

WILL PICNIC AT BLUE LAKE PARK JUNE 6TH

This Friday, June 6th members of the home extension groups thruout Multnomah county will picnic at Blue Lake park. Each unit is planning its own luncheon arrangements and coffee will be served by the county committee.

Awards will be made at this picnic to the three units having the best record for the past year based on standard unit requirement reports. Mrs. Kinney and Mrs. Pesznecker are in charge of the recreation.

Admission to Blue Lake park will be free to members showing their invitations but all other interested friends are welcome to attend.

We have an auto tent 7x9 feet and a white enamel wood range priced to sell. Come in and see them. No matter what you need in house furnishings etc. you can always save money at Tobason's Second Hand Store on Powell Blvd., in Gresham. Ask your friends about us. They will tell you we have real bargains.—Adv.

HONOR SOCIETY PLEDGES STUDENT FROM BORING

Tillman Foreman, Boring, was one of 12 new members initiated into the Blue Key, national honor society for senior men at Oregon state college last week. He will serve as the organization's secretary-treasurer this coming year.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM PUT IN OPERATION

The complete automatic telephone exchange recently installed by Frank Christianson Jr. owner and manager covers the territory from Alder Creek to Rhododendron and is now in operation. Patrons may now dial Portland as well as local numbers. The individually owned plant was a $3000 investment. Alder Creek is nine miles east of Sandy on the Mt. Hood loop.

Alaska Seal at Blue Lake

Blue Lake Park.—Oscar, a bay Alaska hair seal seal is the newest addition to the many attractions at Blue Lake park. This spotted black and silver orphan was found last week by Stanley Bennett, a relative of Manager N. B. Welch at Long Beach, Wash. and is doing nicely on a special diet of raw halibut. Scientists explain that cow's milk will make a baby seal sick.

Blue Lake Park Nine undefeated

Blue Lake baseballers remained tied with the Marine Electric for leadership of the Inter City league when they defeated Holliday Drug on the park diamond Sunday afternoon by a 1 to 0 score. Bob Kiesel pitched a 4 hit game for the winners with Ray Oberst pitching a five hit game from Holliday drug.

Bob Enquist Blue Lake third baseman broke the tie in the last half of eighth inning when he scored on a single by Chet Briggs. This game was a make-up affair since it had been postponed on account of rain.

Sunday's baseball game will match the Park team with the Milwaukie nine on the Blue Lake diamond the game starting at 2 p.m. "Scatterbrain" and "Carolina Moon" will be shown on the screen fronting the ball park Thursday night June 12 as a feature of the regular free Thursday night show.

All games up to Monday night were rained out leaving Wimpy's Loop Tavern of Orient on top of the East Multnomah softball league. Bonneville Oilers were holding down second place with the Gresham Kiwanis in third place followed by the Troutdale Rod and Gun club in fourth place. Ivy Service station is fifth ranking team with the Corbett lads in the cellar. Bonneville Oilers and the Gresham Kiwanis club will match sticks Friday, June 6 during the first game with Loop Tavern and Ivy Service filling out the bill.

Bonneville will take on the Tavern team Monday June 9 with Corbett and Troutdale also playing this night. Then on the evening of June 11 Corbett will tangle with Kiwanis club and Ivy Service will take on Troutdale Rod and Gun club.

GET YOUR HAYING AND HARVESTING MACHINE REPAIRS

The wise farmer prepares in advance for what he knows he is going to need. Along this line W. A. Hessel of the Hessel Implement company said this week that now is a good time for every farmer in this territory to get their haying and harvesting machine repairs thus preventing any delay during the busy haying and harvesting season. The Hessel Implement company is able to furnish repairs for all makes of farm machines and their service is prompt and reliable. This means a lot to the farmer when he has break down with his crops ready to harvest and no time to spare. But why wait. Check up on your repairs now and be ready to "go" when the time comes.—Adv.

"It's going to be fun," promise these well known Clackamas county people in referring to the 35th annual Clackamas county fair to be held at Canby, August 27 to 30.

And they ought to know because they are some of the folks who are putting forth much effort to make the 1941 fair "the best yet." Know them? They are Ben Chindgren of Meadowbrook, dance superintendent; Harold Bernier of Park Place, floral; Wm. Shearer of Springfield, poultry; Mrs. Carl Joehne Canby, textiles; Edwin G. Keltner, club agent;

Edwin G. Ridder of Sherwood, livestock; and county agent John J. Ing, keep all of whom bid you remember the dates, the last Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday in August.
