series of meetings, May 21 to June 2. Services each evening, excepting Saturday, at 8 o'clock. English will be used throughout. Rev. Gordon Johnson will be song leader, at least part of the time. Rev. Anderson is a man of pleasing personality and a very interesting and forceful speaker. He will interest both old and young in the Gospel message. He is not new to us, as he was here in a series of meetings four years ago. We bespeak for him an earnest and attentive hearing. Please come out to these meetings and study with us the really worth while things of life and of the world to come.

Next Sunday, May 19, Rev. Parounagian, an Armenian by birth, will be with us in the morning and speak on the Near East Relief. No service in the evening.—Andrew Johnson.

Estacada Methodist Church

Gustave Dore, the noted French artist, was once traveling in foreign lands. In his travels, he had lost his passport. When he came to where the government officials demanded the document, he told them he was Dore, the French artist, but his passport had been lost. The officers did not believe him, and, thinking to catch him in an untruth, sneeringly handed him a pencil and paper and demanded his proof. "All right," said the artist; and, with a smile and look of confidence he took the pencil and paper and began to sketch the landscape before him. The officer looked on in bewilderment for a few moments, as the picture grew under the pencil of the famous man, and then he said: "That will do, sir. You are Dore; for none but Dore could do that."

It is in this way that we are to prove our Christianity. Our passport is our every day life and conduct. We need no sign tacked on us to prove we are Christians. We need no documents signed by church officials; but it will be evidenced by kind words, a smiling face and acts of love. The Christian carries with him an influence which is felt by those whom he touches in his daily walk. The Christianity which needs a label is not genuine. The Christian should walk with the knowledge that he is the child of God. This life Jesus Christ invites all to share.

The following subjects will be used next Sunday: At 11 o'clock, "Christianity Makes New Men." An appeal to all Christians not worshipping elsewhere, is made to come and hear this sermon. At 8 o'clock in the evening, "The Continuing Life of Christ on Earth."

The Epworth League will meet at 7:15 in the evening. Services at 9:45 a. m. A cordial invitation is extended to those who do not go elsewhere.—C. T. Cook, Pastor.

BULL RUN

BULL RUN, May 16.—(Special).—The Woodcock store, where campers' supplies and light refreshments are sold Sundays, was opened last week at Dodge Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Ganger spent Tuesday evening in the city, with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Keenan. The party was also joined by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilkins.

Because of the epidemic of measles, which is getting under way at Bull Run, the big pageant slated for this week will be postponed for two weeks. Mrs. George Odell and Mrs. Oren Ganger, who were helping train the children, both have measles in their homes.

Neal L. Horr, of the high school, called at the Soderberg and Haneberg homes Sunday morning.

The Campfire Girls recently hiked to Dodge Park and prepared a dinner over the coals of a campfire. While eating they were caught in a shower but defied the storm like true webfooters and finished eating. The girls planned to hike to the headworks had it not stormed.

Bull Run Campfire Girls surprised their mothers on Mother's Day with an elaborate dinner at the home of Olive Kealher. Red and white carnations and fern were the favors and the menu comprised fruit cocktail, mashed potatoes and gravy, chicken a la Maryland, Spanish string beans, salad, bread and butter, pickles, radishes, ice cream and wafers. Those present were Mrs. L. Haneberg, Mrs. L. E. Kealher, Mrs. Dell Jadin, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Carsner, Kathryn Frost, Lela Miller, Olive Kealher, Eva Haneberg, Fred Jadin, Beatrice Galbraith, Mrs. Errol Reece and Miss Avis Rogers.

UP THE MOUNTAINS

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Rafferty were in Sandy to call on Mrs. J. M. C. Miller recently, and to say good-bye. The Raffertys have the concession at Jantzen Beach.

Mrs. E. F. Peterson was down to the city and Sandy last week, from Trumans. The Petersons own this old landmark, formerly operated by the Trumans and Andrew Oak. They recently burned down the old barn—a landmark there for years, and which sheltered many pack horses headed for Bull Run Lake, during a long period of years. With Mrs. Peterson was Mrs. Charles Hickey, of Brightwood.

Work on the opening of Raymore Hills, a summer home prospect at Trumans, is still under way.

