

Eagle Creek

(By Margaret Ross)

Quite a number of local families were attracted to the beach over last weekend, especially because of good clam-digging prospects. To top it off, everyone who traveled seemed to find exceptionally perfect weather.

At Ocean Park were the Tony Buhlinger family with George Suter as their guest, also Sibyl Baley and her children and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Potter and Karen spent this past week, Wed. to Wed., camping at Ocean Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Still went to DeLake for the weekend, also taking the ocean drive as far south as Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Gaylord and Barbara drove to Klamath Falls early Saturday, returning late Sunday P.M. They visited their son Roy, who is staying with Oras nephew, Grady Gaylord and family. They also stopped at Crater Lake enroute.

is working for the Forest Service. They enjoyed a boat trip around the Lake, escorted by Harry Blake of Estacada, who is supervisor of the crew of boys. They also saw Crater Lake on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jeppeson drove to Elgin, Ore., for the weekend, taking little grandson Tommy to his parents, Lovern and Margie Jeppeson, who have just settled there. Elgin is in the foothills of the Blue Mts 20 miles from LaGrande.

Mrs. Maud Burnett, who had as houseguest last week her sister Edna Parsons, returned to Portland with Mrs. Parsons for the weekend. On Sunday they attended Westminster Presbyterian church where special honor was accorded to associate pastor Dr. Arch

Kearns and Mrs. Kearns, who formerly served our local Presbyterian churches here. In the occasion of the Kerns' 40th wedding anniversary two of their sons conducted the church service—Rev. Paul S. Kerns of San Francisco and Rev. Robert Kearns of Aberdeen, Idaho—assisted by their father. On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Burnett and nine other relatives attended Ice Follies in- law, Mr. and Mrs. Kite of Portland. Sunday Mr and Mrs. George Suter went to Morrow County picnic at Laurelhurst Park in Portland.

Saturday eve dinner guests at the Durwood Douglas home were Mr and Mrs. Ernest Douglas.

One day last week Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Douglas drove around the Damascus area, visiting his brother Pleasant Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heacock.

Weekend guests at the Donald Proctor home were Mrs. Proctor's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kite of Medford. Saturday night the two families attended the Ice Follies in Portland

The Lloyd Stephens family attended Sundays Air Fair at Portland International Airport.

The Jesse Whisler home this past Tuesday night was the scene of a birthday party honoring their son Bob of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mills have sold their home here and have moved into their newly purchased trailer house, anticipating the arrival of the new owners from Cal. Temporarily the Mills plan to live in the trailer parked in the yard of the main house here. Later they may travel southward.

Visitors at Eagle Creek church last Sunday were Mrs. Mae Munger, a former resident of Eagle Creek, her daughter Mrs. Dorothy McCullum, of Bend, her granddaughter Mrs. Dorothy Smith of Portland, little Rosemary McCullum and little Jimmy Smith.

The Ladies Aid of Eagle Creek church enjoyed a noon time picnic at Eagle Fern Park July 24 with about 30 members and guests

Mrs. Lora Poyser was moved Thursday from the hospital to the Centerville Nursing Home in Oregon City. She is slightly improved

Earl Wilson suffered a slight heart attack last week, and is now confined to an easy chair for the next few weeks, with his five lively young sons for entertainment.

Friends of the Burnetts of Eagle Creek have experienced so much confusion trying to phone them at the two non-existent phone numbers listed in the phone directory that we note herewith their correct numbers: Maude Burnett Cr. 9-6375—Shirley (S.W.) Burnett: Cr. 9-6347

Lots of residents are out pulling up tansy, that poisonous yellow weed that can grow so prolifically. We note with concern that the county authorities, so quick to cite private owners for negligence in eradicating their tansy weed, seem blind or oblivious to the masses of the stuff growing unheeded on County property along county roads. Local residents are a bit resentful about this.

ENJOY YEAR 'ROUND CONVENIENCE

What a joy it is to have fresh strawberries in December . . . corn-on-the-cob in January . . . a fresh berry pie on a cold winter's night. You'll eat better electrically with a home freezer.
