

RIDING CLUB NEWS
The Palmetto Polo film taken by the Clackamas County Riding Club Association, is still traveling. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wagner and Phil Fishburn took it to Hood River. Next week Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKeehan will take it to Eugene. Then it will go to Dallas and to Wasco. Dick Wagner, a member of the Cascade Riders and secretary of the Oregon Horseman's Association, was chairman of the meeting held at Bend March 4 to discuss rules for Saddleclub event used all over the state. The rules discussed and settled at the meeting will be known as the Oregon Saddle club rules and will be approved by the Oregon Horsemen's Association in tallying points toward the annual high-point awards.

Others attending from the Cascade Riders were Shirley Murphy and Phil Fishburn, president. The Oregon Trail Riders will hold their annual Doll Dance March 17, which will be held at Cedarville park, two miles west of Gresham. Clair Musser and his band will provide music. The tryouts for the Molalla Buckaroo Court will be held this coming Saturday, March 17 at 8:00 p.m. at the Oswego Hunt club. The Cascade Riders have one applicant, Miss Shirley Murphy. A local Estacada girl also will try out, Miss Anna Marie Moore.

The public is cordially invited to attend and watch the girls perform in the horsemanship trials. The Clairmont Riders will hold their annual spring dance at the Redland Grange hall April 7.

"Passage" — frontiersmen and Indians — with John Payne, Rod Cameron and Faith Domergue. This outdoor action story in technicolor leads you over the trail of adventure with a wagon train of frontiersmen headed into the Southwest country with freight and passengers. Rod Cameron leads while Payne rides shotgun — a really fast moving action packed yarn. Also an unusual detective story, "City of Shadows," with Victor McLaglen, John Baer and Kathleen Crowley. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lane and two children have moved into the Pierce street residence property of Clifford Hoffmeister.

DON'T WAIT - IRRIGATE

PGE will provide you with a complete system design

Irrigation is not an expense — it is an investment in increased profits

For any needed help or information contact your PGE Rural Service Representative

- GRESHAM: Floyd Rader, MOhawk 5-3121
- HILLSBORO: Earl Prickett, Hillsboro 921
- NEWBERG: Don Lowe, Newberg 341
- OREGON CITY: Floyd Rader, Oregon City 5261
- PORTLAND: Ray J. Johnson, CAPitol 8-7181
- SALEM: Dick Garinger, Salem 39211
- ST. HELENS: Earl Prickett, St. Helens 113

Proper irrigation, like the proper building of a house, requires good sound planning. To insure its customers an unbiased and complete planning service, PGE will send an expert to your farm who will analyze your needs and will submit to you free of charge a system layout custom engineered to ASAE standards.

You get a scale map

This service includes a scale map showing elevations, alternate pipe lines, and directions and plans for the most efficient moves. You also are provided with data on recommended sprinklers, pipe sizes, pumps and motors. With this information all suppliers of irrigation equipment will bid on the same specifications — avoiding many misunderstandings and mistakes.

PGE will help you

PGE's other free services include: gauging the flow of small streams, helping to compute the amount of water stored in ponds, offering advice on well testing and advising customers about needed permits.

Your PGE Rural Service Representative has details and material which are available to you. Why not contact him this week?

"Heidi and Peter" at Broadway Sun.

Looking at the marquee of the Broadway Theater, we see now playing, one of Burt Lancaster's greatest pictures "APACHE." Filmed in technicolor in the rugged southwest, we see Lancaster playing the part of Massai, one of the greatest warriors of the Apache nation, co-starred with Jean Peters as the Indian girl who loved him.

After capture by the U. S. Army, this young brave escaped and thereafter waged a singlehanded war against the whites.

Never before has Burt Lancaster portrayed such a powerful character nor held his audiences so spell-bound with his feats of daring as well as true dramatic acting ability. Companion feature, "Double Jeopardy," with Rod Cameron and Gail Robbins in a story of intrigue and blackmail, with lots of suspense and action.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday — another wonderful story of Heidi, with that winning little French girl, Elsbeth Sigmund and her little friend, Thomas Klameth, in "HEIDI AND PETER." Filmed in the beautiful Alps of Switzerland, all the beauty of the mountains and spring in the country are enhanced by technicolor and little need be said to tell what a heart-warming story this is, having been based on a second book by Johanna Soyri.

The story picks up where Heidi returns to her mountain home after helping her friend in the city learn to walk and love life again. Something no adult nor child should miss!

Second feature — based on the music introduced in "Heidi" — "The Yellow Rose of Texas." A re-run of a popular picture made by Roy Rogers and lovely Dale Evans with, of course, the horse, Trigger.
