Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)

For the third time in a month some personal mishap has struck the Buhlinger family tree. Patty Jo Buhlinger, the youngest daughter of the Tony Buhlingers, fell off a teeter-totter at Eagle Creek school, last Wednesday noon, and broke her right arm. She was taken to Emmanuel Hospital to have the bone re-set, and she returned home on Thursday. On Friday Patty was able to go to the school to attend a special Easter birthday party honoring Carol Anne Buhlinger and Sharon Nelson.

Three weeks ago Paul Buhlinger, Tony's brother, broke his hip. Before that, little Susie Baley, grand niece of the Buhlinger brothers, was struck by an auto.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Gerber acquired a new grandson on April 2, with the birth of a baby to their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Shaver, of Oswego. The Shavers other three boys spent a few days that week at the Gerber farm.

Tuesday evening visitors of the L. O. Gerbers were the Albert Gerbers of Logan.

Thursday night guests of the Shirley Burnetts were Ethel Mae's sister and brother-in-law, Helen and Andy Anderson, and son, and her niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Trenton Morrow, and small son, Helen remained until Friday, when she went on to McMinnville to visit the Morrrows, while her family returned to Seattle.

Joanne Burnett came home on Friday from OSC at Corvallis for the Easter week-end.

Kenny Ronnow returned home on Thursday from Pacific U at Forest Grove.

The Ladies Aid of Eagle Creek church met at the home of Florence Cloninger on Wednesday, April 17. Anne Judd and Dora Clester were co-hostesses.

The World Fellowship Circle will meet next Wednesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Ed Reha.

The young people of Westminster Fellowship arose early Easter morning to go to Estacada. They constituted nearly half of the faithful who climbed the hill to attend the union

Sunrise Service. Afterwards the members gathered at the Burnetts home for a breakfast. A choir composed of W. F. members sang in the Easter service at Eagle Creek Church later in the morning. Gail Mabee, an Eagle Creek junio, sang a solo at the church service.

Easter day found many local people attending church services, both at Eagle Creek and elsewhere. There was also the usual round of holiday visitings with relatives of which we have a partial record here.

At the Jesse Whisler home four branches of the family tree gathered on Sunday to visit: David and Bob Whisler, Marian Haskett, and Naoma Polehn, and each of their respective families. Don and Naomas baby Pamela Fern, was baptized at the Eagle Creek church service.

The Paul Stills spent Easter in Portland at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Audrey and Phil Smith, and family. Returning home they brought 6 year old Sheryl Bell, daughter of Vivian and Carl Bell, who were also Sunday guests of the Smiths. Sheryl hoped to spend the week her with her grandparents.

Sunday guests of the Homer Glovers were Mrs. Glovers sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Penning of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holbrook of Wishram, Wash., were Easter week end guests of their daughter, Sibyl Baley and family.

Mr. and Mr. Chris Clements of Orient spent Easter here at the home of Marys parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Seidel.

Sunday guests of the Oscar Judds included their daughter and family, the Jerry Todds of Portland and their nephew, Bob Judd.

A weekend guest of Mrs. Hazel Beers was Mrs. Katie Heiple of Currinsville, who helped Hazel observe her birthday on Saturday. Last Thursday a small birthday party was given for Hazel by some appreciative mothers of Eagle Creek school children who enjoy her cooking day after day.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Westerman enjoyed a visit from 3 of Mrs. Westermans nieces and a nephew, Mrs. Mildred Coke, from Dinuba, Calif; Mr. Violet Hinkle of Lapine, Ore., Mrs. Winifred Fisher and Arnod Huggans of Milwaukie. They had come to be with their father, Wm. Huggans of Clackamas Heights, who is critically ill and whom the Westermans visited on Sunday. The Westermans also stopped on Gladstone to see John Stidel, a former neighbor, who had suffered an accident in his home last Friday.

On Tuesday, April 16, the Lonnie Smiths enjoyed the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stockley of Phoenix, Ariz., former Eagle Creek residents, who are in Portland for a short visit.

Saturday visitors of Maude Burnett were her son Ronald of Portland and his son-in-law, Al Downey of San Francisco, Al and Carolyn, who are spending the holiday week with her parents, are hoping to move to Portland soon.

The Roy Mann family moved last week from their old home in the Douglas Ridge schoolhouse to southeast Portland. Their daughter Carolyn will finish her year at Estacada high school, commuting with her brother Leroy, who is still employed locally.

Mrs. Louis Skates was taken by ambulance to a Portland hospital last Friday.

Last Monday evening three officers of Eagle Creek church, Shirley Burnett, Tony Buhlinger and Virgil Nelson accompanied Rev. Vernon Ross to Moreland Presbyterian church to attend a buffet-dinner meeting for pastors and laymen of Portland Presbytery. Saturday, April 20, wedding vows were taken by Sylvia Wilson and Tim Leedham at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ember Wilson, in presence of the immediate family. Rev. Vernon Ross officiated. Out of town guests included Wayne and Jeanette Wilson of Portland, the brides brother and sister-in-law, and her sister Janice Howe of Colton. Tim, who has made his home with his sister, Mrs. Virgil Courtain, is the son of Mrs. Frances Leedham of Tennessee. Janice Howe and her two small children spent Easter weekend with the Wilsons.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fox announce the engagement of their daughter Beverly to Kevin Rolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rolph. The wedding will be in July when Kevin gets home on leave from the Air Force.

Del and Nita Gant enjoyed Easter dinner with their daughter and family, the DeSerranos of Portland. Mrs. DeSerrano is the former Rita Gant.

A dogmatic spirit inclines a man to be censorious of his neighbors. Every one of his opinions appears to him written with sunbeams, and he grows angry that his neighbors do not see it in the same light. He is tempted to disdain his correspondents as men of low and dark understanding because they do not believe what he does
