

Defense Group Formed at Boring

The Boring district organized a civilian defense unit and a women's auxiliary. The meeting was held at the Boring-Damascus grange hall which was donated by the grange for all defense work. Officers elected were Wallace R. Telford, chairman; Melville Richey secretary. For the auxiliary Mrs. Caroline Gregson chairman; Muriel Markham vice chairman; and Edith Anderson, treasurer. Workers for the Red Cross were in attendance and reported the collection of over $40 towards Borings quota of $100 for the new war relief emergency fund. The meeting was well attended over one hundred being present from all parts of the district. Many signed up for the defense patrol schools which are to be held at Sandy and Gresham. Another meeting of the Boring district unit including the women's auxiliary was held last Monday, December 22nd. This was an all day meeting with pot luck dinner at noon.

AIR RAID RULES ARE COMPILED FOR THIS AREA

Rules to be observed by motorists and others during an actual air raid have been compiled for the Portland "target area" which includes northwest Clackamas county. The rules were announced in Portland last Wednesday as follows: If you are in a car when an air raid starts: (1) pull over to the curb, (2) park the car, (3) turn off all lights (4) get out of the car, (5) take shelter in the best available place, indoors if possible. If you are in a bus remember the bus must stop when the warning sounds. Get out of the bus and take shelter. If unable to shelter yourself indoors sit down; if bombs start dropping near you lie down. Cover your ears with your hands. Protect the back of your head. If you meet a warden go where he directs you promptly and cheerfully. Caution: Don't leave your car in the middle of the street. Don't double park. Don't run, walk. Keep cool. Keep your head.

Immediate Ratings Offered in Navy

Immediate ratings in the U. S. navy are offered men with experience aboard small vessels of this area who are qualified to man craft of the local defense forces operating in local waters. Seamen, engineers, radiomen, yeomen, cooks and other classes of experienced men are needed at once officials of the Thirteenth district announced today. Engineers with experience on either diesel or gasoline engines will be used. Age limits are 17 to 50. Qualified men with this experience are requested to apply immediately at the nearest navy recruiting station. They are to ask for Class M-2 which includes enlistments for this local defense work officials explain. No further naval training will be given the recruits before they go into service and ratings which may pay as high as $126 monthly are offered. In addition to this allowances are made for clothing, food and quarters. Men with dependents or families are additionally provided for also. Officials pointed out that recruits under the M-2 classification will be serving their country in waters familiar to them and near their home ports. Men for these local defense forces are urgently needed now and all qualified persons are asked to inquire about the opportunities.

Oregon Farmers Pledge All-Out for Victory

Now that America is at war achievement of the production goals under the food for freedom "food for victory" program has become doubly important said Robert B. Taylor of Adams chairman of the state USDA agricultural defense program in calling on Oregon farmers to turn pledged increases in production into actual production of more eggs, more milk, more pork and more marketings of beef cattle.

Results of the state wide farm-to-farm sign-up recently conducted by AAA committeemen show that Oregon farmers have "oversubscribed" the original production goals under the farm defense program, planning more than their share of the increased production. But with the nation actually at war some of these original goals may even be revised to meet increased needs said Taylor.

As shown in the sign-up results expected 1942 production of the three most important commodities, milk, eggs and pork well exceeds the original goals the defense board chairman announced. An eleven percent increase in milk production was sought and brot a response of 19 percent increase planned. The promised increase in egg production is 36 percent against a goal of 12 percent; the 20 percent pork production goal brot a response of 33 percent.

Increases in 1942 production over 1941 pledged in the Oregon farm sign-up covering 95 percent of the states farmland were announced by Taylor as follows:

Cows milked 18 percent; milk production 19 percent; hogs marketed 38 percent; eggs, 36 percent; beef cattle marketed 12 percent; sheep 10 percent; corn 7 percent; barley 61 percent; rye 17 percent; hay 9 percent; sugar beets 31 percent; dry beans 63 percent; flax 15 percent; seed flax 10 percent; ryegrass seed 18 percent; winter legume seed 33 percent; preennial grass seed 49 percent; farm gardens 11 percent. Meanwhile the extension service of OSC is marshalling every resource to assist farmers in meeting the emergency conditions. Educational facilities will be centered on the war production program this winter.

New Rural Patrons

Ruby Loundree, Sandy post-tress has received word from Post Office department that route No. 1 of Sandy, Oregon be extended January 1 to serve patrons on roads south from Fisher Corner and east 8-10 of a mile to the southwest corner of section 19 and north to the Loop highway. This addition will provide many residents who live out of town but who had to come to town for their mail a rural mail delivery once a day. Sandy route 1 now covers 52.30 miles with about 280 patrons. With the addition of the new names the route will 55.50 miles in length.

Farmers Urged to Turn Excess Wheat Into Pork

Oregon wheat farmers particularly in the Columbia river basin and the Blue mountain counties have an excellent opportunity to increase the production of hogs during the war period thru greater use of wheat as feed according to OSC livestock specialists who are authors of a new extension bulletin No. 582 which deals with this subject exclusively. The eight-page leaflet discusses the demand for pork in the western states the high value of wheat as a hog feed methods of feeding, the use of pasture in connection with it and other factors in the successful management of hogs.

Unite, Evolved Force

The Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 21. The Golden Text was, "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God." (Ps. 62:11). Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good'" (Gen. 1:1,26,27,31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The universe of Spirit reflects the creative power of the divine Principle, or Life, which reproduces the multitudinous forms of Mind"

NOTICE TO PERSONAL PROPERTY OWNERS

Complying with Sec. 110-349, O. C. L. A., as amended by Chapter 359, Oregon Laws, 1941; which reads in part as follows—"Every person and the managing agent or officer of any Firm, Corporation or Association owning or having in possession or under control taxable personal property shall make a return thereof to the Assessor of the County in which such property has its situs for taxation.—All returns shall be in such form as the Assessor, with the approval of the State Tax Commission may prescribe.—The Assessor shall cause blank forms for such returns to be prepared and distributed, but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve any such person, managing agent or officer from the obligation of making any return herein required."—and which provides a penalty for refusal or neglect to file the returns as required, the Assessor's office at Oregon City will, on December 26, 1941, mail to each Personal Property Taxpayer or record on the 1941 assessment roll, a blank form as provided above.

Any person owning or having in possession of taxable personal property in Clackamas County who does not receive one of these forms within a reasonable time after this date should call or write for one at the Assessor's office.

Cooperation of all concerned in this matter will result in a better personal property assessment as well as a material saving in cost to the county.

Final date for completing and filing is March 2, 1942.
