BARTON

Adolph Bill faithfully reads the Barton news items from all reports and gets quite a kick out of them. Mr. and Mrs. Max Millsap from Portland were Sunday guests of his parents here.

Willard Wallace and family of Boring, Charles and wife of Beaverton visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wallace Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. T. Whitehead had a happy Sunday with her sons, George, Sherman and Frank and their wives, daughters Mrs. Robt. Sumpter and family and Anona McLaughlin and her husband and a guest Mrs. Van Houten of Union.

Mrs. Ira Reynolds of Estacada and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Danley of Portland were dinner guests Sunday of their sister Mrs. Earl O'Dell and family.

Mrs. Harry Corper returned home Friday after a two weeks visit with her parents at Irrigon, this state. She was much entertained while there and members of a club to which she belonged gave her a bridal shower of lovely gifts.

Mabel Sturdevant of Portland spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sturdevant here. Ben Sturdevant was removed from the hospital to his home in Portland much improved after his serious condition.

Guy and Ronald Still were in a piano recital Sunday given in the Baptist church at Gresham. The boys played a duet and Guy a solo. Miss Pattie Greenwood of Orient is their instructor.

Miss Zeretha Wallace and Mrs. Eva Jean Bush and a party of friends were among the skiers at Timberline Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hickmund were dinner hosts Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Still.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cole of Portland were all days guests of Mrs. Frank Thomas Tuesday. Mrs. Thomas went into Portland Thursday and spent the rest of the week with her sister.

Mrs. Betty Weatherby entertained the Goodwill club Thursday at the C. T. Whitehead home. There was quite a lengthy business meeting. Some handsome handmade tea towels were displayed and most of them sold. A Christmas luncheon of plum pudding and tea was served to Bee Wallace, Eva Millsap, Grace Still, Ruth Whitehead, Daisy Hickmund, Amy Rivers, Margaret Gilchrist, Marie Gibson and Hazel Wooster.

GANFIELD

Garfield church will have their Xmas program Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Bob Clarkson is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Breshers. She expects to go to Oakland Calif., on a visit with her husband's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finney were Xmas shoppers in Portland Monday. Mrs. Earl Gunter and daughters were shoppers in Portland Tuesday afternoon.

Gene Autry at New Broadway

Gene Autry popular singing cowboy star and Smiley Burnett will be featured in "Down Mexico Way" the first picture on the double bill at the Broadway theatre this Friday and Saturday. This picture finds Gene in his most likeable role with more songs and more thrills, more beautiful señoritas. A production which tops all other Autry hits and a film that is ace high in fun and entertainment. Second picture on this program stars Fred Astaire and Rita Hayworth in "You'll Never Get Rich". Rita Hayworth's exciting beauty and Fred Astaire's thrilling dancing make this picture the screens most perfect combination of beauty and rhythm. This grand big musical of army life features several new hit songs that are knockouts.

Clark Gable in "Honky Tonk"
Clark Gable and Lana Turner with Frank Morgan, Claire Trevor and other stars come to the screen of the Broadway theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, December 21, 22 and 23 in "Honky Tonk." Gable plays the role of a two-fisted ingratiating card sharp in a gaudy, slam-bang gold camp while Miss Turner appears as a prim Boston school teacher who came west to find her father but instead discovered perilous adventure and romance. The swift-moving story of gun play, Gable's battle for political power and the highly unconventional love story leaves an emotional compact that is not soon forgotten.

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan"
On Wednesday and Thursday December 24 and 25 Robert Montgomery is presented in one of the best shows of the year, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan." There will be continuous performance Christmas day from 2:15. This is billed as the big surprise entertainment of the year. It has a most surprising plot, most stirring characters and is the most surprising film accomplishment that ever dared break all rules to make you laugh, thrill and realize deep down the great emotional values to be found in a great motion picture.

PORTER

At a telephone meeting for the 20 line at Porter school house Monday evening, Hector Anders was elected president of the Hill telephone company, Oliver Bowman, vice-president, J. O. Botkin secretary-treasurer, Byron Anders, Millard Morrill and Leonard Anders are directors.
