"Kiss the Boys Goodbye" Featured

Gay, gag-filled and melodious Paramount's musical version of the hit Broadway comedy "Kiss the Boys Goodbye" will breeze in to the new Broadway theatre, Estacada this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21 and 22 as the first feature on the double bill program. Starring Don Ameche and Mary Martin the new film is a joy to behold, as it recounts the hilarious adventures of how a beautiful belle from the South went about getting herself the starring role in a Broadway play, outsmarting a handsome young director to do it. As Cindy Lou Bethany, Mary Martin with her devilish eyes and winsome mannerisms is at her best; Lloyd Lloyd the director, Don Ameche turns in a comedy performance that rivals the best he's ever done. Thundering action as "Hopalong" Cassidy alone of all western screen heroes can deliver it is provided in ample measure in the second feature on this program starring Bill Boyd in "Wide Open Town." Here is a picture that is tops in thrills and action that will hold you spell-bound.

"Wild Geese Calling"

With all the thundering drama of the great Northwest, Stewart Edward White's best selling adventure novel "Wild Geese Calling" comes to the screen of the Broadway theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday November 23, 24 and 25. Henry Fonda as the two fisted lumberjack and Joan Bennett as the dance hall queen have the leading roles in the story of two people together fighting the fury of a great primitive country. All the action, drama and romance of the novel are welded into an outstanding film. Set in the wilds of Alaska the thrills come thick and fast as the film builds to its exciting climax. Besides Henry Fonda and Joan Bennett other important roles are played by Warren William, Ona Munson and Barton McLane.

"Give Us Wings"

A skillfully contrived comedy farce based on a subject of topical interest, Universal's "Give us Wings" comes to the Broadway Wednesday and Thursday, November 26 and 27, bargain nights. Starring John Ford and the Little Tough Guys this picture sounds the cry of youth eager to take to the air. It is the exciting story of a group of young mechanics whose urge to fly plunges them into the perils of aerial crop-dusting. The program concludes with the 11th chapter of "Riders of Death Valley."

NEW BOOKS AT THE ESTACADA LIBRARY

Here are some brand new books you have been anxious to read.

The Day of the Trumpet, DeJong. This is a stirring novel of a Dutch community caught in the holocaust of invasion.

Preacher's Wife, Hueston. A vivid portrayal of a woman the authors own mother, whose husband was a Methodist preacher in southern Iowa.

Bulbs for Your Garden, Wood. Written in clear, concise style and covers every phase of planting and growing all common bulbs.

Carpentry, Townsend. A practical treatise on simple building construction with working drawings.

Two Ends to Our Shoestring, Katherine Pinkerton. All who read this delightful book will enjoy it especially those of you who have read Wilderness Wife, and Three's a Crew, by the same author.

The Enchanted April, Elizabeth. Sunshine, a medieval Italian castle on the shores of the Mediterranean is the setting for this charming and sprightly novel.

Narcissa Whitman, Eaton. Narcissa Whitman was one of the first white women to cross the continent. She and her husband came to educate the Indians of the west.

Farthest Reach, Rosa. Here is another book on the Pacific Northwest which tells us interesting facts about life on the last frontier.

Where the Blue Begins, Morley. This book brings imagination and fantasy to a far too realistic world. Adventures in Understanding, Grayson. An understanding tale about people and how to live for happiness.

While Rome Burns, Woolcott. This is a book you will not only want to read but to reread and chuckle over many times.

The Little French Girl, Sedwick. Here is a book that will appeal to readers of all ages.

Juvenile Books

Lives of Girls Who Became Famous, Beaton. These stories are not only interesting to read but inspiring for every girl who admires people who have done noble deeds.

Pete, Dennis. Pete is an Airdale who approves of a good time, no matter how or when it is obtained.

A Tale for Easter, An interesting little book with charming illustrations. Small children will love it.

Anne of Windy Poppars, Montgomery. All of us who have delighted in the earlier Anne books will enjoy this story of this popular heroine.

Chessie and Her Kittens, Carroll. This book carries on the story of the most famous kitten in the world. There are many pictures of Chessie and her kittens also to amuse you.

Silver Pitchers, Alcott. A story of charming simplicity and delightful humor.

BARTON

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hickmund visited friends at LaCenter, Wash., on a recent Sunday.

Mrs. Betty Weatherby and Mrs. Maitha Sumpter were at the last meeting of the Good Will club and were warmly greeted as it had been some time since they attended.

Mrs. Frank Whitehead and son David are in Portland for a couple of weeks where she is keeping house for her father and sister while her mother is taking the cure at Hot Springs.

Lyle Harrison an OSC graduate surveyor was an over Sunday guest at the Slaughter home. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jim Slaughter were in Portland to see their young grandson on his first birthday.

Tillman Forman was one of the nineteen outstanding students chosen for Who's Who magazine at Oregon state college recently. He is an Estacada high graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Sumpter of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hickmund last Tuesday and in the evening the four of them went into Portland and enjoyed dinner and a show.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cole and Miss Mary Ruggle of Portland were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. F. Thomas.

