

Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)
Strawberry picking began in earnest this week in Eagle Creek, with lots of youngsters, teenagers, and older folks limbering up their muscles and also getting their fill of the large and luscious berries. The first picking began last week on the L. O. Gerber farm. The Tacherons and Nelsons began on Friday, and the Judd crew set to work on Saturday. Harvest in the Jarvis fields started this last Monday. Countless smaller local berry fields are also in full production, all hoping for a good market and continued good weather. Sampling the Frank Tacherons' strawberries on Memorial Day were Mabel's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bailey of Portland. Many local friends were saddened at the death of Bill Fuchs, long-time Eagle Creek resident and personable janitor at the local grade school. Emma Buhlinger is recuperating from recent surgery, after returning home from the hospital last Friday. Mrs. Lora Poyser recently returned from a two-week visit with her sister, Mrs. Engelking, in Pullup, Wash. C. C. Davis went to Ranier May 28 to visit his brother Wayne. From there he went to Clatskanie to visit a niece, Mrs. O. E. Miller (the former June Makinester of Eagle Creek,) and her family.

On the previous Saturday Florence Cloninger, with friends from Longview, went to Champoeg State Park. She spent that night in Newberg with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fritch. On Sunday morning she went to McMinnville to visit her niece, Mrs. Stanley Brown and family. On Wednesday night, May 29, 15 members of Westminster Fellowship attended a party of Youth Presbytery at 1st Presbyterian Church in Portland. Visiting the Rosses last Friday night were Vernon's brother and sister-in-law, Howard and Nelle Ross, with their four little children from Portland. Memorial Day visitors of the Oscar Juds were the Jerry Todds (their daughter) of Portland. Mario Todd spent the weekend here with her grandparents.

Courts of Eagle Creek, born in the early A.M. of June 1, at Oregon City hospital. With 4 boys at home, the 8 lb. 3 oz. Judy Lee will be a welcome novelty. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Josh Courtain of Estacada, and Mrs. Frances Leedham, of Kingston, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton became the parents of an 8 lb. 6 oz. baby girl, Linda Beth, early May 30, at Emmanuel Hospital. This is their first child. Mr. Fullerton is coach at Estacada high school. His wife Lillian has been employed at the Estacada bank. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McDonough, of Jacksonville, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Fullerton of Ashland.

CURRINSVILLE
(Mrs. Nellie Currin)
The Jack Heiple family and the Sim Heiples went to East Lake last weekend on a fishing trip. Jack returned Monday but the Sim Heiple family will spend the most of this week there camping and fishing. Mrs. Maude Burnett from Eagle Creek spent the afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Nellie Currin. Emma Douglas joined them for supper and cards. The new house going up on the Barnard farm makes the 4th house on the place in a block and a half. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Boichuk from Portland called on Mrs. Currin Sunday; they were former neighbors. He recently retired, now having a lot of trouble with one of his eyes. They are looking for a small acreage as they want to sell their house in town and move to the country. The McConnell's three daughters and son and their families and the Ed Steinmans, the George Armstrongs and Mrs. R. H. Currin surprised them with a housewarming on Sunday eve in their new home. Mrs. Charles Eversole, who has been in Physician & Surgeons hospital for the past week will soon be able to return home.

sweep trash into gutters. NEGLECTORS - people who don't keep their property clean and neat or owners who don't keep weeds trimmed. IGNORERS - pedestrians and motorists who don't use receptacles provided for trash in the downtown area. The first step to this goal is distribution of warning notices and then citations. We find that our people in Estacada hardly need such a program as they do their part but it all makes an interesting reading.

Tell City, Ind. News: usually criticize the post office department. It would be fair if we didn't give credit where due. This is the brighter side. A mound of red tape consisting of 100 different government forms has been eliminated by the department's forms control program since January, 1953. Huntington, N. Y. Times

ESTACADA COMMUNITY BULLETIN

Walt Van Curen has returned to his home in east Estacada after going thru a 'breakdown' experience that comes to just a few. It all might have started with an ulcerated wisdom tooth that brought on a series of conditions that even threatened his life. Doctors have sent him home quite convinced that he is now on the road to recovery. Relatives led by Mr. and Mrs. Curley Kitching will keep him under observation. Curley has fed the white faced cattle that Walt thinks so much of.

The Ladies Aid will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Brackett next Wednesday.

Mr. Fowler has been cutting fescue for silage the past week which he is storing in a trench silo.

Fred Carlson who purchased the property formerly owned by the Don White family, has leased the property to some people with the dam construction company.

Jim Lauderback was a visitor for several days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lauderback. He has been employed in Denver and has been transferred to Oakland, Calif. as regional manager for National Carloading Co.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snyder were his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Milsey Snyder and Deloris of Veneta, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder, Judy and Larry of Portland.

SUNSHINE By C. T. E.
What is the nicest gift for a telephone gift? A boy was asked how he spelled his first name and he replied: a fish-hook, then a circle, then a big chair, then a little chair. What was the boy's name?
If Columbus had turned back, no one would have blamed him, but no one would remember him.
The Editor of a small town weekly found that some prankster had stolen all the letter "S"s from his type case. He inserted this notice in his next issue:

INTERESTING NEWS
Indianapolis recently began issuing "tickets" to litterbugs and property owners who don't clean up their premises. They are aimed chiefly at:
LITTERBUGS - people who throw scraps, dirt or other trash in public places.
COLLECTORS - people who let ashes, cans, bottles or other discarded material collect around their premises.
BUSINESSMEN - the ones who don't clean up paper, dirt or refuse from sidewalks in front of their stores or who
