

Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)

Eagle Creek strawberry farmers were pleased to find their berries making a comeback early this week, under sunny skies, after a few days' lapse. Most of them have now finished picking for markets, but "U-pickers" can still find some good ones. Red-raspberries are already being picked for the market, and other cane berries are following close behind.

Last Sunday, Mrs. Maude

Burnett celebrated her 81st birthday with a family gathering, including her son and daughter-in-law, Ronald and Eunice (of Portland) their daughter and son-in-law, Carolyn and Al Downey (recently from San Francisco) and Mrs. Burnett's sister, Mrs. Parsons, of Portland (who spent the weekend.) On Tuesday her two other sisters, Mrs. Stipe and Mrs. Russell, came out from Portland.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Roy Meyers entertained the birthday club at Mrs. Burnett's home with nine present. A guest from Portland was Mrs. Hazel Olds, a former Eagle Creek resident.

Tom Burnett is working for the summer in the Diamond Lake area with a U.S. Forestry crew of boys under the direction of Harry Blake, Estacada high school teacher. Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Burnett, took him up there on Sunday, June 16.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Burnett were in McMinnville at the home of the Trenton Morrows (Ethel Mae's niece) where her sister from Seattle was visiting.

Last weekend Christine Holter-in-law, Doug and Lavonne, came down from Wishram, Wash., to return the George Baley's two youngest tots, whom Christine had been keeping during berry season.

The Sam Olmsteads and their family, 25 in all, made a trip to Mt. Hood last Sunday, stopping at ZigZag for a picnic. On Tuesday they accompanied their son Leon and his family to Hood River to see their son Sammy and his wife in their new beauty parlor.

Mrs. Frank White went to Eugene on June 16 with her daughter, Margaret Shellhart, and family, to spend awhile at their home.

Mrs. Z. P. Coop spent last weekend in Madras visiting her daughter, Gladys Grant. During Rose Festival week the Coops enjoyed visits with his brother from Cottage Grove and also some relatives from Kansas.

Mrs. Maude Forrester recently spent a week with her son Paul and his wife Sylvia, in Redmond.

Last Friday Dora Clester had a visit with her brother, Herman Brackett, and his wife from Rufus. Last weekend Ray Crane came from Eugene with his wife to visit his mother, Zola, and his grandmother, Dora Clester, and the rest of the family. Visitors at the Clesters on the previous Sunday were the Gardners (daughter) and the Andersons, from Salem, and Frieda Turner and the Chuck Westerberg family, from Portland.

Daisy Bush was here recently from Grapeview, Wash., to look over her Eagle Creek farm.

Jeanne Verberg went to Eugene on the weekend of June 15th to sing at the wedding of a classmate. Next weekend she is scheduled to sing at the wedding of another girl friend at The Dalles. During the past year she has directed the choral group of her sorority.

Visiting the Walt Smiths on Sunday were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lutz and small Connie Lou, from Gladstone, out to pick strawberries.

Last Sunday evening the Jesse Whislers and the Carl Ronnens went to Gresham to see Carl Fitch, who has recently returned home from the hospital.

Vernon Ross was in Portland this week attending the annual (Presbyterian) Synod of Oregon, being on the campus of Lewis & Clark College. Margaret Ross and Mrs. Florence Glover attended Synodical on Tuesday.

Among those from Eagle Creek attending Garfield Grange's strawberry festival last Saturday evening were the Virgil Nelsons, the Len Verbergs, and the Earl McConells (of E. C. Grange.) The Vernon Rosses attended Springwater's strawberry festival on Friday night.

Springwater

By Myrtle Dmytryk
Recent visitors at the Sam Dmytryk home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed and three sons of Fresno, California. The Reeds are quite impressed with the Estacada country, and would like to move here if they find a suitable place. One thing sure—they have a six foot, 210 pound Freshman son that would certainly interest any football coach.

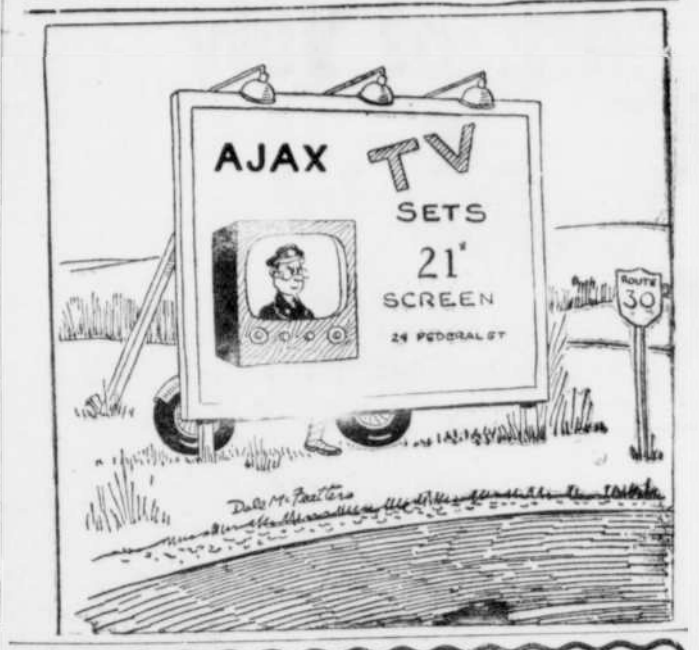

Winnie Shibley spent all of last week acting as a counselor at Camp Menucha, which is the Presbyterian Camp located near Crown Point. Winnie worked with the 12 year old group, and enjoyed it very much.

The social night at the Springwater Grange on Friday evening, June 28th will mark the second birthday and anniversary celebration. Every one in the community who have had a birthday or anniversary in April, May or June, are especially invited to attend the pot luck supper. There will be a table with special entertainment for each month. We are also hoping to have Elbert Smith back again to play the accordion. Mr. Smith made a big hit at the Garfield Grange Strawberry Festival last Friday night, just as he did when he played at our Grange. All in all, it should be an entertaining evening, so start making your plans now to join us.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shibley are attending a two day meeting of the Presbyterian Church Synod this week, at the Lewis and Clark college in Portland. Myrtle and Judy Dmytryk drove to Fort Lewis, Wash., on Saturday for a visit with their husbands who are attending National Guard Summer Camp there. While there we also talked to Jerry Hale, Denny Sarver, Gerald Weiderhold, Jimmy Weston, Danny Mariman, Nicky Hayden, Cecil and Sharon Taylor, and Harold and Geraldine Shoemaker with their baby, Davie. For the benefit of the wives and mothers of the local boys, they are all having a fine time, and their Headquarters Company has taken quite a few honors during the first week of the camp. Their Company Commander, Captain Barnard, told us that he had never had a Company to be so proud of. With so many Estacada boys, how can they miss? Gilbert Shibley is up and around again and doing a fine job of recuperating from his recent surgery. It was nice timing anyway Gib—you got out of the haying.

DOWN THE DRAIN----

"Down the Drain" often sadly describes the money that seems to disappear so completely between one payday and another. The best time to put a quick STOP to this "disappearing act" is at the START. Before you do anything else with the money in your pay envelope, make a deposit in your savings account here. The Dollars you save in the beginning can't go "down the drain" in the end.
