A freak accident on Tuesday, July 16, sent 7 year old Richard Zakrzewski to Providence Hospital in Portland where he is expected to remain for some weeks. While playing in the barn of his parents, the A. J. Zakrzewskis, he fell from the hay loft, landing on the shoulder of a playmate. The other boy was unhurt, but little Richard suffered severe internal injuries, aggravating a previous ailment, for which complications surgery will be required later.

Ed. Johnson has been in Providence Hospital since July 15, suffering from a heart ailment. Special guest of Eagle Creek Grange at last Saturday night's meeting was the master of Pomona Grange, Mr. Mount, who exemplified the 3rd and 4th degrees for Perry Puth. Mrs. Mount was also a guest. Serving hosts for the evening's refreshments were the Herbert Hartwigs and the Gleh Hartwigs. Announcements were made of the E. C. Grange picnic, to be held Saturday P. M., August 3 at Eagle Fern Park and the annual Grange Fair on Saturday, Sept. 7.

Bud Mabree, son of the Ralph Mabrees, last Sunday A. M. left for an extended trip with his aunt and uncle and cousins from St. Helens, expecting to visit Lake Tahoe, Nevada, and Colorado. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mabree drove to Cascade Locks. Houseguests at the Richard Woodcock home are two cousins from Portland: Jim Johnson, who has been a guest of young Dick for the past ten days, and Jimmy Woodcock, a guest of small David since last Sat. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Nelson and Bonnie, accompanied by their friends the Westlings of Clackamas, went across the mountains to The Cove, on the Metolius River, near Madras, for a picnic outing. Mabel Clester has returned from a two weeks' stay in Powers (near Coos Bay) with her husband, Bob, who is working down there this summer. The Lloyd Potters spent last Thursday in Tillamook.

The Sam Olmstedas attended a picnic last Sunday at Columbia Park in Portland, for former residents of Lake County. On Monday evening a car and house-trailer pulled into the Buhlinger - Bailey neighborhood from Evadett, Wash., bringing Art and Ethel Rosand and young son Jimmy for a brief visit. Ethel is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Buhlinger and a sister of Paul and Tony Buhlinger.

Weekend visitors of the L.O. Gerbers were their daughter and family, the Raymond Shavers, from Oswego. A houseguest of the Gerbers on July 14-15 was Mrs. Gerber's sister Mollie Bates of Estacada.

On Sunday, July 14, Zola Crane and her two young daughters, who have been spending the past few weeks here with her mother, Dora Clester, returned home to Cottage Grove.

Visitors of Dora and Nola Clester last Sunday included: the Bill Gardners, of Salem, Bill's sister, Rita Barnard, her daughter Bertha May and son-in-law Paul and their young son, the latter four, from Sacramento, Calif.; Emma Douglas, Ted Winterburn of Portland; Mrs. Ella Gerber, her daughter Mrs. Shaver and small grandsons.

Sunday visitors of the Jesse Whislers were their daughter Naoma Polehn and baby daughter, from Redland, and their son and daughter-in-law Bob and Nancy Whisler and family, from Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Gaylord were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Cranor, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Cook and their three children, Clifford, Daniel, and Barbara, moved back to Eagle Creek last week, occupying the old Blaisdell house at the junction of the Estacada and Sandy roads.

Announcement has been received from Eagle Creek residents Elmer and Helen Berg of Milwaukie, on the birth of a baby boy, their fifth child and fourth boy. This baby was born on July 8, which also was the 17th birthday of their son Gene.

Last Sunday's Westminster Fellowship Youth of Presbytery gathering on the Lewis & Clark College campus attracted 32 from the local area. Included in this group were five members of the Christian Endeavor group of Estacada's Church of Christ, and a few local visitors, as well as Rev. Vernon Ross and Mrs. Ross. Swimming was the main afternoon diversion for the young people. Main speaker in the evening's program was Mr. Phil Hitchcock.

Sunday School at Eagle Creek church resumed last Sunday, after a six-weeks' vacation during berry picking season.
