 Mrs. W.E. Keller got a hurry call to come to Arcata, Cal. last Friday to care for her two grandchildren Linda and Bobby Tenny while their mother, Mrs. James Tenny (Emma Keller) kept an appointment with the stork. Mrs. Keller flew down via Western Airlines and expects to be gone at least two weeks. A former resident of Dodge Howard Shartner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shartner of Vale, Oregon, was a visitor in several homes in this neighborhood this last week. His wife and child are in Illinois visiting her parents and Howard hopes to find work near McMinnville and get settled by the time she returns.

Legion Folk Enjoy Pot Luck Feast

Members of the local American Legion and its Auxiliary unit met Monday eve. for a 6:30 pot luck supper with about 50 present. After supper each group held their separate meetings.

Reports were given at the Legion meeting by Commander Ray Gorton, Adjutant Merle Marshall and Finance Officer F. E. Erickson on attending the Clackamas County Veterans council at Oregon City.

Report was made that repairs on the hall were completed and also that the outside had received a coat of shingle stain.

The Legion voted to give $5 to Christmas party fund for local children.

Bill Reimers, a member who has been ill and hospitalized recently is in California at present.

The Legion also voted to purchase $2 in Christmas seals. One new member, Bill Chrysler, was added to the Legion membership.

The Auxiliary unit also added several new members to their rolls including Mrs. Wm Chrysler, Mrs. Ada Sarver and Bonnie Jones, a junior member.

The Auxiliary placed their order for 2200 poppies and subscribed to legislative bulletins.

Sewing meetings have been changed to 3rd Friday of the month with pot luck lunches at noon. Next sewing meeting will be in January; none in December.

Many lovely toys and beautiful aprons made by the members were on display. They will be taken to Veterans hospitals in Portland and Roseburg for their gift shops.

The annual Christmas party for Legion and Auxiliary members, their families and friends will be held Sunday, Dec. 18. Ham for dinners will be furnished by the Legion; other foods will be pot luck. Dinner at 1:30 P.M.

A card party will be held in the hall at 8 P.M. on Dec. 10.

Mrs. Lucy Broadhurst has been appointed chairman for the Gifts for the Yeaks program. Containers will be placed in business places about town for contributions. Money from this project is used to provide gifts for our boys who are hospitalized, some permanently, to let them know we have not forgotten.

It was voted to contribute $5 to the Mae Whitecomb Memorial fund.

The January meeting will have a pot luck supper at 6:30 to be followed by business meetings.

Annual Christmas Party of Garden Enjoyable

The Estacada Garden Club held their annual Christmas meeting in the Legion hall presided over by Mrs. Louise Linn, president.

Each member revealed her secret flower pal and introduced her guest. Fifty ladies were present.

Mrs. Ella Garretson was presented with a going away gift by the club.

A holiday arrangement was presented to the new jewelry store.

The annual Christmas sale will be held Dec. 10th starting at 9 A.M. and closing at 4 P.M. Saturday. Mrs. Leila Gordon announced that there will be swags, wreaths, table arrangements, kissing balls, and corsages for sale. Orders are being taken early.

The ladies held a work day Thursday and 20 ladies helped wire cones and gift them. The group will meet again at Mrs. Gordon's home Tuesday evening and final work day Thursday at the City Hall at 10:00 A.M. Sack lunch at noon.

Everyone is requested to bring cookies for the Silver Tea Saturday.

The club will decorate one floor in building five in the V.A. hospital Dec. 19th.

The Garfield Extension unit again invited members to attend a cake decorating demonstration December 28 at the Garfield Grange Hall at 1 P.M.

The group voted to entertain the Spring district meeting of the Clackamas District of Garden Clubs.

Mrs. Hattie Hershberger was appointed to take care of the Ground Observer book, and asked members to volunteer to man the tower.

The program was the discussion of holiday arrangements and the gift exchange. Carols were sung by the group and a quartette composed of Mrs. Hattie Qualls, Mrs. Clara Coffield Mrs. Mary Lou Dodd and Mrs. Elsie Hale.

The hostesses Mrs. Mollie Bates, Mrs. Ruth Westerberg, Miss Bernice Miller, Mrs. Marie Kindlespire and Mrs. Pearl Marshall served holiday refreshments.

On Friday the Ralph Ahnerts their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Denzil White in Eastern Oregon. The Wait Ahnerts visited relatives and friends in Portland until Sunday, when they returned to their Seattle home.
