Viola Happenings

(By LaFaye Fouts)

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gerber called their daughters from Vienna, Austria, last week. Received a card from them today from Italy. From Vienna they traveled to Salsbury, then to Omis, Austria thru the Brenner pass to Italy where they took a boat thru the canal to Venice. Stayed in Rome two days. There they hired a guide and did a lot of driving in the Volks Wagon they bought in England. They visited many churches, castles and ancient ruins. They traveled on some of the old Roman roads made of cobble stones. From Rome they went to Florence and to Monte Carlo. They say they have had fine food and good roads on their travels. They like Italy the best so far, but say there is no place like home, or the U. S. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Viola Community Church Board was held last week. Rev. Renaud reported that all the papers for the incorporation of the church were in order. SUNSHINE By C. T. E.

What is it that will be yesterday and tomorrow? What never was, never is and always will be?

Fate can slam him and bang him around and batter his frame till he's sore but she never can say that he's really down while he bobs up serenely once more.

To the general acclamation "Everything is going up!" the Speakers Library declares the rain is still coming down, there's no tax on sunshine or on the snow that makes a mountain's crown. Bird songs cost no more and in my garden the moonlight is as inexpensive as before. The price of joy's the same. It costs no more to work or sing or fan the ancient flame of love. Come, come, what's that you say? The things that really matter cost just the same today.

Some day perhaps we'll sober up and all come to our senses and quit this crashing head-on into fences. We'll go down hills and thru the towns at a speed greatly slowed and get some pleasure once again, a riding down the road.

State Highway of Indiana.
