

Estacada Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kimble, of West Salem, Wis., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mae Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Art Holmboe and William Holmboe, of Portland, were also guests over Sunday.

The Lewa group of Campfire Girls enjoying the outing at Island Park, this year, included Lois Smith, Lois Bates, Louise Armstrong, Glen Cary, Lavena Grabeel, Neva Lemon, Carol Yocum and Margaret Nordlund.

THE LEGIONNAIRE

An enthusiastic meeting of the local Legion post was held last Monday evening, with Commander Townsend presiding. The attendance was large at both the Legion and Auxiliary sessions and considerable business was transacted.

The building committee of the Legion reported that an effort should be made by the post to secure a county donation for the new club house fund and this will, accordingly, be acted upon.

The Memorial Day committee reported that the graves of veterans in all the local cemeteries had been cleaned up and put in good shape for Memorial Day and also that flags and wreaths had been placed on the graves in the Eagle Creek, Viola, Estacada, Springwater and Garfield cemeteries.

Dr. W. W. Gilbert volunteered to act as a committee of one to see that the veterans' board is finished. Good for you, Doctor!

The matter of the post sponsoring the Estacada Junior baseball league team was discussed at length. Comrade Franks is chairman of this committee. The Legion Junior League team is to be selected from the 14 best players among the boys in this community. The hat was passed and $16.28 was raised with which to purchase balls.

L. D. Meade, new publisher of the Clackamas County News, was admitted as a member of the post, and elected publicity officer, to succeed G. E. Parks.

ESTACADA HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gill and daughter, Alice, of The Dalles, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Gill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jubb were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jubb and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, of Viola, and Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. McCarter, of Portland.

A. H. Perry and son made a trip to St. Helens last Friday, bringing back a load of household furniture for L. D. Meade, the new publisher of the Clackamas County News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duus had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. John Duus, of White Salmon, Wash.; Bonney Duus and sister, Louise, of Maupin and Mrs. Vernie Duus, of Antelope. Mrs. Vernie Duus left on Sunday to visit her brother, Charles Kandle, of Tillamook.

Gresham, Ore.

Mrs. Mary Bartholomew, of Heppner, Ore., is in this vicinity, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dooley, and son, Fred Bartholomew.

The alfresco event planned by the local United Artisan order, for Wednesday, was spoiled by inclement weather. However, the annual event was carried out, as the members met in the I. O. O. hall and enjoyed a sumptuous dinner at 7 o'clock in the evening. Following the repast, they were joined by friends and a card party was enjoyed. "Five hundred" was played by seven tables, after which refreshments were served. The high scores were given to A. Smith and Mrs. Dooley, while Mrs. J. J. Penner and Dr. W. W. Rhodes were favored with consolation prizes.

Memorial Day guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Cook were Mr. and Mrs. Shanks and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Bunker and Mrs. Poindexter, of Bremerton, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Bunker drove Friday to Newberg and Seaside. Mrs. Poindexter, who had been a friend of Rev. and Mrs. Cook in Alaska, remained until Sunday at the Cook home.

Mrs. W. E. Linn has been confined to her home for the past week with a severe attack of "poison oak," but is now somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manning and son, James, enjoyed a delightful camping trip at the beaches last week—at Newport, Rockaway and way points.

BUY DURANT SIX "60"

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Barr, motored to Portland on Memorial Day, where they visited the Durant Motor Co. warehouse. After looking over the cars, they picked out a 6-60 four-door sedan, which they drove home. Mr. Gerber, in partnership with Frank VanDuren, ran the meat market here when Estacada had four blacksmith shops and no garages. This was the third car delivered by J. V. Barr & Sons, local Durant dealers, within 17 days, the other two being 4-40 coaches, purchased by Bud Mapletorpe, Bull Run, and Warren Smith, Camp 8.

In the mention of the graduates of the Estacada high school who were to receive degrees from the Oregon State College this week, the name of Robert Cahill was omitted from the article in last week's paper. This was probably due to the fact that Bob has made his home in Albany since Christmas, when he was married to Miss May Stoddard, teacher in the Albany schools. Bob served as president of the Independent Men's Club one term and filled the office of president of the Memorial Union for the year just past. He received his degree of Bachelor of Science in industrial arts.