C. B. Roades, new manager of Government Camp Hotel, took charge on Monday. Mr. Roades wants to get acquainted locally and is enthusiastic over the new location.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Murray, Miss Donovan and Postmaster Thayer, of Cherryville, all attended the Women's Club dance Saturday night at Sandy.

The Brightwood Club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Henry Steiner. Refreshments were served. The ladies present were Mrs. S. B. Rowan, Mrs. L. O. Wing, Mrs. Irene Alt, Mrs. Blevins, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Harris and daughter, Mrs. Henry Larson, Mrs. Roy Hickey, Mrs. Art Jonsrud, Mrs. Bill Alt, the hostess. The last club meeting for the season will be held next Wednesday at the Wing home.

John Beaver was over from Three Links Saturday and Sunday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bill Alt.

Mrs. Pete Stone was down from Cherryville to attend grange at Sandy, on Saturday.

Sandy Junior-Senior Banquet

The annual junior-senior banquet at Sandy was an elaborate affair on Friday night, at Marvel Inn. The decorations were cherry blossoms and the entire color scheme was green and white. The menu was very attractive and daintily served. Sixty-five students and faculty members were present, the latter giving talks. After the dinner the entire crowd adjourned to the I. O. O. F. hall, where dancing was enjoyed until 11:45, the school orchestra playing.

Sandy Hi Visits Swift's Plant

The advanced class in home "ec" at Sandy Hi visited the killing pens and also went through the entire Swift plant, the Davidson bakery, the Broadway Cleaners and Dyers, one day last week. Miss Kammerer chaperoned and George Hartwig was the driver of the school bus.

Joint Grade Graduation May 24

Grade schools of the Sandy section will hold joint exercises at the high school May 24. Around 50 diplomas will be awarded.

ELWOOD

ELWOOD, May 16.—(Special).—The P. T. A. met Friday evening and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker; secretary, Mrs. Donald Nelson; treasurer, Lorenzo Wilson.

Mrs. Lorenzo Wilson called on Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker Tuesday afternoon. A stork shower was given Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Moehnik for Mrs. Donald Nelson and Mrs. Matt Jagmin.

Mrs. T. G. Munson was calling on Mrs. Otis Vallen and Mrs. L. M. Cox on Saturday.

A coyote visited Mrs. Vallen's poultry run and carried off a couple of grown turkeys recently.

S. B. Brown had the misfortune to have a good milk cow break her leg, while running on the outside range, last week.

Dick Rush, of Eagle Creek, was shearing sheep for Matt Park on Saturday. He states that shearing this year has been harder than usual, owing to the poor condition of the animals and continued cold weather.

Charlie Meilike and his mother, of Oregon City, visited the home ranch here Sunday.

Mrs. Matilda Surjus is visiting at the home of her son, C. E. Surjus, of Estacada.

Irwin Stahlnecker missed high school Friday, to train hops for his father.

DOUBLE LOVE TRIANGLE IN "MAN, WOMAN AND WIFE"

Five souls—two women and three men—are entangled in the web of romance and tragedy that makes up the intensely interesting story of "Man, Woman and Wife," the Universal picture starring Norman Kerry and showing at the Liberty Theatre, Estacada, Friday and Saturday, May 17 and 18.

Two of them—a man and a woman—are of the underworld. Another man and woman belong to society's finest. The fifth is a tragic figure, tossed between the underworld existence forced upon him and his former position of respectability in high social circles.

"Man, Woman and Wife" is reported to be one of the most intensely interesting pictures of the year. It is adapted from an original screen story by Charles A. Logue. Edward Laemmle directed it. The cast includes Pauline Starke, Marian Nixon, Kenneth Harlan, Crauford Kent and Byron Douglas.

GRADUATION DAY

This week another class graduates from our local school.

Like the ship of the sea those graduates lift anchor and set sail. What storms will they face; what shoals will threaten them; what ports will they cast anchor in?

"One ship drives east, another west
With the self-same winds that blow;
'Tis the set of the sails and not the gales,
Which decides the way to go."

Let us be perfectly frank. No ship ever ARRIVED that did not have a definite objective and CHART a course.

More men fail in this than in any other thing.

If you but guide your course with the simple rule to spend LESS than you earn—the future is certain. You are bound to arrive at the port of PROSPERITY
