SP-3 York Chosen Soldier of Month

SP-3 Ronald E. York of Estacada, who is at Fort Riley, Kansas, was chosen from his division as soldier of the month for the month of November.

In order to obtain this honor a soldier is picked for neatness of dress and as to knowledge of military and world affairs. York has also been chosen as a member of several honor guards.

SPRINGWATER

Hugh Marshall, returning from the warm Texas climate to the chilly weather here in Springfield, after two months absence, found that the local deep-freeze had burst every water-pipe in his house. His eastbound ticket took him, via Chicago and St. Louis, down into the Texas country where he "grew up". He enjoyed retracing the steps of his boyhood, in Chicota, Tex., where he visited a number of brothers and sisters. He also visited a sister in Galveston. By a strange coincidence, he was present for the funerals of a sister in Paris, Texas, and a brother in Durant, Oklahoma. Enroute home, he stopped in Idaho to visit another sister. He spent Thanksgiving in La Grande, Ore., with his daughter (Verna) and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter "Scoop" Mendenhall, and their family.

Driving to La Grande last Thursday to attend the Dec. 2 meeting of the Oregon Seed League were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shibley and Mr. Nick Hinchliffe.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Erickson, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Still, went to Springfield to attend a testimonial dinner in honor of the Oregon state Commander of the American Legion. A special guest of this affair was National Vice Commander VanHorn. The local group spent the night in Springfield and returned home Sunday by way of Dallas, where they stopped at the Robert Kreason home for a social breakfast, along with nine other Legionnaires.

The Willard Reeds have sold 80 acres of land, across the highway from their home, to a Mr. Braley, from Texas. The land is adjacent to the farm recently purchased from the John Ohmans by Mr. Braley's son-in-law, Royal V. Proudfoot.

The Reeds' daughter, Pat, came from Portland to spend last weekend with her family. Also visiting in Springfield over Sunday were Marge and Bill Varitz, who stayed at the Harold Horner home. Joining the Horner family for Sunday night supper were the Cy Evons (June Horner), from Oregon City.

CHURCH VISIT SET
The officers of the Springfield Community Presbyterian Church have scheduled the annual Every-Member Canvass for next Sunday, Dec. 11. The officers will conduct a visitation of church members and friends, to secure pledges toward the 1956 budget of the church. Chairman for the canvass will be James Martin.

SPR. GRANGE NEWS
Springwater Grange will hold its regular meeting this Saturday, Dec. 10. On Saturday night, at 8 p.m., the Springwater team will install the officers of Garfield Grange at Garfield.

Installation of the officers of Springwater Juvenile Grange was held last Saturday night, Dec. 3, at Redland Grange hall in conjunction with the installation of Juvenile Grangers from Warner, Maple Lane, and Redland.

Springwater Juveniles installed included: Master, Mike Newell; Overseer, Miss Arlene Hodgkiss; Lecturer, David Newell; Chaplain, Mark Newell; Steward, Johnny Shibley; Asst. Steward, Wm. Tucker, Jr.; Lady Asst. Steward, Vivian Hodgkiss; Gatekeeper, Scott Justice; Ceres, Jay Newell; Pomona, Phyllis Hodgkiss; Flora, Kathy Atkins; Secretary, Carol Smith; Treasurer, Ted Hodgkiss; Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss is the Matron.
