THIS PERSON & THAT

A boy told his mother that Dad said he "didn't like women who drove from the back seat" and like most Estacada women who have the right answers, she told her son that back seat drivers were bad enough, all right, just about as bad as men who cook from the breakfast table. Then there is the woman who says her old man tells her in the morning what he wants for supper that night and how to cook it, yet doesn't know the difference between baste and waste.

Two women in an Estacada store met and each told the other a kid story. They were so good that everybody laughed.

One was about a little girl who found a pressed maple leaf between the pages of the Bible and took it to her mother. "See what I found—it must have belonged to Eve." Then there was the one about the boy and girl who were walking down the street together. The boy was overheard saying: "Just who is the opposite sex, you or me?"

At a large patriotic gathering the speaker asked the crowd, "What flies over every public building in the U. S.?" and a fellow way back yonder shouted "Peejins."

THE DIVINE VIGIL

Scenes like this are as commonplace as the moonbeams that play on the nursery wall. Little Gail doesn't know it... but Daddy and Mummy "look in" on her every night.

But what of the hours when parents rang the voice of the leader. He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep answered the chorus.

Even the loving care of parents is no substitute for the faithfulness of God. When you worship in church next Sunday you'll be expressing the ageless conviction: My help cometh from the Lord.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children and nation. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