Mrs. Minnie Forman attended the Mother's club luncheon of Kappa Sigma at the home of Mrs. Byron De Young near Gresham last week. She reported a very nice time with fourteen ladies present.

Mrs. Ruth Whitehead was hostess to the Good Will club Thursday and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Delicious refreshments were served to Bee Wallace, Eva Millsap, Grace Still, Ruth Potter, Amy Rivers, Daisy Hickmund, Minnie Forman, Mabel Slaughter, Maude O'Dell, Betty Weatherby, Martha Sumpter and guests Mrs. Milburn Whitehead of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Eileen Paschel of Eagle Creek.

The Forman Bros. had quite an interesting and even an exciting experience when they got their big logging outfit across the Clackamas river. The Barton bridge allows only a five ton load and the big outfit weighed eleven tons. They had to ford the river at 6 a.m. when the water is lowest. They started across the riffles then upstream ways across and up the bank and later got the big outfit into the logging country above Estacada.

Registering Stock is Important

Should a 4-H club member register his breeding stock before exhibiting at the fairs? Geraldine Meek of Molalla received proof that it pays. Last week she received from the American Hampshire sheep association a special award of $6 plus a handsome ribbon 14 inches by 3 inches. The winning of this award was for her second place Hampshire ewe lamb at the Pacific international livestock show the fore part of October. The American Hampshire association gives these awards as special encouragement to club members to register their breeding stock.

Geraldine is not the only club member who will testify that it pays in dollars and cents to register your animals. Nat Etzel of Canby not only received cash prizes for his registered Duroc Jersey pigs which he exhibited at the fairs but also received a gold medal and a years subscription to the "Duroc Jersey News." A year ago Nat received enough cash money from the Duroc breed association although his gift did not place at the state fair. This was because his was one of the few in a large class which was registered. Club members who keep their registrations up on their breeding stock are finding that it pays in dollars and cents said Edwin Keltner 4-H club agent.

GARFIELD

The Skip-a-week club is sponsoring a program and lunch November 29th at the grange hall. Everyone come and bring your friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayden and family of Cascade Locks visited from Wednesday until Sunday with Mrs. Alice Huxley, Mrs. Hayden's mother.

Mrs. Alice Huxley was a dinner guest at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hayden Wednesday and Thursday Mrs. Hayden and son Jack of Portland and Jack Jr. and Mona all enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Huxley in Garfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Groves sponsored a shower for Mr. and Mrs. Don Cobb (Martha Salzwedel) formerly of Garfield, last Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb live in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gunter and daughters Betty June and Jean left on Thursday for Seattle, Wash., where they will be guests over the holiday week end with Mr. Gunter's brother and family, Harry Gunter.

Mrs. W. C. Taylor went to Astoria and returned with Mr. Taylor Saturday night. He has been doing some work for the government at Tongue Point naval base.

CURRINSVILLE

The Moss family vacated the Currin cottage on Monday and moved to Sweet Home where they bought a home. Mr. Moss is working for the Kaffel Bros. logging concern there.

The Jack Tooley family moved to their new home in Sandy last week, vacating the house owned by Mrs. Trixie Shields in Portland.

G. Zimmerman and family have leased the farm recently vacated by the Ward Douglas family.

Ed Adams has a crew of men on his farm remodeling the barn and house and drilling an 8-inch well. Mr. Adams is stocking the farm with registered Holstein and Guernsey cattle and register OIC hogs.

What might have been a serious accident occurred last Friday when Archie Yocum's car went out of control on the slippery pavement and overturned in the ditch near Allspaugh corner. Fortunately Mr. Yocum sustained only bruises.

The local turkey raisers have been busy the past week marketing their turkeys. Mrs. Geo. Douglas is hauling their birds to market alive instead of dressing them at home as heretofore.

On the sick list last week were Hugh Carlin and R. H. Currin. Both are better at this time.

Richard Davis never goes hunting unless he brings back the spoils. This held good when he returned this week from a hunting trip with a fine elk.

PORTER

Mr. and Mrs. R. Prater visited one day last week at the J. O. Botkin home.

Mrs. Ray Parvin and children spent the week end in Portland visiting her folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee and baby visited Saturday in Woodburn, this state.

Mrs. J. Geoves and son John and Mrs. Grace Allen were Oregon City visitors Monday afternoon.

Bert Jennings, Jr. is visiting with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Vine of Portland and Helen Botkin spent the week end at Seattle visiting Irving and Vernon Botkin.

Mrs. Mae Schweitzer and children and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Winnes were Portland visitors Saturday.

Visitors at the H. Lombard home Sunday were Mr. Manrose, Mr. and Mrs. R. Prater and May and Jack Hendricksen and Don Lombard.

J. O. Botkin and Leonard Anders were Sandy visitors Monday. Friday evening Leonard attended a meeting of the directors of the REA Co-op, which was held at Sandy.
