CURRINSVILLE
 (Mrs. Nellie Currin)
 Lawrence Looney was taken to Physicians and Surgeons Hospital in Portland on Monday. On Tuesday he had an appendicitis operation. Mrs. Looney and his mother Rosa Looney go in to see him each day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Looney and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tompkins drove to Saelm Monday where they joined the members of the Robertus Looney clan for a picnic. Robertus Looney was born and raised on what is known as the Looney place. He passed way several years ago in Salem where he made his home for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Wade of Molalla spent the afternoon at the R. H. Currin home. Mr. Wade is president of the Currin-Wade clan who hold their reunions each year. Mrs. Currin is the sec. and tress. and Robert Currin is honorary president. He was president for many years until his hearing failed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lofton drove to East Lake to join their friends the Woods family last Wednesday at Clear Lake. Just a couple of hours before they arrived at their camp, a friend who was vacationing with the Woods suddenly passed away with a heart attack. The Loftons also visited in Madras.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett entertained on Monday Mr. Brackett's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hughee from Tacoma and his sister Mrs. Ruth Harris of Portland.

On Sunday the Bracketts joined Mrs. Brackett's brother and wife the Ray Birchmans on a cruise down the Columbia in their new boat he had just built. They anchored at Sauvies Isalnd and enjoyed a picnic lunch.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Sven Skarr from Nevada City, Calif., friends of the Don Allens in Susanville, called on Mrs. R. H. Currin. They are collecting material for a historical book that they are writing on the early history of Nevada, northern California and Oregon. He is president of the Northwest Historical Society.

Mrs. Myrtle Looney Holland is visiting the Coyd Looneys and the Albert and Charles Kitchings this week.

home last week from a visit with his uncle and family, the John McVickers, in Madras.

Dick Guttridge arrived home last Sunday after a ten day trip to Salinas, Calif., where he visited his sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Waxbom and son, While he was there, they all spent a day in San Francisco seeing the sights.

Joe Guttridge can stop calling his sons 'Otis' now, according to Wilma. She and the boys have adopted a crow, or rather, the crow came to the house and followed them around, so after they fed him, he decided to adopt them. Anyway, as long as Joe wants Otis around the house, that will be the new pet crows name.
