News From Up The River . . .

by Pat Knudsen

Three Lynx school board was host last Thursday to the school board of the Estacada union high school. These included members from North Logan, Barton, Porter, Eagle Creek, Redland and Estacada. This was the first meeting of the school year and will be held every two months. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Janette Barnes Marie Haneberg and Bethel King.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones, Oak Grove ranger station, enjoyed a 5-day visit with Mr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Jones of Sumner, Wash., last week. The elder Mr. and Mrs. Jones are making a car tour of the Southwest.

Birthdays were news at Silvertip Logging Co. Mrs. Bonnie Copher gave a family birthday dinner last week for her husband, Gordon, and her sister, Beverly 66x. Mrs. Copher has recovered from a 3-week quarantine and long convalescence from an attack of hepatitis. Mrs. Copher also gave a party for her son, Billy, on his 3rd birthday Monday. Children from the Silvertip area were guests.

Mr. Bud Unruh's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Thiesen and daughter spent last weekend at the Unruh home at Oak Grove ranger station. The Thiesens live in Portland.

Mrs. Roberta Fidler left her

Acme Timber Co. home Monday to help decorate a new home for her brothers' construction company in Portland. Her mother and sister of Portland, Mrs. Mary Ryan and Miss Mary Ryan, stayed with her children at Acme.

Home from a hunting trip are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spier at Acme Timber Co. They spent opening weekend at Indian Springs near Prineville, camping out. Mr. Spier brought home a fine four-point buck.

Another hunting trip was made last week by the Clyde Barnes of Three Lynx. Mr. Barnes' parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes and Sally Ann spent the weekend and the men hunted the woods above Three Lynx.

An aunt and uncle from Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laker, were visitors at the Oak Grove ranger station home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stamy. They stayed five days last week on their way to visit other relatives on the West coast.

Mr. Ted Haneberg's brother and family from Bull Run, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Haneberg, spent last weekend at Three Lynx. The men hunted in the nearby hills.

Mrs. Jane Ronthaller, Colowash Ranger Station, is staying at Oak Grove Butte Look-out during the current fire season. She left for the lookout last Saturday and will continue until the fire danger is past.

Acme Timber Co. was shut down Monday, and most of the employees spent Sunday and Monday fighting the fire at Fish Creek. They returned to work Tuesday.

Three Lynx Women's Activity club held their monthly meeting at the school cafeteria Monday. Mrs. Verna Robinson, president, from Silvertip Logging Co. gave instructions on making Christmas candles to the 22 members. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, Jeanette Barnes, and Norma Gant.

LOGAN PERSONALS

LOGAN—Mrs. William Bristlin accompanied her daughter Mrs. Kenneth Valentine to Ver nonia Thursday where they visited friends. Mrs. Bristlin had planned to spend the day with her stepmother, Mrs. H. B. Lash-chinger, but found no one at home.

The regular monthly meeting of the Logan Ladies Aid which was scheduled for this week on Thursday has been postponed.

Mrs. O. Hovee left Friday for California where she will visit for two weeks with their son Gene Hove and family.

Mrs. Doug Rambo accompanied her mother to Seattle during the last week where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. Conser, mother of Mrs. Dan Luft has been house guest this week with the Lufts. She lives in Portland. Miss Lucille Conser and an older sister and her husband visited Sunday at the Luft home.

Governor Elmo Smith congratulates two of Oregon's estimated 800 school patrol officers who lead a "force" of nearly 10,000 children in directing student traffic at schools throughout the state. The governor termed the patrol activity "a vital part of Oregon's child safety education program." The students are Margaret Gates and Richard Alexander who attend Liberty school in Salem.
